Horses at Auction

I will sell at public auction at Asheboro North Carolina

On Friday Sept 22, 1905, one car load of Range Horses. These horses were bought by me last fall in Wyoming direct from the range and have been wintered and grased at my farm in Virginia. They are consequently thoroughly acclimated. They are the good rugged kind with plenty of bone, style, action and finish. They will be sold for the high dollar regardless of cost. No by bidding and every horse offered will be sold.

All sums of $50.00 and less cash, all sums over $50.00
