Mrs. Basnight's Mother Dies

News was received here Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Hattie Phelps, mother of Mrs. H. S. Basnight. The body was taken from Elizabeth City where the death occurred to Creswell, and burial was made at the family burying ground. Mrs. Basnight was at her mother's bedside when she died.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GREENE WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Banks of beautiful floral offerings, a funeral procession of two city blocks in length, and a church full of sorrowing and sympathizing friends were evidences of the esteem, love, and affection Ahoskie people held for Mrs. Claude Greene, whose funeral was conducted in the Ahoskie Baptist Church last Friday afternoon. Revs. E. J. Isenhower of the local church and L. E. Dailey of Mars Hill conducted the funeral exercises, which were short but impressive.

The aged father and mother of the dead woman, together with their other ten living children, and a large number of other close relatives of the family, including J. W. Greene, father of Mr. Claud Greene, were here to attend the funeral. Burial was made in the city cemetery, where Reverend Isenhower pronounced the benediction.

The four brothers and Carlyle Gilman, brother-in-law, of the deceased were active pall bearers. Sixteen Ahoskie men, friends of the family, formed the party of honorary pall bearers, and helped to handle the large offering of flowers.

ROBBERS ENTER STORE

Merchandise valued at $1,500 or more was taken from the store of Mrs. E. J. C. Britton some time Wednesday night. Entrance was made through one of the rear windows, which was prized open, and when the robber or robbers left the back door was unlocked and the key carried away.

Articles taken included nine ladies' cloaks, several shirtwaists, an entire shelf full of the best grade of silk goods in the store, a batch of men's ties, and several other articles.

No trace of the robbers has been found.

SNOW FELL MONDAY

The advent of winter weather was accompanied by a slight snowfall in Ahoskie at half past six o'clock, and again around nine o'clock. It melted away as fast as it struck the ground. Monday and Tuesday were two of the coldest days of the season, a high gale prevailing here late Tuesday afternoon and evening. Threatening clouds have give way to clear skies and the thermometers are gradually rising, Thursday was an ideal Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Bickett Talks

The lecture of Mrs. T. W. Bickett on Wednesday, November 22 at Chowan College was well attended by the women of Murfreesboro and nearby sections. Her speech on "Motherhood" presented in a sweet and gentle style was both enjoyed and appreciated by the mothers present. And all appreciated the privilege of meeting Mrs. Bickett at the pretty reception given by the officers and faculty of the college in honor of the Betterment Association.

Mrs. Bickett came to this county just now, through the solicitation of Miss Swindell, the Home Demonstrator, and to Murfreesboro through the efforts of Mrs. L. J. Lawrence, president of the local Betterment Association.

The helpful work Mrs. Bickett is trying to accomplish along her line of endeavor is fully appreciated by the women of this section.
