

MURFREESBORO NEWS

Mr. Weeks of Florida was a recent guest at the Sewell hotel, where he spent several days with his brother, Mr. R. H. Weeks.

Sunday School, morning and evening preaching services were held at the College on Sunday. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Whitley. This was the first congregational service in several weeks.

There was morning and evening service Sunday at the M. E. church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. C. Larkin. At the evening service a very beautiful duet was rendered by Mr. Larkin and Mr. E. L. Phillips.

A very interesting program was given Sunday evening at the meeting of the Junior B. Y. P. U. A full attendance and much interest on the part of the members marked the meeting with New Year enthusiasm. The subject of the program was: "Our Aim for the New Year."

The graded school resumed work Monday, with a very good attendance. Chowan College is running smoothly, with no cases of the flu.

Mr. L. A. Wiggins and family have moved from Mapleton to Murfreesboro and are occupying the residence of Mrs. C. T. Vaughan, the Haffrell lot.

Miss Mary Horn, who on account of sickness in her home was delayed in returning to her school at King's Mountain, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Boyette, last week.

Mrs. B. S. Liverman spent several days of last week in the county with her husband's mother, Mrs. Ben Liverman.

Miss Lois Parker of near Ahooskie has returned to resume her studies at the graded school.

Mr. E. E. Edwards of Jackson was in Murfreesboro last week on business.

Party Have Big Time

Last Saturday a party from the town took a day off—studied nature among the pines on the river hills; went on a yacht ride up the Meherrin river; visited Mr. Will Britton's fish trap; and returned home with winter evergreens and some fine specimen of fresh fish. One of the biggest of the bunch was a large black fish, two feet long.

Mr. Harper Injured

Wednesday of last week quite a serious accident occurred on the street of Murfreesboro. Mr. Harper of Mapleton, who was sitting on top of a load of furniture, jumped from a run-away two-mule wagon and fell striking the ground mostly on his head. Late in the afternoon of the same day, he was taken to his home in Mapleton, where for several days he remained in a state of unconsciousness. It was believed he incurred very serious injuries, though his condition, according to reports, seems to be improving.

Cantata At M. E. Church

Last Thursday evening a beautiful Christmas Cantata, that was to have been given earlier had it been possible, was rendered at the Methodist church by members of the choir and others of musical talent. The singers were: Misses Eva Lawrence, Sue Lawrence, Nancy Parker, Doris Chitty, Eva Wall, Merle Britton, Gertrude Lawrence; Mrs. L. J. Lawrence, Mrs. J. S. Lawrence, Mrs. Paul Boyette, Rev. L. C. Larkin. T. B. Wynn, Stanley Winborne, Hillie Deans and Mr. Phillips. Mrs. E. N. Nicholson played the accompaniments.

Stephenson-Vinson

On Friday, January 5, Miss Martha Vinson of Murfreesboro, daughter of Mr. Ernest Vinson, and Mr. Wiley Stephenson of Pendleton, N. C., were quietly married in Norfolk in the parsonage of the First Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Doctor Vines, pastor.

Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson returned to Pendleton, and will reside there.
