

The Courier.

We will thank our friends to send us postal cards informing us of any event happenings in their locality.

Local News.

The snow, the beautiful snow! Winter is here in full regalia. Commissioners meeting next Monday.

Note the change in ad. of W. F. Moragne. Mr. D. Petty's residence on Salisbury street is nearing completion. The Asheboro Roller Mills will begin grinding wheat this week.

The annual conference of the M. P. Church is in session at Randleman, N. C.

Consult our advertising columns when you go to buy Christmas goods.

Mrs. J. J. Freeman is suffering a relapse from which it is feared she will not recover.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Daniel Coltrane, of New Market, is very sick.

Three or four inches of snow fell here Sunday morning, very much to the surprise of every one.

Thos. A. Finch, of Trinity township, one of the largest and most progressive young farmers of the county, was in town Saturday.

Messrs. Ross & Rush have a fine lot of Kansas horses, which they are offering for sale at their stables near the Burn's shops.

Subscribe for THE COURIER and get a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary at once. The price is only $2.25, and we have but a few left.

The farmers in Brower, Pleasant Grove and other townships in the eastern section of the county, have put in a larger crop of wheat than usual.

The merchants of Ramseur have agreed to sell no cigarettes to any one. A good resolution. It is to be hoped that more of our merchants will follow the excellent example instituted by Mr. Ghisholm.

Services were not held in the Methodist church here Sunday owing to the inclemency of the weather. The pastor, Rev. Parker Holmes, will preach here his first time next Sunday at 11 o'clock, and at Central Falls at 7 o'clock.

Tell your neighbor about THE COURIER's dictionary offer. It is the best offer ever made by a newspaper. Two of our oldest and most esteemed citizens of the Waddell Ferry section, Messrs. Jesse H. Moffitt and John C. Owen have made a reputation as fishermen recently. Mr. Moffitt is more than 86 years old.

THE COURIER announces with regret that its old friend and townsman, L. Woolen Esq., has moved to Carhage, N. C., where he will make his home in the future. He will take a position, we understand with the Tyson & Jones Buggy Company. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Woolen regret very much to see them leave Asheboro, and their best wishes accompany them to their new home. THE COURIER congratulates its sister town upon the acquisition of these good citizens to their midst, and gladly assures her citizens of their universally good qualities.

Rev. M. Bradshaw, better known here in his own county as "Mike," where as editor and lawyer he has given the best evidence of his fine attainments, dropped in on Asheboro a few hours this week on his way from the N. C. Conference which he has joined and which has assigned him to Lillington Circuit for the coming year. THE COURIER can assure in advance the good people to whom he is sent that they will find him one of the most brilliant and eloquent men of his years in the State and a man every inch as true as steel. He carries with him into his new field, the love, the confidence, and the good wishes of every citizen of his old county. THE COURIER predicts for him a career that will do honor to the body whose credentials he bears.

Rev. Parker Holmes, the new pastor of Asheboro and Central Falls, arrived last Friday, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw.

Two of Randolph's best farmers, Messrs. W. D. Moffitt and W. D. Brower, of Brower township, called to see us Saturday and gave us words of encouragement and financial aid.

The annual exhibits of expenditures of the various townships for Stock Law purposes will appear by townships from week to week during the month of December. The county exhibit will appear in supplement form some time during the month. We will print a supplement in order not to infringe upon the news space of our columns.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

WHAT RANDOLPHONIANS ARE DOING AND SAYING.

LIBERTY.

A number of fruit tree men have returned.

Houses, houses! Liberty needs more dwelling houses. Who will build them.

The beautiful snow has come, and several fat hogs are going the way of all porkers.

Mr. Brower, Sec. & Treas. of the Broom works, will spend a part of this week in Wilmington.

Mr. Eddie Oliver, who came home from Biltmore about two weeks ago sick, is very low.

A few of the Knights from Liberty went to Asheboro last Tuesday to assist in instituting a Lodge. They report lots of fun.

We are sorry that Miss Lura Bulla, the efficient and justly popular instructress in music in Liberty Academy, was called home to the bedside of a sick mother.

Thanks-giving was not observed much here. Prof. Amick gave an address at the Academy, but no business houses were closed. Speaking of Thanks-giving, one of the students remarked that he thought we ought to have Thanks-giving at Liberty, this year, as they had it at Wilmington last year.

RAMSEUR.

D. M. Weatherly has a full school.

Dr. Jesse Edwards was in town to-day.

Dr. F. E. Asbury, and son, of Asbury, N. C., are here to-day.

Prof. Weatherly will have one or two more boys from Charlotte after Christmas.

Miss E. ta Watkins of Greensboro Female College is at home spending Thanks-giving day.

T. W. Parks is opening up a stock of goods in the house recently occupied by W. F. Coward.

Mr. Ed Grady, of Charlotte, N. C. has taken quarters in our town and is using the painters brush effectively at Alberta. He will enter school here the first of January.

Misses Corvers and Miss Hockey, of Rockey Mount, N. C. are visiting the family of Mr. W. H. Watkins. It is thought that some of our young men will soon purchase railroad tickets to that section.

BROWER'S MILLS.

As nothing has been written lately from Brower township, I will write a few lines to say that the people down here are against Stock Law, and if Randolph goes for it, Brower wants to be left out.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Maggie Richardson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Boyette.

Mr. Jno. T. Moffitt has returned from a visit to Elon College.

Miss Mamie Sherwood, a teacher in the Greensboro graded schools, died recently. Miss Sherwood has a number of relatives in this county.

Mrs. Allie Worth, of Greensboro after spending several days with the family of Col. McAlister, returned to Greensboro on Saturday morning's train.

Miss Lura Bulla, of Liberty High School, and Mr. L. D. Bulla, of Candor, came home last week in answer to telegrams announcing the extreme illness of their mother, who is now much improved.

Mr. Wiley Rush is in Danville on business.

R. R. Ross, W. R. Lowdermilk and others, went up to Randleman yesterday to attend the annual Conference of the M. P. Church.

Mr. C. C. McAlister went to High Point yesterday in the interest of lumber mills in the Southern part of the county, the management of which he has recently assumed.

John G. Surratt, Esq., ex-member of the General Assembly from Davidson called to see us yesterday on his way to Randleman to attend the annual Conference of the M. P. Church.

Rev. R. S. Abernathy, pastor in charge of the Uwharrie circuit, who is one of the best men in the state and a good preacher, arrived with his family at the parsonage near Oak Grove church last week, and was given an elegant reception by the members of his charge, so we learn.

DIED.

At the residence of his Son in Brower township, on the 22nd Nov. Brantly Scott, in his 86th year.

At his residence in New Market township, on last Friday, Mr. Branson Coltrane, son of Lemuel Coltrane, and brother of Thos. W. Coltrane, whose death was reported in THE COURIER a few issues back. Mr. Coltrane leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death.

MARRIED.

PLUMMER--WELBORN--On the 22nd day of Nov. Mr. R. F. Plummer of Asheboro and Miss Minnie Welborn, of Hoover Hill.
