

Local and Personal.

Miss Laura Stinson spent Saturday and Sunday in Randolph.

In Montgomery county, Miss Agnes Bourgois to Mr. Frank Rich.

Miss May McAllister went to Greensboro last Friday and returned Monday.

Miss Belle Stafford, of Burlington, is here with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Bunch.

The Examiner says a severe hail storm passed over the upper part of Montgomery recently.

Mrs. H. C. Ingram, of Star, has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Fields, in Atlanta.

Louise, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stead, of Steeds, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. J. W. Stead, of Steeds, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is now in a greatly improved condition.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rankin and children, of High Point, spent several days last week with Mrs. Martha Blair.

Mr. S. Bryant, of Randolph, represented Randolph at the Winston-Salem meeting of South Bound Railroad last week.

Mr. J. M. Millikan has bought the C. B. Freeburg place near Guilford station. He will lease it for the present.—Greensboro Patriot.

Mr. D. G. McMaisters has purchased Mr. E. C. Lassiter his Cross roads farm on the road between Farmer and New Hope Academy.

Mr. Doughty, the daughter of Mr. E. B. Kearns spent a few days here visiting her father who is quite sick. Mr. Numa Kearns of Durham, has also been here.

Mrs. Dr. Ashbury, of Ashbury, Montgomery county, who has been in poor health for the last few years has grown much worse during the last few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Stead, of Steeds, N. C., will have a number of fine vacation themes, of the leading varieties, for sale later and will publish list of the ones she has.

There is in Asheboro a great demand for residence property. Not enough homes it seems can be erected to go round. This is due to the excellent school and to the factories.

Sydney Underwood, an aged and respected citizen of the Eden section suffered a stroke of paralysis last week. We have not heard his condition this week.—Thomasville Times.

A most delightful revival was given at Eden High School on last Friday evening. After the revival, a play entitled "A Meeting of the Secret Order of the Golden Tones" was given by the pupils.

The statement published in the various newspapers that there could be hunting nowhere in the state for more than 50 days in each year, is a mistake. The law has been changed except in certain localities.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rodriguez, of West Asheboro, desire to return their heartfelt thanks, through the Courier, to the good people of Asheboro for their kindness and aid during the recent sickness and subsequent death of their family.

Our advertisers are very kindly helping us to edit The Courier more than ever recently. Our readers would do well to consult the advertising columns and read with care what our advertising patrons has to say to the public.

Mr. T. A. Craven, who lives near Empire in this county, informs us that a few days ago there came to his place a lamb with two well developed sets of ears. The lamb had no other unusual marks and was of the ordinary breed common to that section of the county.

Conductor Lacy Daunt, who had an arm taken off on account of injuries received from falling under a car a few days ago, returned to his home at Biscoe Saturday. We are glad to state that he has improved rapidly, and is able to be out again.—Examiner.

The late W. P. Rodwine had been postmaster at Healing Springs for 10 years. By a singular coincidence, the post office at Healing Springs was discontinued on the day of his death, by reason of a rural route having recently been established through the community.—Davidson Dispatch.

The Pilecan, a monthly Insurance Journal published by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., of Newark, N. J. in their last issue in speaking of amount of business written during the month of Feb ranks Jim M. Hammer and E. A. Wiles, of Greensboro first in their agency force they having written more insurance than any other agents of the Company.

The Courier hopes to make a paper that contains the local news at least, and a newspaper of the county and this section of the State will be proud. We strive at all times to get the local news of importance, and all of it when it occurs. To do this we must depend upon our friends who are ever kind to us and much credit is due their assistance for the success achieved. Without their help it would be impossible to get many items of news. All will do us a great favor by sending happenings of real news in their community. Where the mail will not reach us in time use the telephone at our expense. We want all the news and want it while it is fresh.

Advertisement for 'Pills' with text: 'The natural remedy for indigestion, biliousness, and all ailments arising from a disordered stomach.' Includes a small illustration of a person.

Carriage has a magistrate with a record that can't be beat. The carriage has a record that can't be beat. It has been in the business for over 20 years and has a reputation for reliability.

Mr. M. K. Gray, who has been a citizen of Lexington for many years, has decided to move to Greensboro, where he has an extensive real estate property in the county.

The twenty-second annual session of the North Carolina Sunday School Association will be held in Raleigh on the 14th, 15th and 16th of April.

Mr. J. A. Martin, of Greenville, S. C., is the new superintendent of the Asheboro Bobbin Co. The former superintendent will travel and sell factory supplies.

The Holyday-Island Hand-eye Company went into the hands of C. J. Cox, receiver this week. The receivership was granted on petition of some of the creditors.

A special to the News & Observer says that the residence of Dr. J. W. Page, of Burlington, was burned Tuesday afternoon of the week with a furniture. It was the handsome home of the city and the loss will reach ten thousand dollars.

We do not believe the cutting of stock in the Wake Water Company would disqualify a man like Herbert W. Jackson from holding the position of city auditor.

Mr. J. A. Craven, who lives near Empire in this county, informs us that a few days ago there came to his place a lamb with two well developed sets of ears.

WESTERN STATES - 1 cent for a limited time. 1-14 inch paper per 100 50.00 1-14 inch paper per 50 25.00 1-14 inch paper per 25 12.50 1-14 inch paper per 10 5.00 1-14 inch paper per 5 2.50 1-14 inch paper per 1 0.50

Rev. C. A. Wood filled his pulpit at the M. E. church Sunday and preached two excellent sermons. Mr. J. C. Mauer has purchased a fine horse and his son Dick who has been with the Snow Lumber Co. at High Point for some time.

There has been a few cases of small-pox in our city for the last few weeks of a very light form, but they are all about well and every thing is moving along as usual and no new cases are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welch visited their parents at Randolph Saturday and Sunday. Mr. E. E. Stuart says he feels surprised to jump a ten cent fence at a single bound.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

On last Saturday a large number of young folks of the neighborhood met at the home of Mrs. T. F. Robbins, for the purpose of making 'her quilt, the name of which was 'The Old Maid's Quilt'.

Several of our young people attended the closing exercises of the public school at Patterson school house Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Welch visited their parents at Randolph Saturday and Sunday. Mr. E. E. Stuart says he feels surprised to jump a ten cent fence at a single bound.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Mr. J. W. Parkes is on the sick list. Prof. J. W. Parkes, a well known and successful school at this school, John is the instructor.

Attention, Please. We wish to call your attention to our stock of Hardware and Farming Implements. Enger and Fisher Buggies, Surries, &c. The Watkins-Leonard Company, Ramser, N. C.

Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co. Wholesale and Retail. New Goods! New Dress Goods, New Clothing, Etc. Our new spring and summer goods are being received daily and ready for your inspection.

New Meat Market and Produce Store! Next door to my old stand on Depot street I have opened a new business in a new store. I will keep constantly on hand fresh meats of all kinds.

MILLINERY! My new stock spring millinery has been received and is now ready for your inspection. The Latest Styles! will be found here at the most reasonable prices.

Special Sale of Men's and Boys' Pants! For the next 30 days I will dispose of a Greatly Reduced Price a large lot of men's and boys' pants. Come and let us show you these bargains.

Wood & Moring, Leading Merchants. Early Spring Opening! We have now a beautiful line of early spring goods to have you, consisting of woolen goods, silks and many other things which to behold will be admired.

Printing. WORK GUARANTEED PRICES SATISFACTORY. Mrs. F. T. Blair.