MR. D. T. DOUGHTIE SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

Death Came After Several Months of Suffering; Many Relatives Survive

Following several months of serious illness during which time he was a patient sufferer, Mr. D. T. Doughtie, 61 years old, died at his home in Ahoskie, Monday morning, April 2, at 3:30. For the past few years, he had been fighting the dread disease tuberculosis, and had retired from active farming operations.

He was born near Ahoskie, and has lived in this community all of his life. His father, Mr. S. E. Doughtie, preceded him to the grave only a few days, many years after the passing of his mother. For many years he was one of the most substantial citizens of the Hickory Chapel section, and lived an exemplary life.

Besides his wife, who is unable to leave her room on account of sickness, he is survived by four sons and three daughters. They are Cola, Floyd, Layton, and Rudolph Doughtie, all of Ahoskie; Mrs. Clyde Willoughby, of Ahoskie; Miss Lennie Doughtie of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Pauline Doughtie, who teaches in Halifax.

The funeral services were conducted at the Ahoskie Baptist church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. E. J. Isenhour. Interment was made in the family burying ground on his place, known as the Dilday farm, at Hickory Chapel.
