Friday, October 26, 1923.

OF AHOSKIE Mrs. J. S. Deans spent Monday in

LOCAL NEWS

Norfolk on a shopping expedition. Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Parker spent last Sunday in Jackson with relatives. Mr. Herman Gatling of Norfolk was a visitor in Ahoskie last Saturday. Mrs. W. R. Johnson and Miss Agnes Johnson went to Norfolk last Saturday. Mr. Roger B. Johnson went to Norfolk last Saturday returning Sunday night.

Mrs. E. E. Lane spent Monday and Tuesday in Suffolk on a shopping expidition.

Miss Mary Grant Spivey of Woodville was the guest of Mrs. J. N. Vann last Thursday.

Mr. Hal Burden of Aulander was among the visitors in Ahoskie Wed. of Harper's. nesday afternoon.

Lawyer-Editor A. Simpson, of Aulander, spent a short while here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Albert Byrum of State College Raleigh, spent Friday night with his uncle, Mr. H. S. Basnight.

Misses Earle Lawrence and Louise Basnight spent last Monday in Norfolk on a shopping expedition.

Dr. Charles P. Weaver, President of Chowan College, was a business visitor in Ahoskie Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. Scull and daughter, Miss Myra Scull, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Basnight of this city.

Attorney C. Wallace Jones of Winton was among the business visi-tors in Ahoskie Wednesday after- has since the last issue of the Chownoon.

Mrs. Roberts Jernigan went to Harrellsville last Saturday and at- 1924. tended the Community Fair held there

Mr. and Mrs. James Hart of Ayden spent a few days this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alexaner of this city. Mr. John White, who is attending high school at Drivers, Va., spent the Greatest Scholars" and countless odd week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. White.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alexander are attending the Four County Fair at WAKE FOREST ALUMNI Suffolk this week. They are the WILL HOLD BANOU guests of relatives there.

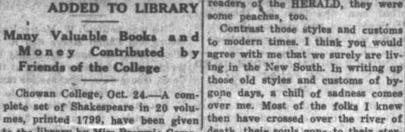

Miss Earle Lawrence, who attends Peace Institute in Raleigh, is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lawrence.

Miss Louise Basnight, a student in Greensboro Woman's College, is spending this week in Ahoskie with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Basnight.

Miss Foy Cowan and Mr. Rober Bruce White motored to Windsor last Sunday afternoon. They were the guests of Miss Ruby Mizelle while there.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Powell motored to Raleigh last week to attend the Alumni Secretary. A Hertford State Fair. They were guests of their son, Lowell, at Wake Forest College, one day while in that vicinity.

Windsor was a visitor here Tuesday are expected to attend. A quartette hibit them to the undersigned on or afternoon. He was en route to his from Wake Forest has been invited home after attending county superior court at Winton. Miss Clare Watson of Mars Hill and those desiring to attend, and the ban-Miss Helen Wolfiey of Powellsville were guests of Miss Louise Basnight Wednesday evening. They attended direction of Miss Fannie White. the moving picture show while in town.

to the library by Miss Brownie Campbell, a graduate of the 1878 class and nal reward. a former resident of Murfreesboro. In addition to the Shakespeare, Miss Campbell gave tweny bound volumes of Century Magazine for the years 1880-90; fifteen volumes of Harper's magazine covering period between 1850-64. These books besides being valuable additions to the library are noteworthy because of their age. Miss Campbell has promised many FOR SALE-ONE 9-ROOM BUNGAother volumes as soon as the books can be located. Among those to be given later are a copy of the first edition of Bleak House; a complete set of Scott; and additional volumes

OLD AND RARE BOOKS

Mrs. Doris Spiers, Mrs. H. McDonald Spiers and daughter have contributed six bound volumes of Atlantic Monthly, six of Lippincott's and six of Scribner's. The first editions of Scott's Peveril of the Peak and Anne of Gierstein; "An Essay on the Constitutional Power of Great Britain Over the Colonies in America", published in 1774; "Commentaries on the Laws of England" by Sir William Blackstone, printed in 1771; "Titus Lucretius Carus" translated into English verse and printed in 1683 are other valuable contributions made by Mrs. H. McDonald Spiers of Como. Many other books have been added to the library. It is evident that if the library continues to grow as it anian, the goal of six thousand volumes will be reached by September,

Members of the Student Volunteer Band of Chowan College gave six volumes of the latest mission study books. A complete set of Kipling's works, nine volumes of the "World's Greatest Sermons" and nine volumes of "Modern Sermons by World's volumes of old and new books have also been given.

WILL HOLD BANQUET

Well Known Speakers Will Talk On Founders Day

Chowan College, Oct. 24 .- On the evening of October 31, the doors of Chowan will be opened to welcome all the Wake Forest men of both the Chowan and West Chowan Associations, at a Wake Forest banquet to be given in the college dining room. The speakers for the occasion will be Hon. J. W. Bailey, Dr. W. L. Po-teat, President of Wake Forest College, and Mr. John Arch McMillan, County Wake Forest Alumni Association will be organized during the course of the banquet. Wake Forest Judge Francis D. Winston of men from all parts of the country those old styles and customs of bygone days, a chill of sadness comes over me. Most of the folks I knew then have crossed over the river of death, their souls gone to their eter--JOHN A. PARKER.

LOW, on Church street, 1-4 acre corner lot, garage and 5 good 12x 20 shelters. Built in 1921. Reason for sale, owner leaving town.

Apply "Real Estate, Care Herald.

WANTED-MEN OR WOMEN TO take orders for genuine guaranteed hosiery for men, women, and children. Eliminates darning. Salary $75 a week full time, $1.50 an hour spare time. Cotton, heathers, INTERNATIONAL STOCKING til11-30 MILLS, Norristown, Pa

FOR SALE-A HOUSE AND LOT cash, balance on time. *0-5-tf H.W. STOKES.

