

Cedar Falls News.

Chas Bain has resigned his position as a bookkeeper for A F Cox. Miss Jennings has been very ill but we are glad to say that she is improving very fast now.

Mr J J Glass' second lot of hats will be in this week. Call and see what she has. There will be an Easter entertainment Sunday night and they expect to have a nice time.

Mr Dorsett lost his pig last week and had quite a time finding, but she has built a fifteen rail fence high.

Mr Will Coward, of Marlboro, Va, has been a visitor in our town for the past week.

Our old town will have more music in a few days. There are three organs on the way.

We are glad to state that Miss Nellie Poe is in our streets once more.

Mr Grover Bain spent the day with his sister in Central Falls, N C Sunday.

A F Cox had the misfortune of losing his fish net last week. Fletcher thinks the fish swallowed it, but very likely the net took in the fish for there has never been any discovery of it yet.

This cold snap has detained fishing for a while.

Trinity News.

April 18.—Mrs R M Whitehead, of Yazoo City, Miss, is visiting her sister Mrs. Housley. Mr Ford and children have returned to their home at Elm College.

Mr General Leach who visited relatives in Charlotte a few days ago, has returned to our village.

Miss Julie Young, who has been visiting friends in Randolph, since the close of the Graded School, has returned to her home.

Ernest Carr and family, who moved to High Point for the winter, have returned to Trinity. We are glad to have them with us again.

The Rev Hicks, who purchased the property of Mr. White, is moving on. He will make this his home.

Mr J J Farris, of High Point, who has been visiting her parents, returned to her home this morning.

The family of Mr. English has moved to Thomasville, and Mrs Leach has rented their home.

Randleman News.

April 17.—Mrs E H Cozeman and D H Shaw, of Greensboro, superintendents of Division Freight agent respectively of the Southern Railway Co, made a business trip to Randleman on Thursday.

Prof J W Way, of Asheboro, attended the exercises at the new schools building on Saturday.

U C Robbins who has recently located at High Point, spent a few days in town during the past week.

Miss Laura Stinson spent Saturday at home, returning to Asheboro Sunday morning, on the vestibule.

E A Wilcox, of Greensboro, was in town on Sunday.

The members of an Lebanon church are arranging appropriate exercises for Easter Sunday evening.

The election held here on the 16th decided in favor of the bond issue by a good majority. The vote was as follows: For schools 124 majority; for streets 95 majority. Those figures embrace 31 registered voters who did not vote.

INCUBATOR FOR SALE.

A first class 250 egg capacity Columbian incubator in good working order. Will hatch every fertile egg.

C H Latta,
Farmer, N C.

Ramoth News.

April 17.—Miss Annie Stett is spending some time at Harper's X Roads and Cool Springs.

Mrs Byrd Hardin, of Millboro, N C, is visiting her son, Mr J D Hardin.

Mr J O Forrester is in the market for quilts and anything of the kind, if he could have something to protect his flourishing crop of beans. He is a gardener as well as a farmer.

Mr F F Cowan, attended preaching at Beulah on last Sunday.

Miss Beulah Wittingham, the beautiful and accomplished milliner, is supplying our young ladies of the town and community with lovely spring hats.

Charles Dorsett, of Greensboro, called on some of our young ladies last week.

The Ramoth News Co is selling lots of good these days, their sales amounting to $600, one day recently.

The Columbia Mfg. Co, is giving lots of cotton these days. The gin will shut down after May 15th.

Mr W C Capel, of Troy, was in town last week.

Mr J A Marsh, of High Point, after spending some time with his parents, Mr and Mrs A B Covington, left last Saturday for Charlotte.

Mrs W H Watkins has the largest and prettiest collection of pansies we have ever seen.

The friends of Mr Willie Hackney, of Franklinville, are rejoiced to know that he is doing well after being operated on for appendicitis.

The recent cold wave has greatly injured the fruit crop in this community.

Rev J B Richardson, D D, of High Point, began a series of meetings in the Baptist church last Sunday assisted by Rev J W Little, the noted evangelist. We believe and trust that much good will result from the meeting.

Commencement at Coolmore.

