AN APPRECIATION

We wish to express to the outgoing editorial staff our most sincere thanks and gratitude for their efforts and works during the past term.

Many compliments have been made by both members of the school and citizens of the town, as to the class of work turned out by them. To be sure there were errors made from time to time, but when one considers the youth and inexperience of the editorial staff those who are charitably disposed readily overlooked their character.

To the Editor-in-chief who labored so faithfully, tirelessly and patiently we give the most heartfelt thanks—we are losing not only a fellow-worker but a valuable friend indeed. He has set for the incoming chief a high standard of work and a lofty sense of duty for her to equal or excel.

Again we wish you always to find as loyal friends outside as you have proved yourselves to be to us.

—THE SUPERVISOR.

AHOSKIE DEFEATS TARBORO

The Ahoskie High School quint defeated the Tarboro High quint on the latter's floor on Friday night, January 12th by the score of 18 to 6. The Ahoskie team made the trip without Captain Holloman who was out with a case of "flu".

Greene, whose regular berth is guard, played his first game as forward. He featured with 7 points, which was more than the entire Tarboro team pitched. Leary also played good ball, pitching 6 points as "running guard." The entire Ahoskie team played superior, especially in passing. Both sides missed several chances to score.

For Tarboro, no one player starred, no one player pitching over 2 points. Captain Whitley showed up best all-around.

After this game, the Tarboro girls' first and second teams played. This was of course only a practice game.

After this Captain Norwood Whitley entertained a number of boys and girls at his home including the six Ahoskie boys. Thomas Baker was the additional one.

The line-up and summary is as follows:

AHOSKIE (18)	TARBORO (6)
Greene R.F.	Johnston
Garrett L.F.	Ruffin
Sessoms C	Whitley
Leary R.G.	Brown
Hoggard L.G.	Tate

Field goals: Greene 3, Garrett, Sessoms, Leary, 3; Ruffin, Brown. Foul goals: Greene, Garrett, Johnston, 2.
Referee: P. Thomas. Scorers, T. Baker. Timekeeper: Mrs. Coltrane.

ATHLETIC NOTES

The High school boys returned home from Tarboro Sunday.

The Ahoskie High School boys' quint defeated the Tarboro quint at Tarboro Friday by the score of 18 to 6. Watch Ahoskie!

The boys' basket-ball jerseys and stockings came Saturday. The jerseys have the school colors—old gold and black with "A. H. S." in black on the old gold stripes.

The boys wish to gratefully thank the men of the town for their contributions toward the buying of athletic equipment. For this good deed, they may expect to see clean sportsman-like basket-ball played at all times.

The girls have scheduled a game with the Tarboro girls in the near future. The date and place have not yet been decided upon.

The people of Ahoskie are cordially invited to attend all practice games—boys and girls, free of charge.

Help your team win by encouraging them. This is largely done by attending the games.

SCHOOL NOTES

Our superintendent, Mr. Raynor has been on the sick list for the past week-end, but we sincerely hope he will not be kept from school on account of sickness.

Miss Thelma Jewell, a member of the faculty was a visitor in Winton Sunday afternoon.

Candy was sold by two members of the Columbian Literary Society last Tuesday during the short intermission, the proceeds going to the treasury of the society.

The school children have returned to school to resume their studies after a week of mid-term examinations.

The basket-ball team of Ahoskie was delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon at home of Mrs. J. G. Raby in Tarboro. Dinner was served at one. After dinner they were entertained by playing interesting games. The guests departed about three o'clock bidding their hosts a pleasant afternoon.

Norwood Whitley, captain of the Tarboro team was hostess at a banquet given in honor of the Ahoskie basket-ball team at his home Friday night, January 12th, in Tarboro. After meeting his guests at the door he ushered them into the sitting room, where a radio concert was going on. At the completion of the concert, the guests went into the dining room where a sugar pulling contest was enjoyed. Delightful refreshments were served, and interesting games were played all during the evening. The guests present from Ahoskie were: Messrs. Horace Garrett, Robert Hoggard, Cedric Leary, Arthur Greene, Thomas Baker and C. C. Sessoms.

