

Sawyer-Eason

A party given in Gatesville, July 14th, announced the engagement and approaching marriage of Mr. J. L. Sawyer, one of Ahooskie's most popular business men. Mr. Sawyer is member of the wholesale firm of Barnes-Sawyer Grocery Company, and travels through several northeastern counties, where he is popular not only as a business man but also on account of his genial disposition. The marriage will take place in Gatesville July 31.

The following is a copy of the party, which is clipped from the Albemarle Observer, published at Edenton.

On Saturday evening, July 14th, the Misses Costen gave a reception in honor of Miss Stella Horner, of Linden, N. C., their week-end guest. On the porch the guests were received by Miss Stella Horner and Jeanette Costen, and were served punch by Misses Eliza and Eugenia Cowper and Doris Lawrence. Receiving in the hall were Misses Helen Wolfley, Lucy and Mary Costen. From the hall the guests were ushered into the parlor and library by Messrs. T. W. Costen, Jr., and W. H. Hoffer. After several games of Rook were played, suddenly, at the tap of a bell, soft strains of music came from the piano in the hall and Miss Helen Wolfley sang "I Love You Truly." Then the attention of all was turned to the stairs, down which came little Miss Naomi Riddle dressed as a fairy, with wings of tinsel and gauze, with daisies in her hand from which she pulled the petals as she repeated, "One he loves, etc." The music then changed to the wedding march, and again the pine decorated stairs was the center of attention as a small couple, little Carl Rawles and Ella Kate Lawrence, dressed as bridegroom and bride, came down. The little bride wore a veil fastened with lilies of the valley. She carried a corsage of Shasta daisies to which was tied a lovely ring of platinum set with a diamond. She gave this to one of the guests. Following quickly came little Lewis Eason and Lockwood Sawyer with silver waiters from which a card attached on which was written "L. L. E. - J. L. S." The bride-elect received warm congratulations, after which the little fairy led the way to the dining room and refreshments were served. The decorations were of pine, ivy and potted plants. In the dining room pink and tinsel prevailed with the green as background. Over the table hung a tinsel wedding bell from which streamers of tinsel reached to the table. On the table were bowls of pink and white flowers and pine needles. Pink candles furnished light. The centerpiece under the bell was a bank of ivy on which stood a miniature bride and groom. Pink cream and cake were served and mints in rose cups of pink crepe paper. The place cards were hand painted with Shasta daisies. The bride-elect Miss Laura Lee Eason, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Eason, of Gatesville, and the groom is Mr. J. L. Sawyer, of Ahooskie. The marriage is to take place this month.
