BILL BOARD UP

A triangular-shaped bill board has been erected adjacent to the sidewalk, at the corner of Railroad and Main streets opposite the postoffice. A new town ordinance prohibits the tacking of notices and advertising matter on any of the telephone and electric light poles or trees in town, and the new bill board has been erected for the use of the public in tacking up notices.

JUNIOR CLASS ENTERTAINS

At the home of Miss Ada Belle Sessoms last Friday evening, a very delightful entertainment was given by the Junior Class.

The guests assembled at eight o'clock, and were all obliged to kiss the blarney stone, this being intended to furnish the guests with all good luck. The hall, parlor, and sitting room were tastefully decorated with the colors of St. Patrick's day—green and white, while the emblem of Ireland, the Shamrock, was the outstanding feature in the decoration.

After all the guests had assembled, various contests were engaged in among them the following:

1. A St. Patrick's contest.
2. A musical romance.
3. Paper doll dressing.

The first of these consisted of answering "Green" or its equivalent, after about a dozen questions. This was won by Miss Lois Parker and Mr. T. R. Bain.

The musical romance was quite unique and much enjoyed. The winners of this were Miss Sailey Burgess and Mr. Horace Garrett.

The paper doll dressing contest consisted in passing around paper dolls with a piece of crepe paper and a needle to each gentleman. Each boy then dressed his doll with some aid from his partner.

During the evening delicious green and white mints were served, and late, at eleven, a cream and cake course was served. The cream was white having a green shamrock moulded in the center, the cakes were iced with green and white; in the center of each plate was an Irish pipe with the green shamrock on its bowl.

The tally cards were decorated with a shamrock and green pencil, on this each guest wrote a wish which was to be given to another guest.

Much fun was furnished by going to the wishing well just before leaving. This was in the corner of the hall. Each guest drew out some souvenir such as small horns, hammers, candy, suckers, etc.

At twelve o'clock the guests assured the hostess that they had spent a most delightful evening.

The guests of the evening were the Misses Ada Belle Sessoms, Mae Holloman, Sailey Burgess, Sallie Newsome, Vida Edwards, Adel Edwards, Inez Benthall, Mabel Claire Hoggard, Mary Hoggard, Ernestine King, Bessie Gaddy, Emily Gayle, Bessie Cowan, Sylvia Applebaum and Fay Cowan. Messrs. Horace Garrett, Linwood Parker, Claxton Garret, Paul Sessoms, Joe Brown, T. R. Bain, Haywood Carley, Ray Hoggard, Oscar Wiggins and Robert Hoggard.

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. N. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Wehr, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended

Theford's

and I decided to try it, for, as I say, I had tried others for two or more years without any improvement in my health. I soon found the Black-Draught was acting on my liver and easing the terrible pain.

"In two or three weeks, I found I could go back to eating. I only weighed 123. Now I weigh 147—eat anything I want to, and by taking Black-Draught I do not suffer."

Have you tried Theford's Black-Draught? If not, do so today. Over 8 million packages sold, a year. At dealers'.

ATTEND BOXING BOUT

Several Ahooskie persons attended the boxing bout at Aulander last Tuesday night. Johnnie Burden, of Aulander, won a decision over his instructor, "Kid" Dixon, of Raleigh. The fight went five rounds.

BASEBALL-LESS AHOSSKIE

About the only prospect Ahooskie has of placing a baseball team in the field this year lies in the aggregation of high school players. Little or nothing has been heard about organizing a team for the town.
