"THE INDIAN WARWHOOP"

Edited by the English Department of Ahoskie High School

STAFF

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF . --- Thomas W. Baker ATHLETIC EDITORS_____Horace Garrett, Emma Wooten Elizabeth Dilday JOKE EDITOR ... Columbus McKeel. LITERARY SQCIETY REPORTERS ... Mary Sumner, Bessie Cowan

FACULTY SUPERVISOR _____Miss Emily Gayle .

SCHOOL NOTES

The entire school must acknowledge fifteen years old or above. that when it comes to giving chapel programs the first grade can beat us all. For the program which they gave last Friday morning was a credit to Those whose names appear hereon are the school. There were several songs by the class and also a short prayer, besides two recitations, given by little Misses Frances Boyette and Maude Powell Eley. We especially wish to compliment these two little ladies.

All school children like Fairs. We like them partly for the sights which we may see but mostly because we get a holiday. Thus because of the Bertha Coleson past county fair we received a holiday, which was fully appreciated by all.

We are glad to announce that Mrs. Frances Tayloe evening in the School Auditorium.

first of this week, for Miss Bailey, who Robert Sumner spent the week-end at her home in Edgar Harriss Wakefield, Va.

Much interest is being shown in Velva Howard programs are put on both in the Co- Iris Bellamy lumbian and Hesperian. We surely have the material for some great desession to put on some interesting debates.

Misses Bessie Gaddy and Mary Pearle Gatling Gatling and Mr. K. T. Raynor were Henry Clay Odom visitors in Aulander Sunday.

(Editor's Note-The two essays to be published this week are among the winners in the regular monthly Eng- Mae Holloman lish essay contests. The other win- Columbus McKeel ning essays will be published in a later edition of "The Warwhoop."

Mars Hill Defeats Ahoskie 16-14

The Ahoskie Girl's Basket Ball Report of Columbian Literary Society team played a very exciting game with Mars Hill team on the court of beginning the game was spirited, and lows: the result was always in doubt. First Current events Horace Garrett second half Ahoskie made a brilliant rally, passing easily ahead in score, only to be passed again by Mars Hill, so that when the final whistle sounded

This invitation is extended to the public as well as to the school-to all

This week we are publishing the honor roll of the first month of school. they who have made 90 on each study, and 90 on attendance and on deportment.

The list is as follows: FIRST GRADE Haywood Robertson Frances Boyette Helen Carter Elizabeth Yert SECOND GRADE Marjorie Dilday Alsia Gerock

Marguerite Odom Mildred Vann Delores Camp Virginia Cooke Deanes Brett Thos. Earl Forbes Walter Curtis, Jr. THIRD GRADE

Virginia Odom Bickett, one of the most distinguished Eloise Camp Pattie Gilliam Jenkins women of our state, visited our town Lillie Woodward Gatling Fae Cowan and spoke to the women Tuesday Inez Willoughby Ruth James Mitchell Mary Mitchell FOURTH GRADE

Mrs. D. P. Baker is supplying the Wendell Rogers Margaret Newbern Johnnie Harrell Florine Newbern Julian Brown Tayloe FIFTH GRADE

Sadie McKeel our Literary societies, and splendid Cornibeth Isenhower Allie McKeel Ernestine Hayes John Whedbee SIXTH GRADE bators, and hope by the end of this Margaret Lane Leonora Applebaum SEVENTH GRADE Nellie Mae Baker Addie Mae Cooke Helen Doughtie Rebecca Feldman Myrtle Greene Emily Sumner

EIGHTH GRADE Estelle Newsome Eva Hoggard Mildred King TENTH GRADE Horace Johnson Mary Hoggard ELEVENTH GRADE

Sybil Myers Emma Wooten Mary Sumner Ina Mae Sumner Thomas Baker Arthur Greene

The Columbian Literary Society the latter last Tuesday afternoon, met Friday, November 18th, 1922. November 14. The game was the first | The society was called to order by the played by the Ahoskie team, and the president. The minutes were read girls showed up splendid, reflecting and roll was called by secretary, after much credit on their very efficient which a most enthusiastic and intercoach, Miss Bailey. From the very esting program was rendered as fol-

Mars Hill was ahead and then in the Debate: "Resolved that discoveries have been more beneficial to mankind than inventions." Affirmative, Pauline Cooke, Robert Holloman, Viola Odom, Haywood Early. Negative: Cedric Leary, Alpha New some, Eva Hoggard, Inez Benthall. Jokes _____ Emma Wooten The debate, which was the best that we have held since the society was organized, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Both sides upheld notable argufor Mars Hill. There was no out ments, and after a heated rejoinder, outstanding star for Ahoskie, all the the debate ended in the triumph of ling, Hargraves, Jewell and Mr. Bain. men but a man of irreproachable All of whom gave us help and inspiration by their compliments and presence.

