

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

Table with columns for Train No., Arrival, and Departure times for Southbound and Northbound directions.

Local and Personal.

Joe Ross spent Saturday in Greensboro. Miss Nannie Bulla is at Blowing Rock.

Mr. Will Skeen is spending a few days at the narrow. Prof. E. L. Moffitt went over to Elon College Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Jolly is confined to her room with rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McCrary spent Tuesday in Greensboro.

Mrs. Clen Jehin, of Greensboro, is visiting Mrs. J. O. Redding. Mr. Cicero Davis has moved into his new house in west Asheboro.

Miss Louise Slack spent Tuesday night in Handlemans with friends. Mrs. W. J. Scarborough and children are visiting relatives in Burlington.

Mrs. Chas. Smith returned to Asheboro Saturday from a visit to Archdale. Mr. Will DeBerry spent a few days last week with his cousin, Mrs. Jean Rush.

Miss Ella Hendricks returned Tuesday from a visit to her grandmother in Guilford county. Misses Jessie Boronghs, Callie Auman and Etta Auman spent Sunday at Jackson Springs.

Rev. W. E. Swain, Messrs. Way and Spence attended the Sunday school convention at Liberty last week. Mrs. W. T. Foushee came up with her husband and spent Monday and Tuesday as a visitor at Prof. Way's.

Dr. C. H. Phillips is ill at his home at Fullers with typhoid fever. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. C. A. Vancannon, of High Point, spent a few days in Asheboro recently, returning to High Point Tuesday.

Miss Maggie Moffitt, of Wilmington, and Miss Jennie Herndon, of Elon College, are visiting at Mrs. M. A. Moffitt's. The Misses Spencer gave a very delightful party at their home one night last week in honor of their visiting friends.

Mr. Hadley Spoon and little son passed through Monday returning to Archdale from a visit to his parents in Richmond. Mrs. Emory Lassiter and children, of Greensboro, came here last Friday and went out to Mrs. Lassiter's father's, near Farmer.

Mr. George Ross spent a part of last week at Mt. Vernon Springs and passed through Asheboro on Friday going to Jackson Springs. Mr. Samuel Spoon who has been on his crutches for five weeks is improving. Mr. Spoon's injuries were caused by a mule jerking him down.

Capt. James A. Spencer, of the police force of Hamlet, and Mrs. Spencer were here for the last week visiting Mr. Spencer's father near Mechanic. Your attention is called to the advertisement in another column, of W. D. Spoon the Grocer and Meat man. He keeps the best and will treat you right.

Dr. and Mrs. Hiest, of Elberse Springs, passed through Tuesday going to Guilford to visit relatives. Mrs. Hiest is a daughter of the late Benjamin Rosh of Tabernacle township. Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Asheboro at the Central Hotel on Friday, September 1st, for one day only. His practice is limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, and fitting glasses.

Prof. J. T. Henry, headmaster of Trinity High school, offers a scholarship to one young lady, in the county, who desires to prepare herself for teaching. Prof. Way County Superintendent will hold a competitive examination here on the 26th inst. to decide who is entitled to the scholarship. Mr. O. C. Cranford, one of Asheboro's town commissioners, went to Granite Quarry, Rowan county, on Friday last week, and purchased two cars of granite blocks, 4x16 inches to be used as "curbing" on sidewalks on Depot street, which is now being macadamized. Concrete is to be used on the sidewalks.

The following are among those who were in Asheboro Monday: Messrs. J. M. Caviness, B. M. Ward, J. O. Cox, and James E. Mason and J. M. Denton, of Moffitt; W. D. Moffitt, W. J. Moffitt, J. L. Owen, and G. W. Owen, of Katooy; O. M. Taylor and E. B. Leach, of Katooy; J. P. Phillips, J. W. Purdie, of Katooy; W. Redding and O. L. Robbly, of Caraway; T. E. Walker, of DeFisher; A. L. Deik, and H. H. Deik, of Cox; W. J. Deik, and W. S. Crowson, of Caraway; W. A. Keenan, of Sawyerville; M. F. Wren and W. B. Wren, of Eret; S. E. Cobb, of Climax; R. F. D. Alfred, of Ferris; John Ferris, of Moffitt, and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cranford attended the protracted meeting at Farmer Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Wood, of Providence township, was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. Frank Pearce, of Indian Territory, is visiting at Mr. W. H. Moring's.

Messrs. J. M. Walker and J. C. Bulla, of Back Creek township were in town Monday.

Mr. Moses Morgan, of Jacksons Creek, was in town, on business, last Monday.

Mr. Harvey Lathau, and Mr. W. D. Moore, of Montgomery county, were in Asheboro Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Fetter, of Franklin, Va., and Miss Zora Sapp, of Kernersville, are visiting at Mr. O. L. Sapp's.

