Mr Tom Harris has moved his family to Liberty where he had accepted a position as manager of the Liberty Chair Stock Company. We regret very much to have Mr Harris and his good lady leave as they are good people.

There will be no Teachers' Institute held in this county this year, and for that reason every teacher should make a special effort to attend the meeting of the State Teachers' Association at Greensboro June 13-16. At this meeting you will come in contact with teachers from every section of North Carolina. You will have the opportunity of hearing the ablest speakers in the State, and many from other states. The cost of the trip will be small, and no teacher can afford to miss it. A trip to the Teachers' Assembly is worth a term in school, especially to the teacher who has never attended. I am expecting to meet most of our teachers there, and will be much disappointed if they fail to go.

JAS. M. WAX, Co. Supt. of Schools.

Prof E L Moffitt, of Asheboro, was elected president of Elon College by the board of trustees last week, to succeed Dr W W Staley whose duties as pastor of the leading church in Suffolk, Va, will not permit him to give the work the time he wished.

Prof Moffitt was formerly a professor in the institution and afterwards took a two years' course in Harvard College. He is a man of fine ability, and recently has been engaged in manufacturing business, being secretary and treasurer of the Asheboro Wood & Iron Company. He will move to Elon and devote his entire time to the college.

Elon College has an endowment of fifty thousand dollars and is one of the leading colleges of the state.

Mr Handelman to Leave Rameur. In a private note enclosing a one dollar bill for a year's subscription to The Courier, Mr C C Handelman, who has been superintendent of the Columbia Manufacturing Co's plant at Rameur for the past year, says that he has tendered his resignation and accepted the superintendency of the Lyda Cotton Mills at Clinton, S. C., at a handsome salary. The Lyda is a mill of 20,000 spindles and 450 looms and makes a high grade of goods. Mr Handelman will move his family to Clinton this week.

Mr Handelman was for many years superintendent of the Handelman mills and is one of the best cotton mill superintendents in this part of the country. The position at Clinton came to Mr Handelman unthought and is quite a compliment to him.

While the Columbia Mfg. Co. lists to give him up and his many friends in the county regret to see him leave, yet all wish for him much success in his new home.

Mr I F Craven has been elected to succeed Mr Handelman as superintendent of the Rameur mill.

The Children's Favorite. For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. One Minute Cough Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate, is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by Standard Drug Co, and Asheboro Drug Co.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. Deafness cannot be cured by any application as they cannot reach the diseased part of the ear. It is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constructing aural apparatus that will present them in the best condition of the hearing. Deafness is not a disease, but a condition of the ear. It is not a disease, but a condition of the ear. It is not a disease, but a condition of the ear.

Opening May 25th 1905. The hotel at Jackson Springs will be open to guests on the 25th day of May 1905. The company desires to thank the public for its liberal patronage in the past, and guarantees that the same good service and attention accorded them in the past will be maintained in the future.