THE FUNNYBONE

History lecturer :- Can any of you tell me what makes the Tower of Pisa lean? Corpulent lady-I don't know, or I would take some myself.

School Examiner-What is the meaning of false doctrine? School Boy-Please, sir, it's when the doctor gives the wrong stuff to the people who are sick.

Billy was in tears when he came home from school. "Teacher whipped me because I. was the only one who could answer a question she asked the class," he sobbed. His mother was indignant. "Why, I'll see her about that. What was the question, Billy?" His eyes lighted reminiscently. "She wanted to know who put the glue in her ink bottle."

Mother was teaching five-year-old John Stark Cowan Bobby geography. She had come to the Sahara Desert. "Now, say it-Sahara," she prompted him.

"Hara," replied Bobby. "No, not mother patiently. "Now, say it." Again Bobby replied, "Hara."

That kept up for some time, until finally Bobby, worn out, exclaimed, indignantly, "Well, mother, didn't I say-Hara?"

Sometimes, says the Boston Herald, Roy Edwards children evince a disconcerting ability to close a conversation and to avert rebuke or chastizement. In a school situated in one of the suburbs there was a disturbances one day among the smaller pupils. A small boy had slapped a little gorl. The teacher was very quick to rebuke the youngster. "Jackson," she said, "No gentleman would strike a lady."

The boy was all ready with his reply. It was: "No lady would tickle a gentleman.

Heroes and Hero Worship

Webster says, "A hero is a man of great valor, intrepidity and enterprise," Emerson says, "Heroism is an obedience to a secret impulse of an individuals character." It is our purpose to consider a few heroes who lived during and after the Civil War. In considering these heroes we will take two great military men, two statesmen, one doctor, and one scientist.

One, especially an educated person, should not be prejudiced but broad minded. Therefore we are taking men of the North, as well as of the South, men of the Republican party, as well as men of the Democratic party.

It is our aim to show how and why en are heroes.

civilization. Heroes from military standpoint have meant the territorial question was hotly debated, he tried standing of a country or nation. They to quiet both sides. He was a friend have gained, or helped to gain for their nation freedom, justice and althoug they did not realize it His two progress. Statesmen have gained the great passions were the love of hunations, heroes have made the nation. manity and the love of the Union. Scientists have made various discov- When the Southern states seceded he eries for the benefit of the world. They have undergone many hardships to make their enterprises successful. Many doctors have sacrificed their lives and bodies to the cause of humanity and to the progress of science. These men have helped us to form that there is a God and that He hates our ideals of American manhood. Carl Schurz says, "Ideals are like stars: you will not succeed in touching them with your hands; but, like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you may choose them as your guides, and following them you reach your destiny." On the military side we shall dis-Report of Hesperian Literary Society cuss Lee and Pershing. First we shall see why and how Lee was a hero: That Lee was a hero is shown when erary Society was opened by singing the Federal Government offered him the leadership of their army, he reminutes of last meeting were read and fused, saying, "I cannot unsheathe my are in." Lincoln was not understood sword against Virginia." Although the North had more men, more money, and more supplies, he did not go against his mother state. Lee, as commander-in-chief of the Southern him as the greatest president up to Current events _____Leroy Overton Army, refused to have any more com- that time, after Washington. Lost and found column_Merton Early forts than the ordinary soldier. When he suffered defeat he did not put the Instrumental Duet Nellie McKeel blame on his officers, even when they were in fault, but assumed it himself. Recitation _____Bessie Newsome In this and other ways he won the Debate-Query: "Resolved that in- love and admiration of his soldiers, ventions have been more beneficial thus obtaining their utmost cooperation. His great military genius is Affirmative-Mae Holloman, Leeke shown when he took a people, gener-Isenhower. Negative; Sailey Bur- ally untrained to war, inferior in numbers and resources, who had few ways to secure supplies, but were strong and sturdy men, and develop-Miss Bailey's criticisms were far ed them into an army of as good you are years of age. All the pro- more constructive than destructive, fighters as the world has ever known, and not only defended their cause, provement of our school. Only those for mistakes which we still persist in and made a magnificent showing his health, and nearly his life to the who are fifteen years or older making. She also gave some helpful against the overwhelming odds, but made for themselves a secure place Wilson's wish will be granted. That He was not only a great leader of character. After the war when Lee was poor, a lottery in Louisiana offered him a large sum of money to let them use his name as president of the concern; he did not wait to write them the answer, but telegraphed them-"Sirs, my good name is all that I have left, it is not for sale." No one class contains Lee. He is with the great captains, with the good, pure chivalrous men-the knight sans peur et sans reproach. Victory did not make too confident, defeat did not make him feel discontented nor in despair. The Southern youth admire Lee more than any character of the Civil War. The second on the military side we have the leader of the American Forces in the World War, General John J. Pershing. When President Wilson was looking for a capable man to lead the American Army, his attention was called to Pershing. He had been a successful fighter against the Indians and Mexicans. Another reason why Wilson selected him was because of his reputation for accomplishing things. So much was this true that he was called "Go-get-her-Pershing."

