A Majority of Registered Voters for the Measure.—The Opposition Here has no Argument on Their Side.—Bonds Will Carry.

As one who is interested in the progress and growth of Asheboro and in the intellectual and moral development of our whole state and nation the writer is once and for all for any measure which moves for better schools and longer terms of school for the improvement of school facilities in any way, believing, as he does, that the highest civic righteousness and the greatest efficiency of our citizenship must come through the training of the children of today who are to be the citizens of tomorrow.

Really, friend, you have no ground to fight on. It can't be on the ground of excessive taxes; it can't be on the principle involved—if so you are an inconstant man; it can't be on the ground that it would drive people away from town (some have advanced this weak excuse) for, pray, where would they go to find as light taxes as we have?

Friend, if you have been in the dark on this question, if you haven't understood its principle or its purpose, think what you are trying to do by your opposition. Estimate if you can what the defeat of this measure will mean. And calculate if you can what its success will mean.

The wedding will take place in the home of the bride at 8 p. m., and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev F E Irvin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Springdale, Ill.
