A YOUNG DAUGHTER

A young daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Dukes, Saturday May 12, at Suffolk, Va. Mrs. Dukes is now at a Suffolk hospital.

LYCEUM REPRESENTATIVE

A representative of the Piedmont Lyceum Bureau spent three days in Ahoskie this week endeavoring to secure guarantors for a series of entertainments to be given here this fall and winter.

SHOWERS WEDNESDAY

Sultry weather followed closely on the heels of the coolness, Sunday and Monday; and thunder showers accompanied the rise in temperature. Several showers of more or less intensity fell here Wednesday.

WANT RADIO INSTALLED

A fund has been started here to purchase a radio outfit for the office of the Ahoskie Chamber of Commerce. Several donations have already been received and others are in prospect.

LLOYD PARKER TO MOVE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lloyd Parker, who have been living at Kansas City, Mo., for the last two years, are planning to move to the Rio Grande Valley in Texas. They now have a home under construction there, and will move as soon as it is completed. Headquarters of Mr. Parker's real estate firm will also be moved.

VANDALISM BREAKS OUT IN AHOSKIE

Young Ahoskie broke loose last Sunday night, and left a lasting impress upon the interior of the Planters Warehouse. A large Federal truck stored in the building was wrecked, several pieces of flooring broken through, windows shattered, stationery destroyed, and other property mutilated.

A reward of $25 was offered by the Bank of Ahoskie, owners of the building, for information as to the perpetrators. It was later learned that several young, mischievous boys did the wrecking business. They are expected to be haled before D. R. McGlohon, Juvenile Court judge at Winton.

Harrell-Jewell

The marriage of Miss Thelma Jewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jewell, Garner, and Mr. Hugh Lee Harrell, of Ahoskie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harrell, of Whaleyville, Va., took place last Saturday evening at 6 o'clock in the drawing room of the Monticello Hotel, Norfolk, Va., with Dr. Sparks W. Melton, pastor of the Freemason Baptist church, officiating.

The bride wore a gown of navy blue poiret twill with hat to match and carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a platinum bar pin set with diamonds, a gift of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Harrell left for a wedding trip North, after which they will make their home in Ahoskie.

Only a few close relatives of the contracting parties were present at the wedding. Miss Gladys Harrell, of Norfolk, a sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis and Wade Harrell attended the wedding.

Mrs. Harrell has for the last two years taught school here, and has made a warm place in the hearts of the school children and others in Ahoskie who know her. She attended school at the Woman's State College in Greensboro.

Mr. Harrell has lived in Ahoskie for several years, and is one of the town's promising young business men. He is a native of Bertie county and a veteran of the World War. He is now engaged in the hay and grain brokerage business in Ahoskie.

LIST TAKERS NOW AT WORK

W. T. Forbes, list taker for Ahoskie township, has filled several engagements at different points in the township. He will continue to take lists at this office in Ahoskie, throughout the month of May.

Attorney L. C. Williams, town clerk, has also announced his list taking days for property owners in Ahoskie. Each Tuesday and Friday he will be in his office to take lists. This schedule will be kept up during the entire month of May.

Property owners should take cognizance of the time limit for listing their property. Failure to list subjects one to double taxes.

NEW TOWN OFFICERS COME IN NEXT MEET

E. Hayes, H. S. Basinight, and D. L. Myers, recently elected to serve as members of the town council for the ensuing two-year period, will assume their mantles next Monday night, immediately after the old council members have met and despatched business. The retiring members are H. W. Stokes, Dan P. Boyette and J. Roy Parker.

Mayor L. C. Williams, present incumbent, will continue to serve as executive head of the municipality, having easily won the office at the late election.

Among the problems the new council will have to work out is the municipal water and light plant, which includes hours for furnishing electric current, the construction of siding to light plant, and extension of sewer, water, and electric lines.

PISTOLS AND RAZORS IN EVIDENCE HERE

D. L. Thomas and his son, Walter Thomas went out after a scalp Tuesday night. E. E. Lane, local barber, was the objective. The two former threatened to cause Lane bodily harm.

The trouble occurred in the barber shop. Lane was not so easily taken into camp, however. He was in close proximity to his supply of razors, and they are dangerous weapons, whether in the hands of the ebony hued, or wielded with the dexterous hand of a trained barber. At any rate, Lane kept his would-be assailants from causing any serious trouble.

A large crowd was in the shop, and others quickly gathered around and serious trouble was averted. The cause of the trouble is thought to be a grudge of long standing.

At the Richard Theater Wednesday night, Mayor Williams heard the evidence from some dozen witnesses, and bound all three men over to Superior Court under bonds of $150 each. The theater was filled to overflow with spectators.

 COAST LINE WILL ***
 ADD TO LOCAL DEPOT ***
 * Work will begin within a few days on an addition to the freight depot of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. The new section will be 150 feet long, fifty feet of which will be enclosed, and the other one hundred feet will be a covered platform space, exact width of present depot and extending all the way to the new warehouse of C. S. Godwin.
 * There has been an unusually heavy demand here for more warehouse space. Especially is this true during the tobacco season, when shippers are hard put for loading space. The erection of a new cotton gin here will also add to the business of the local freight office.
 * Bids for the new addition to the depot have already been submitted by several contractors.
 * The successful bidder will get contract at once.

BUILDING & LOAN READY TO START

The Hertford County Building & Loan Association expects to start its home building program within the next few days. At the regular meeting of directors last week, the business of closing up the first series was despatched. The report submitted by Secretary Frank Meadows showed that even better results had been accomplished than the most optimistic had hoped for.

The Secretary was ordered to accept applications for loans, for presentation to the directors, who expect to extend a loan in a short while for the construction of a home. The first loan will be to some one wishing to build a new home. Mr. Meadows will receive your application at any time.