He had married the daughter of Senator Warren. A few years prior to the World War, she and three of her four children were overcome with Hara-Salara, don't you see?" said smoke. But laying aside private grief, he answered the call of his country and of President Wilson, to become the commander-in-chief of the American Army. Although he was not loved as much by his soldiers as Lee was, probably because they saw so little of them, he was efficient. General, Foch wanted to use the American troops as replacement troops, thus taking away from the Americans all glory and praise. But Pershing was unalterably opposed to it. He said that they had come over as an army to fight their own battles.

Pershing had the ability, courage, and determination to put his entire soul and life into a difficult task and accomplished it. So well did he do this that he not only won praise and honor for himself during the War, not only won laurels for the American Army, not only warded off defeat and turned the tide of war toward victory, but won for himself a place among the immortals.

At the State Fair, Raleigh, recently, he was asked if he really said upon landing on French soil, "Lafayette, we are here." He answered them saying, "They said I said it." He not like some other men anxious for undeserved praise, mildly told them that he did not say it.

After the war the Republican party tried to run him for president, as he was the utmost hero of America's general. He believed that it would be spoiling a good soldier, and making a poor president. Therefore he refused to run.

Next we take up Lincoln. He was a hero in that he was a poor, uneducated boy, of the common people, and arose through his desire, will and de-Heroes have meant a great deal to | termination, to become the greatest man of his day. When the slavery to the South as well as to the North,

Right At Your Door

Located here in easy reach of the retail merchants, we are able to render you instant service, and service that enables every merchant to get what he wants when he wants it. You don't have to worry about the goods not coming on time for the trade.

WE ARE THERE

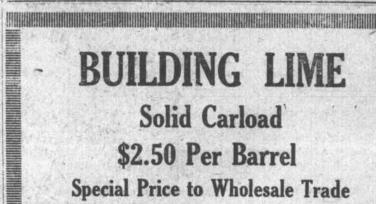

with prices, and it will pay you to see our figures before buying. Buying our big stock in carload lots, we are able to get them at the very lowest price, and we pass the savings direct to you.

Buy at Home

Barnes-Sawyer Grocery Co., Inc. AHOSKIE, N. C.

Sessoms & Forbes Garage AUTOMOBILE REPAIRING Battery Charging and Vulcanizing Ahoskie, N. C. Our service has a guarantee behind it and gives Satisfaction to the most particular customer.

Buy your oils, Gas, and Auto Accessories Here FREE AIR AND WATER

the score stood 16 to 14 in favor of Mars Hill. The game was a success in every way, the best of Teeling being evident on the part of both teams and also on the part of the hearty rooters on the side lines.

Jimmie Brown was easily the star girls playing good ball.

The line-up was as follows: AHOSKIE MARS HILL Brown (R. F.) Harrell (L. F.) Yates (C.) Freeman (L. G.) Odum (L. G.) Dilday (R. G.) Forehand (R. G.) Substitutes

Ahoskie: Ruffin for Harrell, Corbitt for Freeman. Mars Hill: Newsome, A. for Lassiter.

