

Local and Personal.

Miss Blanche Wood went to Greensboro Monday. Mr S S Cox, of Grant township, was in town Saturday. Mc C E Stewart, of Why Not, was in town Saturday. Mr Benj Moffitt spent a part of last week at Franklinville. Mrs Jean Ruth and children returned home from Troy Saturday. Mrs G W Lemons is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs J G Miller.

Pay Your Taxes.

The sheriff has made his second round. All who have not paid their taxes are currently requested by him to do so without delay as he is compelled to settle with the State in full in a few days and money is needed to pay of the school taxes. It is not possible to indulge you longer.

Burned to Death.

Miss Julia Hamlet, daughter of the late Jack Hamlet, fell into the fire Sunday afternoon and was burned so badly that she died Monday morning. She was of a demented mind and it was while in a fit of insanity the deplorable accident happened. The funeral was conducted from the Hamlet home Tuesday by Rev W L Sherrill. She leaves a mother and one brother and one sister.

Cake Walk at Fairview.

On Tuesday night of last week the annual cake walk at the palatial country home of W Gould Brooks in Trinity township, was pulled off complimentary to Mr Brooks' guests. Jesse W Edmondson, a High Point barber, had the matter in hand. Music was furnished by a select colored orchestra. The event was a great success. Elaborate cards were printed.

County Finance Committee.

For years Randolph had a finance committee. Under republican rule the county commissioners in their discretion abolished the office and it has not been re-established. The county needs a finance committee and needs it now and if the commissioners do not re-establish it the legislature which is now in session should create the office. There is an absolute necessity for this. It should be established without further delay.

Married.

At Troy Dec 9th Mr Ary Loftin and Miss Martha Ledbetter. Near Jackson Hill recently Mr Ward Stewart and Miss Cora Davis. Miss Josephine and Miss Cora Davis. Miss Josephine and Miss Cora Davis.

At Residence of C L Robbins.

At the residence of C L Robbins near Caryway Jan 5th, Mr F H Hoover and Miss Flora Miller, of Caryway. Also at same time and place Mr R R Hoover and Miss Cora Bunting, both of Asheboro, C L Robbins, J P, officiating.

At his home in Trinity township.

At his home in Trinity township on Jan 3rd, Mr D M Payne, an aged well known citizen. The funeral was at Hopewell on Jan 5th.

At the residence of Mr J A Spencer.

At the residence of Mr J A Spencer, died of agrippa on Jan 7th, 1905, aged 67 years. He was a Confederate soldier and was a prominent citizen. His wife, a daughter of the late Henry Animan, survives him. There are also three children living: Mrs S N Allen, of Montgomery county; Mrs J S Lewis, of Alabama; and Mrs D J Johnson, of Randolph county.

Randolph Members in the Legislature.

Senator Watkins is Chairman of the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds and is a member of the following committees: Claims, Internal Improvements, Banks and Currency, Finance, Pensions and Soldiers Home, Counties, Cities and Towns, Manufacturing, Mining, nine committees in all, and they are the most important committees.

Dr F E Asbury, of Asbury, was in town yesterday.

Dr F E Asbury, of Asbury, was in town yesterday to attend the meetings of the stockholders of the Bank of Randolph and the Asheboro Furniture Co.

James H Kivett, who has been located at Monterey, California.

James H Kivett, who has been located at Monterey, California, with Co. K, 15th United States Regiment, has returned to his former home near Liberty, his term of service in the army having expired.

The incorporators of the new knitting mill at Handeman.

The incorporators of the new knitting mill at Handeman, The Pearl Manufacturing Company, has a capital paid up stock of $7,400. The incorporators are W F Tally, Dr W I Sumner and Dr W K Hartell.

Randolph members of the General Assembly get good committee assignments.

Randolph members of the General Assembly get good committee assignments. Senator Watkins is chairman of the committee on public buildings and grounds; Col Wood is also on the following committees: Claims, Pensions, Internal Improvements, Banks and Currency, Finance, Pensions and Soldiers Home, Counties, Cities and Towns, Manufacturing, Mining, nine committees in all, and they are the most important committees.

The Greatest Offer of the Year—Three Papers for Price of One.

