School Has Been Delayed On Account Of Illness Of One Teacher

(Special Correspondence)

Colerain, January 1 .- Influenza is years ago. Conditions are improving Vann. now except Mr. J. T. Jenkins, Mrs. Frank Deans and Cecil Harrell. Mr. Jenkins has suffered quite a great deal for the past two years with rheumatism and is now seriously ill with influenza. He has a wide circle of devoted friends. Mrs. Deans, a daughter of Mr. Alfred Baker of Ahoskie has influenza on lungs that are not strong.

Cecil Harrell has influenza bordering pneumonia. He is a young man of industry and quite a stay to his widowed mother.

School Delayed

School opening has been delayed until January 8 because pupils and teachers are sick. Prof. C. C. Perry and Miss Hobbs are back but Miss Eva Perry is sick at her home in Wingate. Miss Villa Montague is sick at her home here and Miss Marie Evans is detained in Murfreesboro with her