FOR SALE IN AHOSKIE, N. C .-Several lots, including large 2 story house near colored church and two small houses in Hayesel-EDGAR T. SNIPES, town. 505 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. 10-5-23-tf.

LOST-TAN FEMALE FOX HOUND, had collar on when left. Anfor information leading to her re-swers to name "Viene". Reward covery. J. N. VANN & BROS.

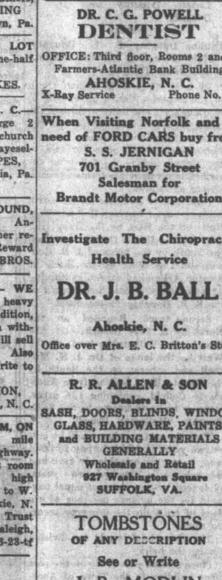

FINE OXEN FOR SALE - WE have two yokes of fine, heavy weight oxen, in good condition, well broken. Can be driven without reins; good workers. Will sell cheap to early purchaser. Also two log carts and yokes. Write to or call on the undersigned. H. J. HOLLOMON.

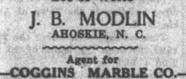

10-26-2t. Merry Hill, N. C.

FOR SALE-NEWSOME FARM, ON terms to suit purchaser. 1 mile from Ahoskie on Winton Highway. 42 acres, 25 acres clear; 3 room dwelling, 2 tobacco barns, high state of cultivation. Apply to W. W. Rogers, Attorney, Ahoskie, N. C., or Raleigh Real Estate & Trust Co., No. 4 E. Martin St. Raleigh, 10-26-23-tf N. C.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executrix of R. R. Brantley, deceased, late of Hertford County, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of the said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or

AHOSKIE, N. C.

COPELAND DRUG CO.

The Rexall Store

The Prompt and Efficient Pharmacy

We have the only Registered Druggist in Ahoskie or

Hertford County

AHOSKIE, N. C.

AHOSKIE, N. .C

Mrs. Fannie Leary, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Leary motored to Raleigh last week to attend the State Fair. They were met there by Mr. Cedric Leary, who is a student at the State University.

ROADS ARE SLICK

State and county, like so much ton, doing it on the floor not far from greased lightning, and motorists have the fire to warm it. had their muscles well exercised in holding their cars in the road. Prospects are for another fall and win-

PEANUT GROWERS MEET

About twenty-five peanut farmers of this section, who are members of erally dyed brown. the Peanut Association, met in a conrector, and Mr. Gwaltney, President, of the organization. Both of these gentlemen explained the new pledge members were being asked to sign being a pledge to deliver half of their 1923 crop to the Association, on which an advance of 3 1-2 cents was to be made at the time of the delivbeliefs that it was finally on a succes-ful basis. The women would dress up occa for them to sign the new pledge.

Hertford and will probably be present. Plates will be sold at a dollar to quet will be served by the department of Home Economics under the

MR. PARKER TAKES ANOTHER WHACK AT WRITING FOR US

(Continued from page 1)

dyed, using walnut hulls and cowpeas to set the dye. Some would use barks from certain trees when they wanted the cloth to be of a certain color. All the filling that went into the cloth Rains this week have made the was spinned at home. I have some my the newly constructed highways of mother picked-the seed out of cot-

She said the seed could be picked out better with the fingers when the cotton was warm. The warp came in ter of the usual brand of county blocks of five pounds, and were sold highways. It cost $1.25 to $1.50 a block. The bolt of cloth when tak-en out of the loom would have from 20 to 30 yards in it. All socks and stockings were knit at home, and gen-

All our shoes were made at home. ference with H. J. Vann of Como, di- The cow hides were tanned around the neighborhood. The calf skins were also tanned. This leather made into women and children's shoes. All shoe makers would go around looking for work, their kit of tools with them. They would go to a home maybe ten days making shoes for the family. I almost feel my feet hurting now, as ery. They also explained that the ex- I wore those stiff hard leather shoes, pense budget of the Association had Sometimes they would be too small. been reduced, and re-iterated their The sole leather was bought at the

The growers present listened at- sionally, especially on Sunday. Calf tentatively to what was said bue no skin shoes, home knit stockings, response was made when it was time home made cloth, dress made at home. with their big hoop skirts-that was this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

MRS. R. R. BRANTLEY, Ex'trx. John E. Vann atty. 10-26-6t

Notice of Sale Under Mortgage.

By virtue of the power and authority given by a certain mortgage exesuted by W. A. Miller and Emma W. Miller which is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Hertford County, in Book 72, on page 116 the following property will be sold at public auction, viz:

"Situated on the road leading from Ahoskie to Union and bounded as follows: on the North by J. E. Matthews, on the South by the Baptist colored church property, on the East by the road leading from Ahoskie to Union, and on the West by J. E. Matthews, containing one acre more on less, and known as the W. A. Miller gin and swmill lot. This conveyance is intended to include all building and personal property on said lot consisting now of a sawmill and engine shelter, gin house and seed house and one four-room tenant house, one cotton gin outfit consisting of two 80saw gins with condensers, press, and pneumatic elevators, one two-horse power Kinsington Steam boiler, one 50-horse power Tamur Steam Engine and one saw mill outfit, all of which personal property is now on the lot above mentioned. PLACE OF SALE - Hertford County Court House door. TIME OF SALE-12 o'clock, noon, Monday, October 29, 1928. This September 27, 1923. C. W. MITCHELL, JR., JNO. L. PRITCHARD,

Executors C. W. Mitchell Estate.

Subscribe to the HERALD-$1.