The Ledger says M. H. Elder, of Randolph, has purchased 13 lots in Mechanicsville, a suburb of High Point.

Mr. C. T. Coffin, of the Lexington Grocery Company, is building a new dwelling on Sunset avenue near Mr. J. W. Hadley's new residence.

Mrs. J. O. Redding and Messrs. W. A. Underwood and J. T. Underwood went down to Mt. Vernon Springs Saturday returning Monday.

Miss Nellie Surratt who has been in Asheboro for some time visiting Mrs. J. T. Underwood, will return to her home at Jackson Hill this week.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, of Wilson, N. C., and Miss Berta May, of Carthage, who have been visiting Miss Clara Spencer, leave for their homes to-day.

Mr. Carl Russell spent Sunday at his old home at Coleridge, returning to Asheboro accompanied by Mr. J. Ed Cole who was here Monday and Tuesday.

J. Marion Cross, who was formerly a resident of this place, but now living at Concord, was shaking hands with old friends here the first of the week.

Mr. J. T. Moffitt will arrive to-day from Tampa, Florida, to assume the management of the Asheboro Wood and Iron Co. and the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company.

Master Stanton Skeen, the bright young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Skeen, celebrated his fifth birthday on last Friday giving a delightful party to a number of his young friends.

Kind reader, it will help us, if you go into a store to purchase an article you have seen advertised in The Courier, you will tell the merchant you saw it in The Courier.

Mr. Dolph M. Johnson who has been with the Asheboro Roller Mills for a number of years has resigned his position and accepted a similar one with the Greensboro Roller Mills at Greensboro, N. C.

Editor Farris, of the Enterprise, is receiving congratulations these days. He is the proud father of his first child, a bouncing boy he says weighing some ten or twelve pounds.

Our advertisers are helping us more than ever these days to edit The Courier. In order to have more space for reading matter we will be here for many months enlarge The Courier to an eight page paper.

The Courier has during the last few months received many callers who are friends and subscribers to the paper. Many words of encouragement and some of praise have been said to us, for all of which we are truly thankful.

Mr. Chas. Fox, who was formerly with the Standard Drug Co. at Asheboro but more recently in charge of Dr. W. A. Underwood's drug store at Handlemans, has resigned his position and will enter the State University school of pharmacy.

Ex-Sheriff Lassiter has a steam boat which he uses to convey his lumber from his saw mill in Moore county down Deep river to Carbons where it is loaded on the cars of the Durham and Charlotte and sent to various points of shipment.

Mr. Chas. Crotts, who recently returned from Mississippi to visit his father, Mr. J. L. Crotts, of Tabernacle township, he is very low with what we suppose is typhoid fever. It is reported throughout that section that Mr. Crotts has yellow fever.

Prof. N. W. Walker, was elected to a professorship in the State University last week. Mr. Walker when he left Asheboro in June expected to be instructor in English. He gets a better position, that of professor of school organization.

The Methodist church of this place has given the pastor, Rev. W. L. Sherrill, leave of absence. He is, as yet, undecided as to where or when he will go. He will not leave until next week and there will be the usual services next Sunday morning and evening.

Little Mabel Parrish, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Parrish, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon by giving a party to her little friends, 28 in number. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and all had a most delightful time.

Messrs. Herman and Charles Cranford, of Concord township, who have been logging for one of Mr. E. C. Lassiter's saw mills near Gulf in Moore county, have returned home. Mr. Herman will move to the farm near Farmers known as the Auman Lassiter farm. Charles has not yet decided what he will engage in; at present he is at his father's near Hills Store on the Uwharrie.

Miss Annie Johnson, of Farmer, was here last Friday returning from Greensboro, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lassiter. Miss Johnson has accepted a position in the Handlemans graded school.

Mr. Z. A. Cranford, of Hills Store, was in town Monday.

Mrs. George B. Strickland who has been ill for some time is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis have moved into their new dwelling on Sunset avenue.

Miss Alma Ferree who has been confined to her room for a few days is improving.

Miss Lillie Redding, of Handlemans spent last week with her sister Mrs. W. J. Gregson.

Miss Nannie Hallinger leaves for her summer vacation to-morrow going to Guilford College.

Mr. Chas. Cranford of Hills Store has accepted a job as "boss" on Depot street for a few weeks.

Mrs. B. Frank Page has returned to her home in Greensboro after spending some time with Mrs. Hugh J. Burns.

Mr. Hendrix Skeen left last week for a visit in Georgia to his sister Mrs. Birkhead and brother Mr. Newton Skeen.

Mr. P. A. Mendenhall, the new Southern agent has moved his family from Handlemans to the dwelling of Mr. J. Auman.

