

STATE NEWS IN DIGEST

Deaths in the family of Cleo Smith of New Bern were increased to three within four days when infant girl twinned.

Two classes in the evening school being conducted by the State Department of Education and the schools of Raleigh were organized during the past week with an enrollment of 64 men.

The annual fair staged by the Agricultural students of the North Carolina State College will open today, Thursday.

The brief ceremonies presided over by Mayor Eugene E. Cuthbert a bronze Boone Trail Highway marker set in a granite block was unveiled in the Capitol Square last Friday.

The new school of law of the University of North Carolina probably the most beautiful buildings on the campus which was recently completed at a cost of $150,000 was formally opened October 22.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Raleigh Civic Club they planned to make a three-hour canvass of the business district October 26th for the purpose of raising funds to provide a real celebration of the fifth birthday of peace, on Monday, November 12.

A jury in Wake County Superior Court October 26 awarded George C. Ray damages of $2,800 for injuries sustained by fumes from the Carolina Fertilizer and Phosphate works.

Boy Scouts of Rocky Mount are planning elaborate memorial exercises for President Harding on Friday, November 2 which will be the birthday anniversary of the late chief executive.

Conditions of the Southern Freight depot in Durham are being investigated by Southern Railroad officials with regard to the advisability of building a new station.

More than one thousand delegates coming from every part of the State opened the 25th annual "jubilee" convention of the North Carolina Christian Endeavor Union in Greensboro, October 26th.

Beginning October 27 members of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association will receive approximately 14 cents a pound as a first advance instead of 12 cents as previously, according to announcement from the Raleigh headquarters, October 27.

With a total of $145,177,000, North Carolina contributed to the new high level of trust company resources of the country according to "Trust Companies of the United States for 1923" just issued by the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York.

The nation-wide movement of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation for a million-dollar fund to be used for the double purpose of the purchase and permanent upkeep of Thomas Jefferson's home in Virginia as a national shrine is under full headway and North Carolina has been organized to take an effective part in the campaign.

Approximately eighty physicians were in attendance upon the Ninth District Medical Society which was in annual session in Statesville October 27th.

Navy Day was celebrated at Beaufort October 27 with considerable enthusiasm and success.

October the 27th marked the 74th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Ellen who live at Biva, Ashe county a short distance from Winston-Salem.

The 118th annual session of the Raleigh Baptist Association will meet at Knightsdale October 31, November 1.

Migratory fivers are paying $500 a day into the State Highway maintenance fund through the medium of gasoline taxes, according to estimates based on a road census of tourist traffic made at the direction of State Highway Commissioner Frank Page. The tide of the southern movement is at its height and about 1700 cars are moving through the State daily.

State Treasurer B. R. Lacy is advertising for sealed bids on all or any part of $10,649,500 common bonds of the State bearing interest of not more than five per cent.

Childrens Book week which will be observed throughout the country November 11-17 will be held this year in Raleigh in the Childrens Department of the Ransy Library.

Governor Cameron Morrison is scheduled to open the Columbus County Fair October 30th.

Lenoir county sheriff's officers next month will be occupied largely with the serving of summonses on 204 citizens who failed to list taxes for the last fiscal year.

The hunting season in Kinston will begin November the 15th.

Judge E. H. Cramer, in Superior Court, has signed an order assessing all stockholders of the defunct Liberty Savings Bank 10 per cent on the dollar.

The $200,000 building program of the Methodist Orphanage which has already been approved by the trustees was supplemented October 29 by the decision of the board to devote the $100,000 given to the institution several years ago by S. C. Vann of Franklinton with the $35,000 which has accrued, to the erection of a modern school and administrative building.

HARRELLSVILLE NEWS

Among those attending the Four County Fair in Suffolk last week were Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. B. Scull, Mrs. H. H. Taylor, Misses Mary Sykes, Ethel Callis and Myra Scull.

Mrs. B. Scull and daughter, Myra, spent the week end in Suffolk shopping.

Several of our Sunday School members went over to Colerain and pounded Rev. and Mrs. Walters Friday night.

Miss Nell Deans spent the week end in Norfolk shopping.

Our Community Fair was held at the school building October 26. It proved quite a success.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roughton went to Edenton Saturday with Mr. R. C. Mason, to bring back a new car.