We have received an invitation to the commencement exercises of Coolmore graded school, April 30th to May 2nd, 1905. The principal of the school is Prof D C Johnson, of Old Trinity, this county. Following is the programme:

April 30th, 11:00 a. m.—Sermon by Rev. G. H. Cornelson, Concord, N. C.

May 1st, 8:00 p. m.—Exercises by grades 1, 2, 3 and 4.

May 2nd, 8 p. m.—Exercises by 9th grade.

Graduating Class—Annie Gertrude (Hess), Patrice Floyd Tatum, Rosa May Tatum.

Managers—Vashti Gantt, Lena Leffer, Hattie Elliot, Pearl Lynn, Elsie Leffer, Minnie Dula, Jennie Dula child.

Marshalls—Ruthen Tatum, Wesley Wellman, Leona Sedberry, Mildred, John McClaurech, Thomas McClaurech, Adam Miller child.

NOTICE OF TOWN ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that on the first Monday in May, 1905, it being the first day of May, an election will be held for the town of Asheboro, N. C., for the purpose of electing a Mayor, Constable, Commissioners and the various town officers for the term of two years.

The registration books will be opened, and the election conducted in accordance with the rules and laws of the general election laws for the State of North Carolina.

E MOFFITT, Mayor.

This April 19th 1905.

Every housekeeper should see our new catalogue pickles vinegar pick up by J J Bains the great pickle king. It contains the natural order to vegetables pickled by it at Morris-Pearson-Solitt Co.

WANTED.—15 young men to work at the Picture business no experience or capital required, good opportunity for young men who want to make money to school themselves. You can make money enough during vacation to pay your way through the next season. No one need to apply except those of a good moral character.

Apply to N C Aarm in person. At the old Hotel, Asheboro, N. C. April 18 1905.

WHEN IN RANDLEMAN stop at Central Hotel on W F Talley, manager. Apr 5-6.

Star Bottling Works.

A choice line of carbonated drinks furnished in four or six dozen to the crate, a special rate to all points on the A. & A. Ry. For further information, write or call on J R INGRAM.

Star, N. C.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an order of re-sale granted by the Superior Court of Randolph county, North Carolina, in a special proceeding entitled E P Hayes, executor of William V VanArsdale vs Mary Ann Evans, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, on Saturday, the 6th of May, 1905, at 12 o'clock P. M., the following described real estate in Randolph township, Randolph county, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of J N Canale, Thomas Jarrell and others, and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at a stone in the edge of Main street, South 60 deg. West 101 feet from the Lexington road where it intersects Main street, Thomas Jarrell's corner, running North 60 deg. West 101 feet to a stone in V Canale's corner, thence North 30 deg. West on J V Canale's line to a stone in the edge of the big road, thence along said road to a stone in Mrs Jarrell's corner, thence along said line South 30 deg. East to the beginning, containing one acre more or less. Terms of sale, cash.

E P HAYES, Comr.

This April 1st, 1905.

MORTGAGE SALE.

By virtue of the powers contained in a mortgage deed executed to the undersigned by A W Dawkins and wife, Ann M Dawkins, on the 1st day of August 1901, to secure the payment of the bond therein described, which mortgage is duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Randolph county in book 97 page 34, and default having been made in the payment of said bond and interest, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House door in Asheboro, N. C. at 12 o'clock on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1905, the following described real estate, lying and being in Richmond township, Randolph county, and bounded as follows:

Tract No. 1. Beginning at a pine tree and running North 62 deg. East 50 links to a stake, thence West 32 chains to a pine, thence South 62 chains and 50 links to a black oak in Brewer (now E C Yow's) line, thence East 32 chains to the beginning, containing 200 acres more or less.

Tract No. 2. Beginning at a stake in A Yow's line, and running East 20 chains and 30 links to a stone, H Miller's line, thence North 19 chains and 43 links to a black oak, thence West 11 chains and 68 links to a stone, thence South 4 chains to a pine stump, thence West 8 chains and 47 links to a stone, thence North 16 chains and 20 links to the beginning, containing 37-3-10 acres more or less.

A C COX, Admr.

of John E Miller deceased, Mortgagee.

This 1st day of March, 1905.