

MURFREESBORO NEWS

Weekly Quotation
Around our pillows golden ladders rise,
And up and down the skies
With winged sandals shod,
The angels come and go, the messengers of God.

Mr. T. M. Forbes of Ahoskie was in Murfreesboro a few days ago. Messrs. Freeman Beasley and Richard Taylor of Garysburg, were recent guests in the home of Mrs. Mary Beasley, the former's mother.

Mrs. Cody Martin of Princeton was a visitor of friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Louise Liverman of Ashley's Grove was in town Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Mann of Seavern was in Murfreesboro Saturday afternoon.

Miss Claudine Jenkins of near the village visited Mr. and Mrs. Godwin Jenkins Saturday.

Mrs. G. L. Vann who lives a few miles from the town visited friends here Saturday afternoon.

Rev. H. G. Bryant has returned from Union county where he was with his father whose condition is improved.

Miss Myra Parker and Mrs. Randolph of the Woodrow section were visitors here Tuesday.

Mrs. Z. L. Davis has left for Norfolk to be with her father, Mr. Enoch

Mr. J. C. Phaup of Richmond, Va., was the guest of his son, Mr. C. H. Phaup this week.

Miss Mary Benthall spent the week-end in Rich Square with her cousin, Miss Myra Benthall, a Chowan student.

Mrs. Fannie Harrell and Mr. Luther Hill of Mapleton were guests on Sunday of Miss Elizabeth Pope and Mr. and Mrs. Burleigh Hill.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, of near Murfreesboro, Tuesday, March 6th, a fine 9-pound son, William Hiram Morris.

We are glad to report that little Vaughan Wiggins who has been ill is convalescing.

Little "Ted" Deans, one of Murfreesboro's little pets, was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. E. Deans to Rocky Mount last week where he underwent an operation. The latest news concerning his condition was favorable.

Momentarily Blind
Mr. Walter Chetty, having suddenly become momentarily blind last Saturday, fell in his store. He was taken home and after medical attention, soon recovered his sight. Although, not able to be out at this writing, his condition is improved.

Epworth League Meets
The members of the Epworth League held their weekly meeting Friday, March 2nd with Miss Louise Parker in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hill. After the program was rendered the members were entertained at a pleasant social period.

Streets Are Bad
Main street, especially down town in front of Boyette's store and farther down has been in a deplorable condition. After working a considerable handicap on business and traffic, it received some attention Saturday. But it needs still more. Come to our rescue!

Taken To Hospital
One of the little Boone boys, colored, who lives in the colony on the river hill, was taken to Lake View hospital Friday of last week. An operation was performed removing a gal stone the size of a hen's egg.

WINTON NEWS

Mr. K. M. Kyle from Fayetteville spent the week-end in town.

Miss Salie Matthews who has been visiting relatives in Aulander returned to her home Saturday.

Mr. H. L. Edwards of the Hertford Observer, Murfreesboro, was in town Friday of last week.

Miss Christine Smith, a member of the faculty, spent the week-end with her father Mr. Marcellus Smith in Fountain.

Mr. Julius Bretton, a student of King's Business College at Raleigh, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Britton.

Mrs. John L. Saunders left last Wednesday morning for Saint Vincent's Hospital, Norfolk, where she will enter for treatment. She was accompanied by Dr. W. B. Pollard and Rev. John L. Saunder.

Mr. G. S. Hale from the Naval Base, Norfolk, is home for a month's vacation.

Rev. J. L. Saunders and Mr. Thad A. Eure motored to Eure's Christian Church Friday afternoon where Rev. Mr. Saunders assisted Rev. J. M. Roberts in the funeral and burial ser-VICES of Mrs. P. G. White who died at her home in Roduco after several week's illness with "flu" followed by pneumonia.

Mr. J. R. Brown, Misses Thelma Brown and Estelle Clark were visitors in Ahoskie Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Holoman and daughter, Lillian were in Suffolk Saturday shopping.

Master Charlie Carter, Jr., was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, Norfolk Tuesday morning where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis. He was accompanied by Dr. W. B. Pollard, his mother, Mrs. M. B. Carter and Mrs. C. W. Jones.

Mrs. R. C. Bridger visited Mrs. J. N. Yann in Ahoskie Friday afternoon of last week.

Attorney Thad A. Eure was in Gatesville Wednesday and Thursday of last week on legal matters.

Messrs. Josh and Ronald Rhodes motored to Washington and spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. R. M. Conwell spent the week-end in Norfolk.

Rev. J. Fred Stimson and Miss Pearl Jenkins attended prayer meeting in Union Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Media Cowen, who spent a month with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Jenkins, left Friday for her home in Norfolk.

Mr. Garnett, representative of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company was a business visitor in our town Monday.

Rev. J. Fred Stimson conducted services at Tunis Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Jenkins visited Mrs. E. W. Britton in Tunis Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. M. Eley and children motored to Washington, N. C., Sunday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lassiter and children and Mrs. J. J. Piland were visitors in Ahoskie Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Armstrong from Corapeake was a caller in town Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Mitchell is on the sick list at this writing.

Miss Olethia Vick left for Woodland where she will visit her mother.

Play By Eure Talent
A play "Kentucky Belle" was presented by local talent of the Hall Consolidated School of Eure in the Winton auditorium last Thursday evening. It was presented with much force which was the result of thorough preparation. A large and appreciative audience attended.

ONLY A FEW Can Have This Wonderful Opportunity FREE 30 Q.R.S. Music Rolls Bench and Scarf 30 DAYS' FREE TRIAL 3 YEARS TO PAY No Interest No Extras The Greatest Player-Piano Offer Ever Made $10 Brings This Beautiful Brand-New, Nationally Advertised, Nationally Priced Gulbransen Player-Piano

Ten Days More for the Big Fire, Smoke, Water Sale NOW GOING ON at ARMY-NAVY STORE 128 Main Street AHOSKIE, N. C.

CONCRETE ROADS IN NORTH CAROLINA UNDER the able direction of Frank Page, Chairman of the State Highway Commission, and Charles M. Upham, State Highway Engineer, North Carolina is building a wonderful highway system. Durable pavements of concrete or concrete base types are being constructed on the heavily traveled trunk lines. For roads carrying lighter traffic, gravel, macadam and topsoil PLUS efficient maintenance are making highway travel possible every day in the year.