

Mr. R. T. POOL.

Elected State Vice-Councillor of the Jr O U A M—From Montgomery County.

At the recent meeting of the State Council, Jr O U A M, at Goldsboro, Mr. R. T. Pool, of Troy, was elected State Councillor. He was born in Montgomery county, September 30, 1872. He was reared on the farm, and at 18 he entered Trinity College, graduating in 1888. In 1899 he received his license to practice law and located at Troy.

In September, 1899, Trojan Council No 77, Jr O U A M was organized and B. T. Pool was one of the charter members and the moving spirit in the organization. He served his council for several successive terms as councillor.

He is also a member of several other organizations, among them the Masons and Pythians.

Carlole Items.

We are having very fine weather and some of the farmers are preparing their land for corn.

The health of the community is good at present.

The school at Red Berry closed March 9th with a spelling bee and a few speeches from the little ones. Several of the patrons and committee were present. We had a very successful school. Miss Cora Anderson, the teacher, is visiting a few of the patrons since her school closed. She intends to stay with us until Wednesday and then she will return to her home at Denton. The committee has asked Miss Anderson to teach for the next term.

Prof J. M. Way, our county Supt., is very popular in our community and what he is doing for the up-building of our school is highly appreciated.

Mr N. A. Yates visited J. C. Ridge, Sunday.

Kandy News.

Rev Arrowood filled his appointment at Trogdon's and as usual preached a fine sermon to a very large congregation. Mr. Frank Scott led the singing which was very good.

Miss Mary Moffitt, of Ulah, spent two or three weeks with her brother, Mr. W. J. Moffitt, returning home last week.

Miss Bertha Wrenn, who has been in school at Shiloh, is at home now.

Mr Orlando Chriseo, who has been teaching in Moore county, closed his school last week on account of measles.

Mr H. G. Whitaker, who has been living in this neighborhood with his son-in-law, Mr. Y. Lang, was taken sick last week and has gone to his home at Pilot Mountain.

Mr H. C. Tyson, of Burlington, was in the neighborhood last week looking after his land and timber. Saturday, March 10.

Richland Briefs.

The school at Union Grove school house, taught by Mr. C. E. Julian, closed on Friday last with a candy pulling at night at Mr. Leroy Bean's. It was attended by a large crowd.

Mr. M. Leonard, of Asheboro, recently sold his old home place here to Mr. J. J. Allen, and Mr. E. H. Bird has bought a part of his father's, Mr. Hartwell Bird's, farm, while Mr. Hartwell Bird has bought Mr. Ellis C. Bird's part of the old home place.

School closed at Bethel school house on Saturday the 10th, with recitations in the evening and a spelling bee at night.

Several from this section attended the exhibition at Hickory Grove, last Saturday.

If any body wants to buy lumber it looks like they might be supplied in this neighborhood, there are only nine saw mills running in about four miles of one another around here.

Mr and Mrs Blair Entertain.

Mr and Mrs Ed Blair delightfully entertained the Archdale Book Club at their home near Archdale Thursday evening.

The invited guests were: Misses Hattie Tomlinson, Ora May Cox, Lena and Ruth Freeman, Ocie Redding, Pearl Marah, Eva Wheeler, Maggie and Mamie Cox, Anna Ragan, and Messrs W. T. Parker, R. R. Ragan, B. McAdams, Dr. S. Ragan, R. L. M. Blair, John Elder, Fred Wheeler, Eugene Jarrett, George Hill and Carl Cox, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. Claud C. Barbee, and Mrs. Dora Richardson.

During the evening delightful entertainment was furnished by a splendid graphophone.

Cards were played.

Delicious refreshments in the way of cream, cake, wafers and coffee were served.

At a late hour the guests departed voting Mrs. Blair a most charming hostess.

DEATHS.

Henry Bean, aged 35 years, died of heart disease last Thursday night, March 8th, at his home near Dewey. The funeral was at New Hope Church Friday. The deceased leaves a wife and five children.

Items From Fullers.

There has been an epidemic of pneumonia in this section for some weeks.

Sam and Hal Phillips, sons of L. C. Phillips who have been dangerously sick for some days are better and will soon be out again.

W. B. Myres is seriously sick at his home.

Dra. Long, of Greensboro, Peacock, of Thomasville, and Phillips, of Fullers, performed a successful operation on James Walker, son of E. W. Walker, of Fullers, for appendicitis yesterday. The patient is reported doing nicely.

Carl Kearns and Miss Maggie Miller are also on the sick list with pneumonia, but are improving.

J. C. Laughlin is opening a stock of goods at Fullers.

The New Homestead Mining Co. has begun work again.

