

Secty. Meadows Given Approval
New Secretary Introduced to Members Chamber of Commerce

At a meeting last night of the members of the Ahsokie Chamber of Commerce, the new secretary, Mr. Frank P. Meadows, was officially presented by Rev. E. J. Isenhower. President Strickland presided and several interesting talks were made by several members present.

Secretary Meadows outlined the plans of the local organization and detailed the opportunities of the community along civic and industrial lines. Much interest was manifested and the remarks of the secretary met with a cordial reception from the members. On motion, a rising vote of confidence and approval was given Mr. Meadows. An enthusiastic spirit of co-operation was demonstrated.

Acting on the suggestion of the secretary, the committee plan of organization of the membership was adopted and a nominating committee appointed to form the various standing committees. The plan is to have each member designated for some special work on some committee with the chairman empowered to draft the services of any member for special consultation or assistance in working on any particular project. The plan should do much to stimulate interest in Ahsokie's civic and industrial welfare and increase the individual efforts of the members of the C. of C.

Secretary Meadows impressed his audience with his plea for the immediate organization of a Boy Scout troop and will talk to the boys of the High School this morning. Plans are being formulated also for the development of a credit association among the local merchants.

YOUNG COUPLE PULL SURPRISE WEDDING

A double pointed shaft from the bow of young Mr. Cupid, who about this time each year exhibits an unusual proclivity for shaft shooting, struck the hearts of Johnnie A. Britton, of Ahsokie, and Miss Irene Harvey, pretty young lady of Vanceboro, Wednesday of this week, and ere it could be extracted the pair had legally been made one. In other words, they were married Wednesday afternoon.

Louis Daniel, justice of the peace, performed the ceremony at his office in Winton, only a few close friends and relatives witnessing it. The bride had been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Feldman, coming here as the guest of their daughter who is a student in the Vanceboro school.

The groom is the popular son of Mrs. E. C. Britton, and is associated with her in the conduct of one of Ahsokie's leading business firms. Mr. and Mrs. Britton will make their home in Ahsokie.

COUNTY BOARD ALSO WANTS DIRECT ROUTE

By unanimous vote, the county commissioners last Monday went on record as favoring the proposed direct State-owned highway from Winton to Suffolk.

They passed a resolution memorializing the highway authorities of Virginia and North Carolina to construct this highway, which would connect at Somerton, Va.

The county road board had already taken similar action. At Suffolk next Wednesday, the decision from the Virginia end will be made as to the location. It will either connect at Somerton or Corapeake.

METHODIST DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Methodist District Conference will convene at Jackson Methodist church Wednesday evening, April 11. Full reports from each centenary collector is expected to be made to Hon. W. L. Knight, of Weldon, on the first day of the conference. There is expected a great Layman's meeting Thursday night. The Centenary collectors for each church on the Ahsokie charge are urged to make their report at once to W. B. Johnson, Ahsokie, charge lay leader. A full delegation is expected to attend from Ahsokie. Rev. S. E. Mercer, presiding elder, will conduct the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Overton were the guests of the latter's parents in Soudan, Va., during the Easter holidays.

Miss Louise Basnight returned to Greensboro Thursday morning, to resume her work as student in Greensboro Womans College.

RAISED CHECK

A check written by Mr. J. J. Askew of this town and payable to his daughter, Miss Edna Askew, who is a student at Meredith College, Raleigh, was raised from $20 to $130 a few days ago, and was presented to a local bank this week for payment by a Raleigh bank. The check was originally mailed to Raleigh, but was never received by Miss Askew, who notified her father of the fact. Another check was made out, and payment of the $20 check stopped. When it came to the local bank, it was for $130, with Miss Edna Askew's name endorsed upon the back. Further inquiry showed that she had never seen the check, and payment was stopped. No clue has been found to the person forging the name and raising the amount.
