Mr. and Mrs. J. Bailey Barnes and two young sons went to Murfreesboro last Sunday. Mrs. Barnes and the children are spending this week there with Mrs. Barnes' mother, Mrs. Pattie Watson.

Mrs. Harry Smith of Tarboro spent last Friday in Ahoskie as the guest of her son, Mr. Gilbert Smith. Mr. Smith is connected with the State Highway Commission, and is with the force doing engineering work on the Aulander-Winton highway.

REVIVAL AT M. E. CHURCH

Revival services will begin at the Methodist church next Sunday morning, Rev. S. T. Barber will do the preaching.

VOTE TO BUY PIANO

Members of the local Baptist church voted last Sunday morning to purchase a piano. Heretofore an organ has been used in the church.

RETURN TO AHOSKIE

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Forbes who were recently married in Norfolk have returned to Ahoskie, after a bridal tour to Miami, Fla. They are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown.

DRESSING UP FRONTS

Miss Nannie Newsome has dressed up the front of her hat shop on Main street by adding a canvas awning. Hales Bros., two doors west, have also secured an awning for their cafe.

NEW BUSINESS HERE

Something new and novel in local enterprises is the Variety Store, owned and operated by H. O. Bouffter, who is located in Sessoms' Block, East Main street. A nice line of 5, 10, and 25 cent household necessities is included in the stock.

ATTENDS MOTHER'S FUNERAL

Mrs. J. E. Overton has returned to her home here after spending a few days at her old home in Soudan, Va. She was called there last week on account of the death of her mother which occurred last Thursday morning. She attended the funeral and burial while there.

NEXT MONDAY WILL BE CLEAN-UP DAY

Next Monday, March 19, will be Clean-up day in Ahoskie.

The town council voted Monday night to designate the 19th as a day for a general cleaning up of the town, and is offering its force of workmen to the housewives, and business houses of the town for hauling off the trash and garbage. The town carts will make the rounds beginning Tuesday, and continue until all of the uncollected trash has been moved away.

Every alley-way in the town, vacant lots back of stores, and all lawns and other places used as dumping ground for rubbish, paper, empty cans and other waste matter should be included in the general cleaning-up process. The town commissioners are anxious to see the town cleaned up in great style and will offer every assistance wanted.

ARMY-NAVY STORE CLOSES

The doors of the Army & Navy Store were closed three days this week, pending the transfer of title to the stock from Samuel Bord, former owner, to other parties from Portsmouth who have secured control of the store. It will be re-opened by the new owner within a few days.

ACCEPTS POSITION HERE

Mr. Jack White, Jr., of Mars Hill, has accepted a position as salesman for the Ahoskie Department Store. Mr. White has been working with Weisberger's store at Richmond, Va. He succeeds Mr. J. B. Adkins at the Ahoskie Department Store. The latter will farm this year, working with the store here on Saturdays.

PLENTY OF WIND

March, 1923, is like its predecessors of years gone by, in that it has been accompanied by a plentiful supply of wind. The high winds of the first two days this week brought with them heavy downpours of rain. At Powellsville and Crems and other sections a shower of hail fell Tuesday afternoon.

SEEKING SON'S CUSTODY

Paul Williams, who is in the midst of a legal battle for the possession of his young 3-year-old son, went to Portsmouth Tuesday to attend a hearing in which his estranged wife and an automobile driver are seeking to escape returning to Ahoskie for trial on a charge of kidnapping. He was accompanied to Portsmouth by deputy sheriff O. H. Britton.

WORKING ON BRIDGE

Preliminary work on the construction of concrete bridges on the State highway from Aulander to Winton has already begun. Sand and gravel has been hauled and grading has begun. Travel from Ahoskie to Aulander was diverted via St. Johns last Monday, on account of work being done to the bridge across Ahoskie Swamp, known as "Lassiter bridge." A temporary bridge has been built, and will be used while work on a new concrete bridge is under way.

RESOLUTIONS

On December 2, 1922, our community was greatly shocked to learn of the death of one of our members, Sister Cora Lowe. All that was mortal of our sister passed away to live again in the New Jerusalem. She was an affectionate, kind and patient wife and mother. She left behind a husband, five children, a mother, one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death.

From this world of pain and sorrow To a land of peace and rest, God has taken you dear sister Where you have found eternal rest.

'Tis only a step that divides us From glory no mortal has seen. We shall find her when death's grim finger Shall have lifted the veil between.

Whereas God has seen fit to take this sister to live with Him; we the Womens Missionary Society of the Great Fork church resolve to bow in humble submission to His will.

Resolved second: That a copy of her death be placed in the minutes of the society and a copy sent to her family.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. L. DOUGHTERTY.

FEBRUARY ROAD EXPENSES LIGHT

It cost Hertford County almost seven thousand dollars to maintain its highways, gravel a short section of the Cofield-Harrellsville road, and pay administrative expenses during the shortest month of the year, February. Bills and pay rolls approved by the road board at its meeting on Monday of last week totaled $6,899.40.

Money spent for actual maintenance, including bridge work, amounted to $3,708.37. The largest single item in that amount was the upkeep of the convict camp which includes all foremen, guards and convicts' court costs, it being $1,060.96. Amount paid for hay, machinery, supplies, and garage bills for general equipment was $2,174.31. The rest of the total February expenses are distributed among the several townships, as follows:

Maneys Neck	$386.25
Murfreesboro	435.80
Winton	328.48
St. Johns	719.68
Harrellsville	201.49
Ahoskie	324.71
Bridge work	161.00
The gravel and freight for the Harrellsville - Cofield road cost the county board $1,016.72.
The board will furnish Superintendent Hines with a car for his use in directing the work in the county.
