

Franklinville News.

Rev. C. A. Wood gave us two interesting sermons at the M. E. church, Sunday.

Miss Mattie Black, one of our most estimable young ladies who is well qualified as an instructor left last week to teach the public school at Pine Grove near Sophia.

There will be two plays at the academy this week. On Friday night by the small students. These are very popular plays and Prof. and Mrs. D. M. Weatherly have spared no pains in instructing their pupils and getting up these plays and we believe that every one who fails to attend will miss the best entertainment of the season. Everybody invited.

Miss Grace Winghamam spent Sunday in the city and expects to enter school here after Christmas.

Several large hogs have been slaughtered during the last few days and among the biggest are seven sows of Mr. Hugh Parks Sr. which weighed 2325 lbs. an average over 300 lbs. each and Mr. Kivett killed two which weighed 375 lbs. each.

The Franklinville Mfg. Company will throw out their old spinning frames. One car load from New Albany machine Shops, of Biddford, Maine, arrived last week. The machinery will be placed in a few days.

Messrs. D. M. Weatherly and Hugh Parks Jr. made a trip to Greensboro and Reidsville one day last week, attending the district meeting of the Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Jarvis Pickett of Worthville, was in town one day last week.

Mrs. Marcia Julian, of Pleasant Garden came down Monday and will spend a few days here with her many friends.

Of Mr. A. H. Robbins, of Lexington - he once was conducted by the Courier, the Dispatch says "Mr. Robbins is superintendent of a big cotton mill in Alabama."

Mr. N. M. Barrow, Asheboro's tinner, has a beautiful bed quilt made and given to him by his mother. There are in the quilt 2,178 pieces. It is what is called the log cabin design.

Just as we go to press we learn that Will McPherson was arrested last night and was tried to-day before Capt. Johnson and bound over to next term of court for selling liquor. It is said that he will be brought to jail to day, if he cannot give a good bond.

Mrs. John Anderson, of Altamaha, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. N. Robins. Mrs. Anderson, who was Miss Maggie Moring, before her marriage, was well known and had many friends here at her old home. Mrs. Anderson comes here to spend the Christmas holidays with her daughter, Miss Blanche, who is in school at Asheboro. She will remain in town for some time.

Mr. Mast Pleads Self Defense

That was an unfortunate tragedy in which George Hasty, formerly of Randleman, and a son of Wm. Hasty shot and killed Milton Bennett and Abbott Davison manager of an operaic Company, last Saturday morning. The trouble arose over an alleged charge against Hasty that he grossly insulted two young ladies. Mr. Bennett told Hasty that a man who looked over the transom to a lady's room did not conform with his ideas of a gentleman. Davison's dying statement was taken and is most damaging to Hasty.

Will Hasty is at the home of his father at Randleman and says one both of the abowmen had him down before the fatal shots were fired. Mr. Hasty says that the young ladies were not in sight when the shooting occurred and that he and another brother were running the hotel and that young Hasty, who did the shooting, was working for them. All three of the Hasty boys formerly lived at Randleman and worked in a cotton mill.
