Mr. Ambrose Wiggins went to Tarboro Sunday to visit his parents. Mr. S. T. Hill and Misses Susie Hill IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our devoted husband and father, Lucian E. Britton, who died four months ago, January 27, 1923. Dearest Father, how I miss you, Since from earth you passed away; And my heart is aching sorely, As I think of you each day. In the graveyard, softly sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave; Lies the one I loved so dearly, In the cold silent grave. Oh, think how he suffered and moaned with pain, The long night hours as we soothed in vain:

Till God in His mercy sent down from above, An angel that whispered a message

PAINTING POSTOFFICE

The inside and front of the post-office building has been repainted this week. H. S. Basnight, who recently purchased the building has also contracted for the laying of cement in front and on the side of the building.

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

J. R. Rives, conducting a wholesale and retail grocery business in lower Main street, has lately given the inside and front of his building a new coat of paint, and has otherwise renovated the entire structure. He has also added a new line to his business, that of fresh meats and other market habitues.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING AGAIN THIS YEAR

With the end of school almost here, the younger crowd is figuring other attractions for the summer; and along comes the Swarthmore Chautauqua Association to help out. The five-day program will begin here this year May 25th.

One of the principal features of the chautauqua days is the Junior Chautauqua, which has been one of Ahoskie's big factors in child development for several years now. It will be so again this year, say the officials of the chautauqua who are headed this way.