Misses Sadie Somers, Annie Laurie Sessoms and Bertie Northcott spent the week end in Suffolk shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Powell and Mrs. Mae V. Lowe motored to Ahoskie on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Harrell and Mrs. Dorsey Taylor went to Winton and Ahoskie Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Askew and family spent Sunday afternoon in Winton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Callis, Misses Ethel Callis and Elizabeth Smith visited friends in Ahoskie Sunday.

Mr. E. D. Callis spent Friday in Norfolk.

Mr. Starkey Sharp, Sr., spent the week end in Suffolk, Va.

Sheriff B. Scull went to Norfolk Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Myers of Cofield visited Mrs. J. K. Modlin Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Williams, county supervisor, visited our school Friday.

Miss Myrtle Swindell, county demonstrator, met with the Junior Betterment Wednesday.

Miss Minnie Valentine visited Mrs. Mae V. Lowe Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Askew and daughter, Miss Lillian Askew, went to Murfreesboro Tuesday to attend the Association.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Newsome attended the Association at Murfreesboro Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Ward of Robersonville is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Morris, Mrs. James Cotton and Mrs. Rena Holloman spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Rosa Hill.

Reverend Walters of Colerain filled his regular appointments at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Walters.

Mr. J. E. Wilder went to Ahoskie Thursday afternoon on business.

Mrs. B. N. Sykes and daughter, Mary, went to the movies in Ahoskie on Saturday afternoon.

Rev. T. W. Walters held a B. Y. P. U. Institute at the Baptist church last week.

Miss Madeline Modlin spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Evelyn Smith.

Miss Lucile White returned home Saturday, after visiting relatives in Suffolk.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ward and family were visitors in Harrellsville on Sunday.

Mrs. Rena Holoman is spending a few days with Misses Fannie and May Hill.

Mr. H. H. Taylor and J. E. Wilder spent Tuesday in Elizabeth City on business.

County Agent O. O. Dukes reports that 15,000 pounds of carpet grass and Japan clover were planted in Robeson County in one week recently. The boll weevil doesn't like grass but cattle, hogs and poultry do.

EVANSTOWN ITEMS

We are having some pretty weather again and farmers are very busy housing their crops.

Mrs. R. C. Barnes and family of Franklin, Va., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Barnes Sunday.

Miss Agnes Baker of Gastonia is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Delk and Mr. W. C. Baker.

Some of the Mars Hill high school girls spent last week-end with Miss Ethel Britt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers of Cofield spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jessie Barnes.

Mrs. W. E. Miller returned home Saturday after spending some time with relatives in Mill Neck.

Mr. W. C. Odom and W. B. Byrum attended the fair at Suffolk last Thursday.

Name the farm this winter. Circle Grove Farm sounds better than the "Old Latham Place." Looks nice on a letterhead, too.

NOTICE OF SALE

North Carolina—Hertford County J. A. Doughty, J. W. Doughty, W. J. Doughty, Susan P. Saunders, Bessie C. Horton, C. W. Doughty, Floyd Doughty, Myrtle Willoughby, Lennie Doughty and D. V. Doughty versus Pauline Doughty, S. L. Doughty, Helen Doughty, Rudolph Doughty and Bessie Doughty.

By order of D. R. McGlohon, Clerk of the Superior Court, appointing J. A. Doughty Commissioner to sell the lands for division as described in the petition filed in this cause, the said Commissioner will offer for sale to the highest bidder the following described lands upon the terms and conditions as follows:

First Tract: Bounded on the north by the lands of Norman Hall and Tom Hall; on the East by the Duky Hall land and the Daniel Overton land; on the South by the lands of J. R. Godwin; on the West by the lands of Preston Arline and others, containing 62 acres more or less, and known as the S. R. Doughty "home place."

Second tract: Bounded on the North by B. Tree Branch; on the East by the Willoughby land; on the West by the lands of Dr. J. E. Mitchell and others; on the South by the County Road leading from Ahoskie to Cofield, containing 135 acres, more or less, and known as the S. R. Doughty "Holloman Place."

That the said purchaser will be given two years in which to pay for said land, by paying one-third in cash and the balance in one and two years, evidenced by two notes of equal payment for the balance together with a deed of trust on the property securing same.

The above land is sold for division among the heirs.

Place of sale—In front of the post office building in the Town of Ahoskie, N. C.

Time of sale—November the 26th, 1923, between the hours of 10 and 2:00 o'clock, p. m.

Terms of sale—1-3 cash, balance one and two years as above stated.