We have arranged to send the Southern Agriculturist, published at Nashville, Tenn., one of the best agricultural papers published in America, to every one who pays us a dollar on either old or new subscription. The number of subscriptions is limited and all will be taken up soon, but until the dollar gives out every one paying a dollar will get the Southern Agriculturist free for one year. In addition to the above we have arranged to make the greatest offer we have ever made. For every new subscriber who pays $1.00 for the Courier in advance and for every old subscriber who pays up and also pays one year in advance we will not only send the Southern Agriculturist one year free but will also send free for one year the great newspaper magazine, Farm and Fireside, published at Springfield, Ohio. This last offer holds good only until Jan 15th, 1905. If you want to take advantage of this offer please send in your money on or before January 15th. Address: The Courier, Lock Box 144 Asheboro, N. C.

Teachers' Meeting.

Program of Meeting of the Teachers' Association January 21st, 1905. 10:30 A. M.—Opening exercises. 10:45 A. M.—The benefit that may be derived from the teachers' reading course. Discussion led by Prof N W Walker, T C Amick and G F Garner, 10 minutes each. Any vital points that may confront the public school teachers of the county. General discussion led by Prof J M Weatherly, Messrs F M Wright and J F Routh, 10 minutes each. Speakers are expected to confine themselves to the time allotted them. Miss ANNIE TOMLINSON, Secretary.

530,000 Fire at Greensboro.

Greensboro, January 9.—The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company's plant, engaged in the manufacture of builders' material, was completely destroyed by fire to-night. Loss $300,000, insurance $6,000. The fire was discovered over the boiler at 11 o'clock and the building, which was a frame structure, was entirely destroyed in an hour. J Frank Hodgins, of Roanoke, Va., is president of the company and J A Hodgins, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer.

Small Fire.

Monday night of this week while the colored Odd Fellows of Asheboro were holding a session in their hall north of the court house the roof of the building ignited from a spark from the terrace to the roof which was only a few feet and not even the interior of the house, and before the flames were arrested a place near the front square on the roof was burned off.

Central Falls Items.

John, Brown, and family moved for several days to a new home on temporary quarters at the go in our vicinity here.

Color Falls Items.

January 9.—Mr John Hill and brother, Harris, of Rameur, were in this place Sunday. Miss Carrie Freeman and Esther Jordan, of Franklinville, visited Miss Della Brady Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs John Luther went to Asheboro Saturday and spent the night with their daughter, Mrs Flora Ponder, returning Sunday afternoon.

Michfield Items.

Mr J. M. Wray, of Winston, arrived Saturday night for a short stay with Mrs Emily Hillman.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Teachers' Meeting.

Program of Meeting of the Teachers' Association January 21st, 1905. 10:30 A. M.—Opening exercises. 10:45 A. M.—The benefit that may be derived from the teachers' reading course. Discussion led by Prof N W Walker, T C Amick and G F Garner, 10 minutes each. Any vital points that may confront the public school teachers of the county. General discussion led by Prof J M Weatherly, Messrs F M Wright and J F Routh, 10 minutes each. Speakers are expected to confine themselves to the time allotted them. Miss ANNIE TOMLINSON, Secretary.

530,000 Fire at Greensboro.

Greensboro, January 9.—The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company's plant, engaged in the manufacture of builders' material, was completely destroyed by fire to-night. Loss $300,000, insurance $6,000. The fire was discovered over the boiler at 11 o'clock and the building, which was a frame structure, was entirely destroyed in an hour. J Frank Hodgins, of Roanoke, Va., is president of the company and J A Hodgins, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer.

Small Fire.

Monday night of this week while the colored Odd Fellows of Asheboro were holding a session in their hall north of the court house the roof of the building ignited from a spark from the terrace to the roof which was only a few feet and not even the interior of the house, and before the flames were arrested a place near the front square on the roof was burned off.

Central Falls Items.

John, Brown, and family moved for several days to a new home on temporary quarters at the go in our vicinity here.

Color Falls Items.

January 9.—Mr John Hill and brother, Harris, of Rameur, were in this place Sunday. Miss Carrie Freeman and Esther Jordan, of Franklinville, visited Miss Della Brady Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs John Luther went to Asheboro Saturday and spent the night with their daughter, Mrs Flora Ponder, returning Sunday afternoon.

