TEXTILE DEPARTMENT
North Carolina State College

During the past year the Textile Department of the State College, which is the Textile School of North Carolina, has had a larger registration than in any previous year, and a larger graduating class.

To keep pace with the development of the textile industry in the State and in the South $70,000 has been appropriated for an addition to the present Textile Building and $35,000 for additional equipment. This will place the Textile School of North Carolina in the front rank and make it one of the best equipped schools in the country for instruction in cotton manufacturing.

Graduates of this school are filling responsible positions in the mill and allied industries, such as second hands, overseers, secretaries, treasurers, machinery salesmen, dye salesmen, etc.

During the past week several donations have been made to the Textile School, the most important being two complete humidifying systems, one by Parks-Cramer Company, Charlotte, North Carolina, for the carding and spinning room, and one by the Bahnsen Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, for the weave room. The Whittin Machine Works also donated an eight head-comber of the latest type.

Insurance Agent
Knows His Stuff

J. E. Odom, Ahoskie Man,
Takes First Honors In Writing June Policies

J. E. Odom, of Ahoskie, believes in that old adage: "Every man to his own business." Mr. Odom's business is writing life insurance, and in that particular line he knows his p's and q's. "Although not a phenomenal producer," writes the district manager of the company with which Mr. Odom is connected, "he was worked faithfully and consistently, has qualified repeatedly for our Honor Clubs and has built up one of the best renewal accounts in the Raleigh agency."

The latest crown taken into himself in the business of providing protection, is the copping of First Honors in a campaign put on by the Raleigh agency during the month of June, when all records for insurance written were broken. The contest was one in which every agent of his company in the State entered, and with all of them extending extra efforts to win first place, the Ahoskie man outstripped the whole bunch. During that time he sent in more applications with examinations attached than any other agent in North Carolina.

Naturally, that record stands out as one of his prominent achievements; but it does not at all mean that Mr. Odom held back anything for that period, just to make a good showing. He is eternally after business, and his applications sent in the year around have stamped him as one of his company's hardest workers and most successful agents. Here is another statement the district manager makes about the local agent: "He has built up one of the best renewal accounts in the Raleigh Agency. His business is well sold and he has a very low lapse rate, showing that his clients are well pleased with his business."

And, aside from what the company says about Mr. Odom's good work, the people of three counties, Hertford, Bertie and Northampton, can well attest his ability as a seller of insurance, and also as a holder of confidence, which constantly develops for him repeat orders from his large list of buyers. That is one of his strongest allies—persistent effort, coupled with fair and frank dealings.

This recognition of the work and record of Mr. Odom comes to him unsought so far as the HERALD is concerned. He is too busy seeking business to look out for personal praise or newspaper publicity. In fact, this newspaper always has nursed just such opportunities as the one presented herewith; and it congratulates the Ahoskie man for his ability to attend to his business. The records prove that he has done it.

JUDGE KERR DUE TO-HOLD COURT

July Term Will Start Last Week This Month Instead of First of August

Judge Jno. H. Kerr, avowed candidate for Congressional honors, is scheduled to preside over Hertford County superior court, when it convenes in its first annual July term, Monday, July 30. By legislative act of the last General Assembly the summer term has been set for a week earlier than heretofore, on account of a conflict with Northampton's court.

This county is not within the Second District, where a nominee for the office held by the late Congressman Claude Kitchin will be selected by primary next October, but it is in such close proximity that its citizenship is much interested in the race. Judge Kerr will receive a warm welcome in Hertford County, where he has served in an official capacity for twenty years, first as district solicitor and for the last seven years as superior court judge. In and out of court, he is regarded as an example of the State's finest citizens.

Jurors for the one week's term of court were drawn last week at the regular meeting of the county commissioners. They are: Hugh Lee, E. E. Carter, Benjamin Gray, R. O. Whitley, H. T. Edwards, J. E. Ferguson, E. N. Nicholson, Fred Parker, H. O. Boulter, Floyd J. Parker, W. P. Futrell, H. P. Gatlring, Wingate Penwell, J. L. Smith, Jas. Futrell, W. P. Britton, H. B. Jones, A. W. Liverman, J. B. Sumner, C. R. Odom, A. J. Vinson, W. E. Lassiter, H. G. Snipes, J. L. Snipes, C. B. Whitley, E. V. Grissom, S. E. Harrell, E. R. Perry, Z. V. Bazemore, C. R. Perry, Marshall Lassiter, Ernest Hayes, C. L. Jones, J. L. Earley, S. E. Vaughan, and J. A. Hill.