Miss Margaret Sessoms, a member of the faculty has returned to school after several days of illness.

Miss Gaddy, one of the members of the faculty, was entertained last Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. John Vinson. Several girls accompanied her. After supper a sugar pulling was enjoyed.

Misses Bessie Gaddy and Emily Gayle were delightfully entertained Saturday night, January 13, at the home of Miss Sylvia Applebaum. Sugar pulling was one of the chief events of the evening. There were several other guests, including girl friends of the hostess.

Because of the examinations, and exemptions there was no meeting of the literary societies last week, but the regular meetings will be continued on through the rest of the session, beginning with this week.

School notes continued...
Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Raby of Tarboro delightfully entertained the Ahoskie High School basket-ball team at luncheon, January 13th, during their stay in Tarboro last week. Those who were the recipient of Dr. and Mrs. Raby's hospitality were Horace Garrett, Robert Hoggard, Cedric Leary, Thomas Baker, C. C. Sessoms and Arthur Greene.

THE FUNNY-BONE

Miss Gayle on Science class—
"Robert, what is the interior of the earth composed of?"
Robert Holloman—"Animals."

Cedric Leary, one of our seniors is having considerable difficulty in construing the difference between 5:45 and a quarter past six, as was demonstrated on French class, while explaining the idioms by which the French express time.

John Dock, addressing Mr. Raynor after teacher's meeting—"fessor, does you haf to teach dem too?"

Will the Board Keep Its Contract?
The school board at Green City, Missouri, has played a joke on itself through a blunder in the teachers' contracts. The contracts which were signed by the teachers were especially prepared to prevent the instructors from participating in some of the small town pleasures which are frequently indulged in by the profession. The clause which was intended to remedy the evils was as follows:
"The second party hereby agrees to refrain from dancing, or the use of tobacco in any form, or keeping company with students of the opposite sex."

The joke came to light after the contracts were signed and it was discovered that the "second party" was the board of education and not the teachers.

He Had Lost Out

Once each summer the boys of a certain school on the east side of New York City are taken to Coney Island for an outing. The events of the day are a big dinner and a swim in the ocean. A teacher in supervising the swim overheard the following conversation:

"Ges, Pete, you're dirty!"
"I'll tell 'em" said Peter. Ya see I missed the boat last year."

Teacher—Has any one else a question?
Sleepy Student—Yes; what time is it?

Student—What part of the body is the fray, Miss Smith?

Miss Smith—Fray? What are you talking about?

Student—This book says Ivanhoe was wounded in the fray.

Miss Smith (explaining to class that their next lesson will be an oral composition)—"You must be full of your subject to be able to speak well."
Boy—"My subject is going to be liquor."

Cedric Leary on French class—
"Let's organize a French club. How would you like that?"

Mr. Raynor—"I always could do better with a hickory."

"He's the guy I'm laying for," said the hen as Mr. Brown crossed the barnyard.

"Here goes a flapper too," said the hen as she flew down from her roost in the cedar tree.

Mrs. Benham—"You used to say that I was the apple of your eye."
Mr. Benham—"Well, what of it?"
Mrs. Benham—"Nothing, except you don't care as much for fruit as you once did."

He—"I suppose it would be quite improper for me to kiss you on such a short acquaintance?"

She—"Yes, but it's quite early in the evening yet."

Teacher—"John give me a sentence using the word responsibility."

Pupil—"One of the buttons on my pants, that my suspenders was buttoned to broke off, and put all of the responsibility on the other button."