At the Apostolic Holiness church at Rameau on July 26th, Mr. Geo. York, of Rameau, and Miss Flora Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Smith, of Franklinville. Rev. W. C. Frazier officiating.

Miss Nellie Surratt who has been in Asheboro for some time visiting Mrs. J. T. Underwood, will return to her home at Jackson Hill this week.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, of Wilson, N. C., and Miss Berta May, of Carthage, who have been visiting Miss Clara Spencer, leave for their homes to-day.

Mr. Carl Russell spent Sunday at his old home at Coleridge, returning to Asheboro accompanied by Mr. J. Ed Cole who was here Monday and Tuesday.

J. Marion Cross, who was formerly a resident of this place, but now living at Concord, was shaking hands with old friends here the first of the week.

Mr. J. T. Moffitt will arrive to-day from Tampa, Florida, to assume the management of the Asheboro Wood and Iron Co. and the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company.

Master Stanton Skeen, the bright young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Skeen, celebrated his fifth birthday on last Friday giving a delightful party to a number of his young friends.

Kind reader, it will help us, if you go into a store to purchase an article you have seen advertised in The Courier, you will tell the merchant you saw it in The Courier.

Mr. Dolph M. Johnson who has been with the Asheboro Roller Mills for a number of years has resigned his position and accepted a similar one with the Greensboro Roller Mills at Greensboro, N. C.

Editor Farris, of the Enterprise, is receiving congratulations these days. He is the proud father of his first child, a bouncing boy he says weighing some ten or twelve pounds.

Our advertisers are helping us more than ever these days to edit The Courier. In order to have more space for reading matter we will be here for many months enlarge The Courier to an eight page paper.

The Courier has during the last few months received many callers who are friends and subscribers to the paper. Many words of encouragement and some of praise have been said to us, for all of which we are truly thankful.

Mr. Chas. Fox, who was formerly with the Standard Drug Co. at Asheboro but more recently in charge of Dr. W. A. Underwood's drug store at Handlemans, has resigned his position and will enter the State University school of pharmacy.

Ex-Sheriff Lassiter has a steam boat which he uses to convey his lumber from his saw mill in Moore county down Deep river to Carbons where it is loaded on the cars of the Durham and Charlotte and sent to various points of shipment.

Mr. Chas. Crotts, who recently returned from Mississippi to visit his father, Mr. J. L. Crotts, of Tabernacle township, he is very low with what we suppose is typhoid fever. It is reported throughout that section that Mr. Crotts has yellow fever.

Prof. N. W. Walker, was elected to a professorship in the State University last week. Mr. Walker when he left Asheboro in June expected to be instructor in English. He gets a better position, that of professor of school organization.

The Methodist church of this place has given the pastor, Rev. W. L. Sherrill, leave of absence. He is, as yet, undecided as to where or when he will go. He will not leave until next week and there will be the usual services next Sunday morning and evening.

Little Mabel Parrish, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Parrish, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon by giving a party to her little friends, 28 in number. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and all had a most delightful time.

Messrs. Herman and Charles Cranford, of Concord township, who have been logging for one of Mr. E. C. Lassiter's saw mills near Gulf in Moore county, have returned home. Mr. Herman will move to the farm near Farmers known as the Auman Lassiter farm. Charles has not yet decided what he will engage in; at present he is at his father's near Hills Store on the Uwharrie.

Miss Annie Johnson, of Farmer, was here last Friday returning from Greensboro, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lassiter. Miss Johnson has accepted a position in the Handlemans graded school.

New Center Items.

Mr. H. F. Way has moved his family to their new home on York Creek.

Miss Whittie Vaughn, of Graham, attended preaching at the Union Union Sunday.

Mr. Robt. Cox, of Elm Hill College visited his wife, D. W. Cox, on night last week.

Mr. W. H. Garrow who has been ill for the past two years died on July the 27th.

Health in this community is good at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis have moved into their new dwelling on Sunset avenue.

Miss Alma Ferree who has been confined to her room for a few days is improving.

Miss Lillie Redding, of Handlemans spent last week with her sister Mrs. W. J. Gregson.

Miss Nannie Hallinger leaves for her summer vacation to-morrow going to Guilford College.

Mr. Chas. Cranford of Hills Store has accepted a job as "boss" on Depot street for a few weeks.

Mrs. B. Frank Page has returned to her home in Greensboro after spending some time with Mrs. Hugh J. Burns.

Mr. Hendrix Skeen left last week for a visit in Georgia to his sister Mrs. Birkhead and brother Mr. Newton Skeen.

Mr. P. A. Mendenhall, the new Southern agent has moved his family from Handlemans to the dwelling of Mr. J. Auman.

At the Apostolic Holiness church at Rameau on July 26th, Mr. Geo. York, of Rameau, and Miss Flora Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Smith, of Franklinville. Rev. W. C. Frazier officiating.

