

The Asheboro Courier.

Vol. XXX.

ASHEBORO, N. C., APRIL 20, 1905.

No. 16.

County Correspondence.

Franklinville Items.

The Southern R. C. Co. has been improving the depot here by putting on a metal roof.

Mrs. Albert Dypert, who spent a few days last week at Randleman with her father, returned home Sunday.

Miss Callie Wright who has been with her father for sometime, who is quite ill at Liberty, returned to the city one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wright visited friends at Colter Falls Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Dugh, a prominent farmer, who lives near here, has just completed one of the largest and most convenient barns in the community.

Honors J. A. McKinnon and J. C. Krent visited relatives and friends near White's Chapel Sunday.

Misses Fred Jordan and Daisy Hayes went on a shopping expedition to Hanesport Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Russell returned from a visit to Gold Saturday.

Willie Hackney, son of Rev. J. D. Hackney, was taken to a hospital in Charlotte one day last week to be treated for appendicitis. An operation has been performed and it is reported that he is in a right kind of condition.

Mr. Charles Parsons, who has accepted the wadsworth position for the Franklinville Mfg. Co., has sold his young male and would like to purchase an older one that is gentle and well broke as he has but little time to manage it now.

Mr. C. H. Welch, of Randleman, was in town Sunday shaking hands with his old acquaintances. We are always glad to have Mr. Welch visit our city.

Mr. John Parsons, one of James Dine's assistants in the card room of the Franklinville Mfg. Co. resigned his position one day last week and took the south bound train for Durham county where he will engage in farming with his grandfather Mr. Phillips.

Any one having old dogs and would like to exchange them for young full blooded dogs could do so well to see Mr. Rossie Triplett, our close dog dealer, who will treat you right.

Mr. John Price has purchased the old public school building near the M. E. church and will soon to it his property on Pine Ridge so sure it will be utilized in making considerable improvements on his property.

The second quarterly conference of the M. E. church of Hanesport and Franklinville church was held at Franklinville last Thursday. The following delegates from this place, were elected to attend the District conference to be held at Hanesport July 20th in 23rd, J. M. Triplett and L. F. Fetters, afterwards W. D. Money and C. Jones. Mrs. W. C. Russell was elected delegate to attend the South Atlantic Mission conference to be held at Atlantic City May 17th to 21st. Rev. H. B. Termination, P. E. of Greensboro district presided at the conference and remained with us a few days and held services in the M. E. church Thursday, Friday and Sunday nights and preached three of the ablest sermons ever heard. Mr. Termination is one of the finest preachers we ever had and all our people are deeply pleased with him and will give him a hearty welcome any time he can stop with us.

Worthville Items.

Worthville has had two weddings recently. Mr. Madril Ferguson and Miss Nora Brewer were married on the 9th, and Mr. Charles Williamson and Miss Nittie Grace on the 13th. J. L. Wrenn, J. F. officiating in both instances.

Prof. Way of Asheboro, and Miss Hara Bedding, of Hope, spent Sunday in town, and attended the Sunday School. Mass. Meeting at hall past two. This meeting was well attended. The first thing on the program was reports from the delegates to State convention, this was followed by a talk by Rev. O. W. Robinson on the importance of early conversion. Prof. Way then spoke on the importance of using better methods in the Sunday Schools of the county.

Miss Pearl Leonard is touching a subscription here, with about twenty-five pupils.

Cool Spring Items.

April 27.—Rev. R. O. Trogan, of Greensboro, a Holiness preacher called the appointments of our pastor here last Monday and preached two excellent sermons.

Mr. Alvis Underwood, of Mt. Gilboa, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this community returned to her home last Saturday accompanied by her father Mr. W. M. Routh.

Mr. A. M. Smith who has been seriously ill is improving slowly. There was a little snow fall in this section last Sunday.

Revs. James Webster and James England will preach here first Sunday in May at 11 o'clock a. m. and 2:30 o'clock p. m. Mr. J. T. Hayes, of Bee Creek, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this community returned home last Monday.

Morris Items.

April 17.—We are having a good Sunday school at Antioch.

What crops are looking fine in this vicinity. What is the outlook for Lewisville, did you have quit crossing briny deep, so often.

J. S. Stanton has planted about eight acres of corn this week.

There will be preaching at Antioch next Sunday.

Miss Evelyn admit attended services at Antioch last Sunday.

Salem Church Items.

The Sunday school at Salem is progressing nicely, with Mr. Carl Nance as Supt. Mr. W. W. Arnold who has been confined in his room for a few days, is improving.

Mr. Minnie Lassiter is having a handsome tree setting here. They have saved at the rate of two hundred per day.

We noticed in last week's Courier where D. G. McMaster has moved out from the back woods. I am sorry to say it is not so much in the back woods in fruit time, for he had the best orchard in this township.

Our merchant Mr. R. C. Johnson says he has the best trade he has ever had. He has a nice lot of hats.

Mr. Ellis Sexton has the finest prospect for wheat that has ever been on the Scarce farm. We noticed in the Moore Co. issue where some of our Handsome boys seem to be taking the day with the young ladies near Haw Branch. We wish their good luck.

West Hanesport Doings.

April 17.—The cold war, snow and frost Sunday and at night were quite unrelenting visitors to early vegetables, fruit and early wheat.

Miss Pearl Phillips is in Durham visiting her sick sister, Mrs. Corn Smith. Mr. Ed S. Phillips stopped over with his parents at this place Saturday night on his return from Durham, leaving Sunday morning for his home at Halltown.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manno and little son are visiting at Greensboro.

Large and attentive congregations are attending Stravaganza here Little at the Baptist church this week.

Revs. Geo. Harman, of Sanford, and M. E. Hanesport, of Glendon, attended the protracted meeting at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday nights.

Long Shanks made a mistake last week. First he liked to have been the cause of a suicide with his fine pig by giving it a bucketful of strong lye and soap grease, which his wife had outside to make soap. On Sunday after returning home from preaching he helped over to a door neighbor's and entered the sitting room found no one present.

Believing the family to be in the dining-room he took a seat and began reading from a Bible in await their coming. After reading a couple of chapters and hearing no one he opened the dining-room door and to his great surprise found that he occupied the house alone; so he just felt so queer that he poked off home.

The "Smart Aleck's" who deface and tear down advertisements should go slow. The law has an eye on the miscreants.

Much honor to our own town commissioners who at their last monthly meeting passed an ordinance levying a special tax of ten cents for sanitary purposes.

WORLD'S BEST.—A young baseball enthusiast purchased at the hardware store a few days ago for a catcher's mask a calf's snout. It was amusing to see a boy playing ball with his head stuck in a calf's snout.

Mr. E. C. Brewer, of Fall Creek, Chatham county, arrived in town today with a two horse load of home made sorghum and vinegar.

Pleasant Ridge Items.

April 17.—We had a nice snow shower Sunday afternoon.

Mr. M. T. Allen is very sick.

Miss N. J. Cox visited Mr. Roth's family Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Scott and wife visited at Mr. Richard Cox's Sunday night.

Everett Cox went to Hanesport on business Saturday.

Miss Ruth visited M. J. Allen's Sunday evening.

Mr. Jeremiah Allen was a welcome guest at Mr. Clark Cox's Sunday night.

Mr. Hugh Coward and wife visited at Mr. Clark Cox's Sunday.

Prayer meeting was at Mr. Madison Henson's Sunday.

Joseph Norman's lot with four room dwelling, good well, young orchard, east side of Cox St in South Asheboro for sale, $400.00, good bargain. Apply to A. C. McAlister, Agent.