Weekly Quotation
Somebody scoffed, "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it;"
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin
Without any doubting or quid dit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.
—Edgar A. Guest.

PLANS BEING LAID FOR A BIG FAIR

To give the people of this section some idea of the coming Williamston Fair which is still six months away, the management is working hard to get the best booked early.

There are entered in the thousand dollars stake races 135 horses. Of course all won't start the same day but on no day will less than 24 enter.

This does not include the open races for the usual purses offered at fairs of this kind. They will be run also and will be two races each day.

A thirty car show, the largest ever in the state, and for the ladies the management have made arrangements for a fashion show with living models. One of the largest department stores in the Carolinas will exhibit the latest in women wear and show styles with the models.

An excellent open air program will be given day and night, with a mammoth fire works program in front of the grandstand.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. C. A. Godwin who died six months ago, December, 7, 1922.

Dearest Mother, how I miss you, since from Earth you have passed away. And my heart is aching sorely as I think of you each day. In the graveyard softly sleeping where the flowers gently wave lies the one we loved so dearly in the cold and silent grave. Oh think how she suffered, and mourned with pain; The long night hours as we soothed in vain Till God in His mercy sent down from above An angel that whispered a message of love.

Gone but not forgotten. Her devoted daughter, MRS. MOLLIE DILDAY.