Lois Parker played side center in second half.

Field Goals Ahoskie: Newsome, S., 4; Myers, 1. Mars Hill: Brown, 7. Foul Goals

Ahoskie: Newsome, 3; Myers, 1. Mars Hill: Brown, 2. Time: 15 minute halves.

Referee: Misses Ellerbe and Bailey.

Birthday Party

On Tuesday evening, November 28, at 7:30 o'clock there will be a birthday party at the high school building. A splendid Thanksgiving program is being arranged, which is free. Also tofreshments will be served free to all who come. The only fee asked bate. Critic: Miss Hilda Bailey. is that you pay as many pennies as are invited to attend. The even- suggestions to the debators. ing promises to be one of pleasure to We had as honorary members and in history.

the negative. Mr. Raynor, critic, stated that this program was the best we have given. Newsome S. (R. F.) He also stated that we had improved Myers (L. F.) wonderfully in order, correct posture Lassiter (C.) and other things.

The program of the Hesperian Lit "Battle Hymn of the Republic" The roll was called by secretary. Then Lowell Powell was unanimously elected chaplain after which a very creditabe program was rendered as follows:

Composition _____Arles Isenhower and Marion Bazemore. to mankind than discoveries." gess, Robert Hoggard,

The negative side won in this de

ceeds realized therefrom go to the im- however she gave a few corrections

all. Let all who are invited attend. visitors: Misses Bailey, Gaddy, Gat-said that he would fight to bring them back into the Union; to save the Union and not either to save or destroy slavery.

From a letter to a friend of his the following extract is taken, "I know injustice and slavery. I see the storm coming and I know that His hand is in it. If He has a place and work for me, and I think He has, I am ready. I am nothing, but truth is everything. I know that I am right, because I know that liberty is right, for Christ teaches it and Christ is

God." One of Lincoln's famous sayings was, "With malice toward none, with charity to all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we until years after the Civil War. At first the Southern people hated Lincoln, but after they began to think, realize, and understand, they classed

We next take our former president, Woodrow Wilson. The work of Wilson, like that of Lincoln, will be greater appreciated after his death. He will go down in history as a lover of all mankind, especially of small, down trodden nations. He is a man of the highest character, great in intellect, and executive ability. His ability was shown not only in the successful conduct of the war, but after the war as well, when he wrote the League of Nations. America, as yet, has not joined them-due largely to the opposition and influence of a few Republican senators. He gave cause. But the time will come when he was a hero is shown in that he gave (Continued on page 2)

Also Carload Atlas Portland Cement $1.00 Per Bag

J. N. Vann & Bro., Ahoskie, N. C. THE HARDWARE HOUSE

Best News in "Herald" To-Day! LET'S TAKE THE NEEDED TIME TO READ EVERY WORD OF IT ARMY & NAVY WEEK-END SPECIALS

Aviator's grey wool shirts $1.95 Army O. D. Wool shirts...$1.95 Best grade new O.D.shirts $2.95 Best grade new O.D.shirts $2.95 Large assortment of men's and boy's shirts _____85c and up Men's O. D. Pants—reclaimed to be sold for.____$1.95 Man's O. 'D. Wool pants, straight leg ____$2.95 and up Cordury Riding Breeches $4.50 Man's anage and materiation Men's anag and waterbroof pants $2.45 pants $2.45 Men's all wool blue Navy sweaters $2.95 Slip over sweaters 98c Army russett shoes - value Army work shoes-value $4.50 for $2.95 Army hobnail shoes, very spec-ial at ______295

Men's dress shoes value $6.00 for Men's dress shoes, 5.00 value Men's 16 inch trench $8.00 value for Men's 18 inch trench $9.00 value for Unit Firstone bip $2.95 $6.75 boots $7.50 Men's Firestone hip boots $5.50 value for $3.95 All wool O. D. Army blankets for _____. $2.95 Just received a large assortment of men's suits and overcoats. Buy that Thanksgiving suit now.

.

You can also find a large and varied assortment of useful articles for Christmas Gifts here.

Army and Navy Sales Store Next to Bellamy's Drug Store 128 Main Street AHOSKIE, N. C.