LESSON FOR JULY 15

SIMON PETER

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 16:13-18; John 21:15-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Lord, Thou knowest all things; Thou knowest that I love Thee."—John 21:17.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—John 1:35-42; John 18:10-11; 20:1-10; 21:1-22; Acts 2:1-5.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Peter, the Helper of Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Leader of the Twelve.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Peter's Failures and Successes.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Peter's Weaknesses and Strength.

I. His Name. (John 1:42).
The name which he bore when introduced to Christ was Simon, which means "hearing." But Jesus gave him a new name—"Peter," which means "rock." This showed that he was to become.

II. His Call. (John 1:41, 42).
His brother Andrew brought him to Christ. This brought him into fellowship with the Lord. From ordinary discipleship he was called to special ministry (Luke 5:10). From being a fisherman he was called to catch men.

III. Peter's Character.
1. Sincere. What Peter was at heart could be read on his face. He was free from duplicity. People could understand him. Because of this characteristic they could tell when he was lying. Yet even when people knew he was in error they could believe in him. He seems to have been ignorant of the word "diplomacy."
2. Prompt. He had the ability to decide and act quickly, as the occasion demanded. This made him a real leader. His action at the empty tomb was an example of his promptitude. John outran Peter, but Peter was the first to enter the tomb. When Cornelius sent for him at Joppa he responded without delay.

3. Courageous. While Peter played the coward sometimes, he was for the most part a brave man. No doubt it was through cowardice that he denied the Lord, but it was his courage that brought him to follow the Lord into the palace of the high priest.
4. Intense. He felt keenly and acted with vigor. Whether right or wrong, what he did he did with all his might. When he preached it was with passion. No finer example of burning eloquence can be found than his Pentecostal sermon.

IV. Peter's Confession of Christ (Matt. 16:13-18, 21-28).
The disciples had been with the Lord for several years. They had heard His mighty words and seen His mighty works. Various opinions were extant about Him. It was now necessary for them to have a definite conception of Him. The Master-Teacher knew the necessity of having the disciples get the right conception of Himself.

1. What It Was (v. 16). It involved His Messiahship—"The Christ," and deity—"Son of the living God." This is the burning question today. Those who have the right conception of Christ's person and mission have no trouble in the realms of science, philosophy or ethics.
2. Christ's Commendation (v. 17). He pronounced him blessed. Truly he was blessed, for he both possessed and confessed the Christ. The evidence that Peter was blessed was that he was in spiritual touch with the Father in Heaven.

3. Peter's Blessing (v. 18). Christ declared that he should be the foundation stone in His church. Christ is the chief cornerstone on which the church is built. Christ's person and Messiahship was confessed by Peter, and on this rock is laid the foundation of apostles and prophets (Eph. 2:20). All believers are living stones of this house (1 Peter 2:5).

V. Peter's Restoration (John 21:15-17).
Peter grievously sinned in denying the Lord, but he made a confession, shedding bitter tears of penitence over his sin and folly. The Lord tenderly dealt with His erring disciple and restored him. In this restoration He brought to Peter's mind the essential qualification for his ministry. Love is the pre-eminent gift for Christ's service. To impress this upon him, he three times asked the question, "Lovest thou me?" Three classes of people were to be served: (1) Those beginning the Christian life—"Feed my lambs." (2) The mature Christians—"Shepherd my sheep." The shepherd needs to protect and feed the sheep. Love is the one essential equipment for this service. (3) The aged Christians—"Feed my sheep." Love is needed in dealing with the fathers and mothers in Israel.

Injuries.
Rather wink at small injuries than to be too forward to avenge them. He that to destroy a single bee should throw down the hive, instead of one enemy, would make a thousand.

Trust in the Lord.
Trust in the Lord and do good: as shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.—Ps. 37:3.

The Student.
Don't despair of a student if he has one clear idea.—Emerson.

BE PRETTY! TURN
GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite
Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