This October 24, 1923.

J. A. DOUGHTY, Commissioner.

W. W. ROGERS, Attorney. 10-26-4t

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

Sold by druggists for over 40 years F. I. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

NOTICE OF SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST

By virtue of the power and authority given by a certain deed of trust, executed by J. C. Pruden and wife, Minnie Pruden to Jno. E. Vann, trustee which is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Hertford, in a lot in the Town of Winton, N. C., beginning on Murfree Street at Moulkie and Lizzie Askew's line; thence an easterly course along said Askew line 50 yards to W. P. Taylor's heirs line; thence a southerly course along said Taylor line 22 yards; thence a westerly course still along said Taylor line 50 yards to said Murfree street; thence along said street a northerly course 22 yards to first station.

Place of sale: Court House door. Time of sale—November 12, 1923. Terms of sale—Cash. This October 9, 1923. 10-12-4t JNO. E. VANN, Trustee.

NOTICE

This is to notify J. W. Moore, Irene Moore and Phillip Moore and A. C. Moore, that the undersigned did on the 2nd day of October, 1922, at the Court House door, purchase for taxes due for the year 1921 and paid to S. E. Vaughan, Tax Collector of Ahoskie Township, the sum of $221.87 and received a certificate from said Vaughan for said land as provided by Section 2899, Revised 1908, the following lands in the County of Hertford, Ahoskie Township, North Carolina, known as the J. W. Moore land, adjoining the lands of D. V. Sessoms, C. C. Sessoms, Moore and Bacon and others, listed in the name of J. W. Moore heirs for the year 1921, but after diligent inquiry the owners of said lands cannot be found in Hertford County and this notice is given in pursuance of Section 2903; that the time of redemption as provided by law will expire on the 2nd day of October, 1923, and unless the owners of said land and those under whose names it was purchased, or those holding liens shall redeem the same on or before the 2nd day of October, 1923, the undersigned will apply to S. E. Vaughan, Tax Collector of Ahoskie Township, state and county aforesaid, on the 21st day of December, 1923 for a deed for said premises, the same being three months after the first publication of this notice.

All parties, whether owners, lienholders or others interested, will hereby take notice and act accordingly.

This 13th day of September, 1923. J. R. MOORE.

By E. C. BRIDGER, Attorney.

Mr. Otwell: "Craig, tell us about the Mongolian race." Craig: "I wasn't there, sir; I went to the basketball game."

I have just added to my stock a nice line of WINTER UNDERWEAR For Men, Women, and Children in All Sizes. Prices are right, and you'll be surprised at the values. Come and Try Them. Also nice line of Hosiery for Every Member of the Family. See me for your Groceries. W. H. NEWSOME Newsome's Block AHOSKIE, N. C.

Night coughing— exhausts you so that you are more tired in the morning than when you went to bed. Dr. King's New Discovery stops coughing by gently stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off clogging secretions. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

Money for the things you want

You or your wife have in mind things that you need and want. If you could make the farm bring in just a little more money, you would be able to get them.

Come in and let us show you how Swift's Red Steer Fertilizers can help you make that extra money.

AUTHORIZED SWIFT AGENT

S. E. VAUGHN
AHOSKIE, N. C.

Farm For Sale

We, the Administrators of B. F. Beverly's Estate, will sell at Public Auction for the Highest Bid on Monday, November 5, at 11 O'clock a certain Farm, known as the B. F. BEVERLY HOME PLACE, located two miles from Union, containing 150 acres, more or less. 55 Acres in Cultivation, One Good Dwelling and outbuildings. One tenant house.

Farming Land in high state of cultivation, well adapted to cotton, Tobacco, Peanuts, etc.

PLACE OF SALE—On The Premises.

TERMS OF SALE—To Be Arranged At the Time of Sale.

A. A. BEVERLY,
G. A. BEVERLY
Administrators B. F. Beverly Estate.

FARM FOR SALE

On November 3rd, 1923
11:30 A. M.

I will offer for sale at Auction; my farm known as the Jno. D. Gatling home place, adjoining the Jno. D. Bridger farm.

This farm contains about 260 acres; six horse crop in high state of cultivation; two good dwelling houses and good out buildings. Good growth of timber. Land adapted to cotton, tobacco, peanuts, corn, potatoes and truck.

Terms to be announced at sale.

Place of sale on the premises.

J. C. BRETT
AHOSKIE, N. C.