Miss Nellie Surratt who has been in Asheboro for some time visiting Mrs. J. T. Underwood, will return to her home at Jackson Hill this week.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, of Wilson, N. C., and Miss Berta May, of Carthage, who have been visiting Miss Clara Spencer, leave for their homes to-day.

Mr. Carl Russell spent Sunday at his old home at Coleridge, returning to Asheboro accompanied by Mr. J. Ed Cole who was here Monday and Tuesday.

J. Marion Cross, who was formerly a resident of this place, but now living at Concord, was shaking hands with old friends here the first of the week.

Mr. J. T. Moffitt will arrive to-day from Tampa, Florida, to assume the management of the Asheboro Wood and Iron Co. and the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company.

Master Stanton Skeen, the bright young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Skeen, celebrated his fifth birthday on last Friday giving a delightful party to a number of his young friends.

Kind reader, it will help us, if you go into a store to purchase an article you have seen advertised in The Courier, you will tell the merchant you saw it in The Courier.

Mr. Dolph M. Johnson who has been with the Asheboro Roller Mills for a number of years has resigned his position and accepted a similar one with the Greensboro Roller Mills at Greensboro, N. C.

Editor Farris, of the Enterprise, is receiving congratulations these days. He is the proud father of his first child, a bouncing boy he says weighing some ten or twelve pounds.

Our advertisers are helping us more than ever these days to edit The Courier. In order to have more space for reading matter we will be here for many months enlarge The Courier to an eight page paper.

The Courier has during the last few months received many callers who are friends and subscribers to the paper. Many words of encouragement and some of praise have been said to us, for all of which we are truly thankful.

Mr. Chas. Fox, who was formerly with the Standard Drug Co. at Asheboro but more recently in charge of Dr. W. A. Underwood's drug store at Handlemans, has resigned his position and will enter the State University school of pharmacy.

Ex-Sheriff Lassiter has a steam boat which he uses to convey his lumber from his saw mill in Moore county down Deep river to Carbons where it is loaded on the cars of the Durham and Charlotte and sent to various points of shipment.

Mr. Chas. Crotts, who recently returned from Mississippi to visit his father, Mr. J. L. Crotts, of Tabernacle township, he is very low with what we suppose is typhoid fever. It is reported throughout that section that Mr. Crotts has yellow fever.

Prof. N. W. Walker, was elected to a professorship in the State University last week. Mr. Walker when he left Asheboro in June expected to be instructor in English. He gets a better position, that of professor of school organization.

The Methodist church of this place has given the pastor, Rev. W. L. Sherrill, leave of absence. He is, as yet, undecided as to where or when he will go. He will not leave until next week and there will be the usual services next Sunday morning and evening.

Little Mabel Parrish, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Parrish, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon by giving a party to her little friends, 28 in number. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and all had a most delightful time.

Messrs. Herman and Charles Cranford, of Concord township, who have been logging for one of Mr. E. C. Lassiter's saw mills near Gulf in Moore county, have returned home. Mr. Herman will move to the farm near Farmers known as the Auman Lassiter farm. Charles has not yet decided what he will engage in; at present he is at his father's near Hills Store on the Uwharrie.

Miss Annie Johnson, of Farmer, was here last Friday returning from Greensboro, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lassiter. Miss Johnson has accepted a position in the Handlemans graded school.

Married.

On July 20, 1905, Mr. Thomas R. Child was married to Miss Lou F. J. Child, both of Clinton, N. C. The marriage took place at the residence of W. H. Julian.

My happiness abound you, your troubles be few, my heart is ever true to you, for our success wish for you.

The ceremony was performed by Wm. H. Julian, J. P.

Liberty Items.

Miss Patti Smith is attending a lesson party in Guilford given by her friend, Miss Florence Jones. We notice that they are the two of the old Liberty boys, their Dadda Griffin and Albert Allen Triggs. Most all parties are kind ones and look better to have a little of the Liberty folks in it.

Miss Willie Casey came home last Saturday to visit her mother, Winnie, Durbin. She had just from the Trigon. Dads will join a house party at Mrs. Moffitt's in Asheville.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

The protracted meeting will begin here the 20th inst.

We cannot overstate our needs but we can have a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out. We need a better system than the present one. Let us try to work it out.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Brooks are on the sick list.

Miss Nina Parks is visiting in Greensboro. Misses Alma and Lola Green have been visiting in Greensboro and Burlington for some time.

Business Locals.

Not an inserted under this head at one cent a word each insertion.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.

For Sale. First class Remington Standard No. 9. Typewriter can be bought cheap. Down in one year. Apply at this office.

WANTED - See printer - See long want ads. Apply to the Editor, N. C. Franklinville, N. C.