A CORRECTION
In the large circulars advertising the Big 10-Day Sale of the Ahoskie Department Store, Palm Olive Talcum Powder is advertised at 10 cents per box. This should read 18 cents per box, as the goods in question cost the dealers 17 cents. The advertisement in this issue has been corrected to read 18 cents, although the circulars sent out showed it to be 10 cents.

OFFERS REDUCTIONS
A page advertisement in this issue of the HERALD tells of some money saving bargains at the store of Mrs. E. C. Britton. Prices that have been trimmed to the bone are offered at this store, and every article advertised at cost price is included in the regular high grade stock of goods carried at this popular women's store.

Joseph James Hyatt Married to Miss Edith Thelma Barnes Last Saturday

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Joseph J. Hyatt, son of Mrs. Mattie Hyatt of route 4, appeared in the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot last Sunday. Mrs. Hyatt was hostess at a supper served for the newly-weds last Saturday evening, at her home near town. Several invited guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt came here on the 8 o'clock train that night.

HYATT-BARNES
The marriage of Miss Edith Thelma Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnes, of Ballentine Place, and Mr. Joseph James Hyatt, son of Mrs. Hyatt, and the late Mr. J. H. Hyatt, of Ahoskie, N. C., took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Fairmount Park Baptist Church, with the pastor, Rev. David Peebles, officiating. The church was decorated with palms and potted plants and the marriage took place under an arch of trailing vines and white flowers. The wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Mae Forbes, and just before the ceremony Miss Elva Summers sang, "O Promise Me." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traveling suit of dark blue poiret twill with a hat of Copenhagen blue and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of Madame Butterfly roses. Miss Mabel Barnes was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of cinnamon-colored canton crepe with a hat to match and carried an arm bouquet Madame Butterfly roses. The bridegroom had as his best man Mr. Henry Hyatt, of Ahoskie, N. C. The ushers were: Messrs. J. R. Barnes, Jr., and W. R. Barnes, brothers of the bride.

Later in the evening Mr. Hyatt and his bride left for Ahoskie, N. C., where they will in future reside.

GIVES RECEPTION
Messrs. J. R. Barnes, Jr., and W. R. Barnes entertained Friday evening at their residence in Ballentine Place at a reception given in honor of their sister, Miss Edith Thelma Barnes, whose marriage to Mr. Joseph James Hyatt, of Ahoskie, N. C., took place yesterday afternoon at the Fairmount Park Baptist Church. The room was prettily decorated with cut flowers and the hosts were assisted in receiving by the bride and bridegroom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barnes, Sr., parents of the bride, and Misses Mabel, Lily and Laura Barnes and Mrs. J. R. Barnes, Jr. Among those present were Mrs. Harry Barnes, Mrs. W. H. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hollowell, Mrs. L. W. Berry, Mrs. Eicher, Mrs. S. A. McDonald, Misses Mary Fentress, Janet Forbes, Winnifred Dowdy, Sarah McCoy, Marjorie Tyree, Charlotte Miller, Laura Barnes, Anna Barnes, Susie Barnes, Irma Cooke, June Stewart, Irma Bryant, Laura May Dosier, Ethel May Forbes, Vivian Hyatt, of Ahoskie, N. C., Messrs. Isaac Duncan, Monroe, Cecil Duncan, Clay Johnson, G. Johnson, Roy Johnson, Thurman Dey, Eugene Hyatt, of Ahoskie, Irvine Goodson, Bertram Berry, William Barnes, Stevens, Herbert Barnes and Rev. David Peebles.

NOTICE
By virtue of authority of a certain mortgage deed executed by C. H. Phaup and wife, to J. E. Newsome, mortgagee, which is duly of record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Hertford County, a re-sale having been ordered by the Court, the undersigned mortgagee will, on the 3rd DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1923, in front of the Post Office door in the town of Ahoskie, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash the following real estate:

Lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, in the subdivision of the J. E. Newsome farm, near Ahoskie. In 1919 was surveyed by the E. M. Eastler Engineer Company, the whole tract described as follows:

Which plat is duly of record in Book 85, page 275, office Register of Deeds, Hertford County.

Said lands will be offered first in sub-division separate and then offered as a whole—or the four lots together.

The said mortgagee reserves the right to accept or reject any or all of said bids, and accept the bid or bids bringing in an aggregate the highest price.

This 18th day of January, 1923.
J. E. NEWSOME, Mortgagee.
