24-HOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE

Beginning August 15th, 1923

Upon the recommendation and advice of the Ahooskie Chamber of Commerce, we will inaugurate in Ahooskie on and after August 15, 1923 continuous telephone service, having an operator on Days and Nights. This will provide service over all lines on the the Ahooskie switchboard and Long Distance Calls in and out of Ahooskie after 9 o'clock and throughout the night.

INCREASED RATE

With the beginning of this service, we will advance rates on all telephones in the town of Ahooskie 50 cents per phone. This increase will be necessary to take care of the increased cost of operation due to con- tinuous service.