Michfield Items.

Mr J. M. Wray, of Winston, arrived Saturday night for a short stay with Mrs Emily Hillman.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Teachers' Meeting.

Program of Meeting of the Teachers' Association January 21st, 1905. 10:30 A. M.—Opening exercises. 10:45 A. M.—The benefit that may be derived from the teachers' reading course. Discussion led by Prof N W Walker, T C Amick and G F Garner, 10 minutes each. Any vital points that may confront the public school teachers of the county. General discussion led by Prof J M Weatherly, Messrs F M Wright and J F Routh, 10 minutes each. Speakers are expected to confine themselves to the time allotted them. Miss ANNIE TOMLINSON, Secretary.

530,000 Fire at Greensboro.

Greensboro, January 9.—The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company's plant, engaged in the manufacture of builders' material, was completely destroyed by fire to-night. Loss $300,000, insurance $6,000. The fire was discovered over the boiler at 11 o'clock and the building, which was a frame structure, was entirely destroyed in an hour. J Frank Hodgins, of Roanoke, Va., is president of the company and J A Hodgins, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer.

Small Fire.

Monday night of this week while the colored Odd Fellows of Asheboro were holding a session in their hall north of the court house the roof of the building ignited from a spark from the terrace to the roof which was only a few feet and not even the interior of the house, and before the flames were arrested a place near the front square on the roof was burned off.

Central Falls Items.

John, Brown, and family moved for several days to a new home on temporary quarters at the go in our vicinity here.

Color Falls Items.

January 9.—Mr John Hill and brother, Harris, of Rameur, were in this place Sunday. Miss Carrie Freeman and Esther Jordan, of Franklinville, visited Miss Della Brady Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs John Luther went to Asheboro Saturday and spent the night with their daughter, Mrs Flora Ponder, returning Sunday afternoon.

Michfield Items.

Mr J. M. Wray, of Winston, arrived Saturday night for a short stay with Mrs Emily Hillman.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Teachers' Meeting.

Program of Meeting of the Teachers' Association January 21st, 1905. 10:30 A. M.—Opening exercises. 10:45 A. M.—The benefit that may be derived from the teachers' reading course. Discussion led by Prof N W Walker, T C Amick and G F Garner, 10 minutes each. Any vital points that may confront the public school teachers of the county. General discussion led by Prof J M Weatherly, Messrs F M Wright and J F Routh, 10 minutes each. Speakers are expected to confine themselves to the time allotted them. Miss ANNIE TOMLINSON, Secretary.

530,000 Fire at Greensboro.

Greensboro, January 9.—The Cape Fear Manufacturing Company's plant, engaged in the manufacture of builders' material, was completely destroyed by fire to-night. Loss $300,000, insurance $6,000. The fire was discovered over the boiler at 11 o'clock and the building, which was a frame structure, was entirely destroyed in an hour. J Frank Hodgins, of Roanoke, Va., is president of the company and J A Hodgins, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer.

Small Fire.

Monday night of this week while the colored Odd Fellows of Asheboro were holding a session in their hall north of the court house the roof of the building ignited from a spark from the terrace to the roof which was only a few feet and not even the interior of the house, and before the flames were arrested a place near the front square on the roof was burned off.

Central Falls Items.

John, Brown, and family moved for several days to a new home on temporary quarters at the go in our vicinity here.

Color Falls Items.

January 9.—Mr John Hill and brother, Harris, of Rameur, were in this place Sunday. Miss Carrie Freeman and Esther Jordan, of Franklinville, visited Miss Della Brady Sunday evening. Mr and Mrs John Luther went to Asheboro Saturday and spent the night with their daughter, Mrs Flora Ponder, returning Sunday afternoon.

Michfield Items.

Mr J. M. Wray, of Winston, arrived Saturday night for a short stay with Mrs Emily Hillman.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.

January 9.—"Topsy Turvy" or "The Day After Tomorrow" will be exhibited again at the Grand Opera House, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The regular play is given on Wednesdays and on such nights as the Grand Opera House is closed.

Franklinville Items.