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school auditorium last Friday evening. The meeting was called to order by Miss Mina Holloman, president and the regular business meeting was held. Different committees made their reports and other matters taken up. Then the Association was delightfully entertained by the third grade. This grade under the leadership of their teacher gave a splendid dramatization of Mother Goose, which was warmly received by the audience. Dr. C. G. Powell, chairman of the Board of Trustees, then made a few remarks telling what plans are maturing in the minds of the board relative to a new building here. This was good news to all present. The meeting was a distinct success. We feel that the interest in our schools grows with each meeting.

REVIEW

We have finished half the journey! Half the race is run! Last week marked the point where we as students finished the fall term of work and the mid-term examinations (those of us who had to take them.) This week brings many changes in our school life. We turn our faces to our spring term work with light and happy hearts, and even now we can see beyond the budding blossoms of spring and behold in our imagination the day of all days for the Seniors—graduation. But before we turn our faces from the fall term work for the last time it seems highly proper by this humble scribe to take a rapid review of the work this school has accomplished during the present session.

Early in the session we divided the high school pupils into two groups and organized two literary societies—Hesperian and Columbian. These societies have done much good work already, the reports of which have appeared in these columns every week. We wish to thank our teachers for planning this very pleasant phase of school work for us.

We took a decided stand in athletics from the very first, organizing an athletic association and under its guidance and supervision organizing two boys' basket-ball teams, and a girls' basket-ball team. These teams have thus far met with much success, and have been the means of greatly increasing our school spirit, as well as furnishing much pleasurable and healthful exercise. The success of our athletics has been brought about very largely by donations from interested patrons and friends of the school. We take this opportunity to thank them for it. Not one cent of the money has been misused.

We as students are very proud of the Parent-Teacher Association which made its initial appearance in our school during the past fall term. We have no duties to perform in this work except to take part in the programs which are given at every regular meeting. This we gladly do, feeling that while we derive much good training from these stage experiences, we also aid the Association in causing a larger attendance at the meetings and thus do our bit toward arousing interest in the school and in showing the imperative need of a new building to house our high school department.

Our library has been overhauled and new books purchased. We can boast of a very good library, and many students avail themselves of the opportunities for good reading. Other orders for books will be placed soon. The Parent-Teacher Association gave us fifty dollars to spend on our library. We thank the members most sincerely for their donations. We realize that the Association is standing back of us. This realization encourages us very much. We try to appreciate fully all these opportunities which are ours. Sometimes we are moved to think "How fortunate we are" And in this connection I can mention the purchase of additional laboratory equipment to supply the needs of our classes in science. This addition was made possible through the Trustees. We acknowledge our gratitude to them. They are a loyal set, and stand squarely behind the school.

Last but not least comes "The Warwhoop." We as students feel that the success of "The Warwhoop" goes unquestioned. It sprang into existence a full blown rose under the superb leadership of Thomas W. Baker. We are glad that it is read very largely by the students and patrons of this school and we hear that it is read also by people of other towns nearby. We do not wish to boast of this. However, we are proud of this means of conveying to outsiders an accurate account of the work done in our school, and give them some idea of our real school life, which this year is made a pleasure for us in several ways. We feel that from now on "The Warwhoop" will have its own place in our school work, and in the hearts of all loyal students.

But with all these successes there comes the minor chord, the note of failure. We are sorry to do this, but nevertheless it must come. Our work all along has been handicapped by lack of accommodations in the way of class rooms, equipment for laboratory, lack of sufficient space for different playgrounds and playground equipment. All this is needed and needed badly. Patrons and friends of this school, we appeal to you to rally to our needs and to your obligations to us. Ahoskie High School is just entering upon a great era. Not two years have elapsed since she rose to the dignity of an accredited high school. Even in these short months, (not two sessions yet) pupils have come from the outside and clamored for entrance until we have reached our limit. Next year we'll have to deny admission to all outsiders unless our new building materializes. Ahoskie now has enough children to crowd this school to its limits. But this is not my subject. I have outlined the work of the fall term. Let us hope for greater successes during the spring term. Such is the deep desire of this humble scribe.
