B. Y. P. U'S WILL MEET AT AHOSKIE SUNDAY P. M.

The Mars Hill Group of B. Y. P. U. will meet with the Ahoskie union Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. The exercises will take place in the auditorium of the Baptist church.

Rev. E. J. Isenhower, pastor of the local church, will lead the devotional exercises. A secretary will be elected immediately following, and delegates will then be enrolled.

Spurgeon M. Isenhower, vice-president of the Group, will speak to the delegates and visitors on "Our Aim for This Year." Miss Ella Pierce, returned student of the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky., will also give an inspirational talk, this to be preceded by special music.

The Ahoskie Union will give a demonstration program, followed by a talk by Mrs. H. O. Boulter—"Advantages of the High Point Convention."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE THANKED BY STUDENT

The following letter of appreciation has been received by the Secretary of the Ahoskie Chamber of Commerce:

Ahoskie, N. C., May 12, 1923.
Chamber of Commerce,
Ahoskie, N. C.

Dear Sirs—It was my good fortune to win the scholarship medal which you, as a civic body, offered to the Senior making the highest average during the four years. My negligence in thanking you has been due to the steady rush immediately after commencement, but I can assure you it was highly appreciated and will continue to be. If I can be of assistance in helping Ahoskie's Chamber of Commerce to be a more useful factor in our city's development, I shall deem it a pleasure to be allowed to do so.

Yours truly,
THOMAS W. BAKER.

TIMELY TIPS FOR THE HOME GARDNER

Just now is a most important time in the home vegetable garden. There are the young tomato plants, the young peppers and eggplants to be transplanted and the cabbage and cauliflower to be looked after. All of these are much benefited if they can be transplanted now in a good well-pulverized soil that contains humus or decayed vegetable matter so that the young roots will not dry out nor the soil bake about them. F. E. McCall, extension Garden Specialist for the State College and State Department of Agriculture, says that these things should receive attention at once. He advises also that the young tomato plants be kept off the ground and sprayed with the Bordeaux Mixture to prevent blight.

Mr. McCall says, "Now is the time to make additional sowings of early peas (Little Marvel variety) and the stringless green pod snap beans. Try some Golden Bantam sweet corn for a change this year. White Icicle radishes, early half-long carrots and leaf lettuce (Black seeded Simpson) may also be planted now. In place of the head lettuce try some Cos lettuce for the hot weather. This can be planted by making two or three sowings at two week intervals and grown and handled in the same manner as head lettuce. The entire garden can be kept producing some food crop regularly if the plantings and cultivation are kept up regularly and thoroughly."

The extension workers have made the garden an important part of the "Live at Home" program which they are fostering in North Carolina this year. It is found that the negroes are already responding splendidly and it is hoped that, this year, no landowner will consider that he has a good farm unless he has a good garden.

AHOSKIE PREFERS TO GO BASEBALLS AGAIN

Changes may come and revelations may open wide the eyes of Ahoskie persons; but there is one thing in which this town takes but little stock. It is baseball that costs something. Sandlot stuff, untutored, unorganized, without funds, and unlikely to create any interest farther than its immediate hollering distance is the kind of ball club Ahoskie puts out.

In fact, were it not for high school athletics in Ahoskie little, if any, entertainment would be afforded the sport-loving element. The town does not even provide a park for its youngsters to romp on; and, since the school is restricted in area, there is not a baseball park in the town.

An attempt was recently made to create enough interest here to promote a ball club. Several likely ball players are numbered among this town's population, and they are ready to play ball, when the word is given them that they will get the support of the sport lovers.

Aulander has recently organized a strong ball club and will be represented on the diamond by a bunch of ball tossers capable of taking into camp the best of trail hitters. A Simpson, manager, has already asked for games with the mythical Ahoskie ball club.

TELEPHONE COMPANY ERECTING NEW POLES

Farmers along the route of the State and county highways are not the only ones affected by new routes and widened road beds. Among those who have been put to considerable expense on account of the building of new roads are the telephone companies.

The Chowan and Roanoke Telephone Company, of Colerain, is no different from the rest in this respect, for its workmen have been kept busy for months past removing old poles, resetting them, and in many instances setting up new poles. In many places the old wires have been torn and tangled by the trees cut down along the new routes, and extra expense has been added by the addition of new wires.

This company has completed changing old poles, erecting new poles, and stringing additional wires over the new county highway from Ahoskie to Powellsville.

GO TO BALTIMORE

G. C. Britton and Cedric Leary left here last Sunday morning for Baltimore, Md., where they will accept work for the summer. They left here expecting to join workers in railroad shops there.

Children's Day originated in Rose Sunday which was observed one Sunday each year in June beginning in 1850, by the Church of the Redeemer, Chelsea, Mass., the idea originating with Rev. Charles H. Leonard, the pastor.

Robert R. Reynolds Probable Candidate for Lieutenant Governor

CROP OF CANDIDATES ADDS ANOTHER NAME

Announcement has just been made of the candidacy of Robert R. Reynolds, Asheville, for nomination for Lieutenant-Governor on the Democratic ticket. Reynolds has refused to positively commit himself, although he has taken particular pains not to deny the report.

He is a seasoned campaigner and is known throughout the Western section of the State. If he enters the race, he will introduce some novel tricks of campaigning, says Hubert M. Holloway of Asheville. He will probably make an automobile tour of every county in the state.