We are sorry to hear that Sheriff Finch does not improve.

Fighting Stock Law.

The Siler City Grit correspondent at Pittsboro says: Those opposed to the stock law in Bear Creek territory, will apply to the court for a restraining order to prevent the establishment of the stock law in the territory in which it was carried by an election last month. They claim the election was illegal in a part of the territory included that had formed a part of a stock law election territory in less than a year, and this was contrary to the special act of the last Legislature, which says two elections for the establishment of stock law shall not be held in the same territory the same year, or within less than a year.

Millboro News.

Rev J. R. Hutton preached an excellent sermon at Bethany Sunday. Misses Hulin and Underwood, of Central Falls, visited Miss Minnie Underwood Saturday and Sunday.

The Western Union linemen are at Millboro fixing up the telegraph wires.

Miss Maud bedding is visiting friends at Gulf.

Mr. John Coble spent one night last week with his father, Mr. D. O. Coble. Mrs. Martindale and children spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. E. N. Ellis'.

A saw mill belonging to J. W. Carriker, near Concord was totally destroyed by fire last week.

West Ramseur.

Mr and Mrs J. M. King, of Michfield, and Mr and Mrs Oscar Brown, of Browns, and Miss Edna Dorsett, of Ore Hill, were pleasant visitors at the hospitable home of Mr and Mrs J. O. Forrester's last week.

The Columbia Manufacturing Company has made great improvements in West Ramseur by nicely painting all the dwelling houses in different colors.

Mr J. D. Hunter, of Jonesboro, was a welcome visitor at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. A. D. Phillips, Sunday night and Monday, leaving on the morning train to-day for Greensboro on business.

Mr Dan Thomas, one of Columbia's cotton mill operatives, left on noon train to-day for Durham. One of our fair girls, we understand, contemplates going to Jonesboro Thursday next and it is rumored that she is going there on a wedding tour, as one of Jonesboro's young men, who has been subject to a Ramseur heart trouble is listed to be on hand Wednesday night. "Shanks."

Items from Willowbrook.

Mr Cliff Hinshaw and Mr. Claud Lamb, of Randolph, visited relatives at Willowbrook Sunday. Mr. Joe Hodgin, of Level Cross, went coon hunting and caught the master coon which tipped the scales twelve and one-half pounds.

Miss Annie Gail Vickory who has been attending the graded school at Providence, has stopped on account of measles.

Mr. A. W. Vickory spent Friday looking after his interest at the farm.

Mr. Eli Spoon of Level Cross, spent Sunday here.

Mrs R. L. Vickory visited at Mrs. W. R. Julian's Monday.

Pinkey.

Colored Teachers Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Colored Teachers' Association in the Asheboro Colored Graded School building Saturday, March 24th, at 10:00 a. m. This meeting is called for the purpose of discussing subjects of vital interest to every colored school teacher in Randolph county. You need the information. Please be present. J. A. McRae, Pres.

From Ralph,

Mr M. H. Moffitt, of Asheboro was in our neighborhood Monday.

A large crowd of our gay young folks attended the school breaking at Bethel Saturday.

Miss Jewel Allen, of Asheboro, was a welcome visitor in our community Saturday and Sunday.

President Johnson will preach at Brower's Chapel next Saturday afternoon.

Farmers are beginning to prepare their ground for corn.

Mrs John Humble, of Asheboro, visited Mrs. S. F. Lowdermilk last Sunday afternoon.

There is a new girl at the home of Mr. S. F. Lowdermilk.

Sam Kobre and William Plean the two men charged with the murder of Henry Kobre, at Winston-Salem, on the night of Jan 21st, were given a preliminary hearing before Mayor O. B. Eaton, last week. The evidence, though circumstantial, is strong, and the prisoners were remanded to jail without bond.

Albert Ingram, an alleged illicit distiller of whiskey, was arrested at midnight Sunday in Davidson, after a desperate fight with the officers. He was placed in jail at Lexington.

For Twenty-one Years

Royster's Fertilizers

have been the standard because they are made from honest materials. See that the trade mark is on every bag. None genuine without it.

F. S. ROYSTER GUANO CO., Norfolk, Va.

Wasted Money

If left with us would give you a handsome sum for investment, provide for old age, or serve you in a time of need :: :: :: ::

Daily savings	In 5 years amounts to	In 10 years amounts to	In 20 years amounts to
$.01	$ 20.00	$ 45.00	$ 115.00
.02	40.00	90.00	225.00
.03	60.00	135.00	340.00
.05	100.00	225.00	565.00
.10	200.00	450.00	1,130.00
.25	500.00	1,130.00	2,825.00
.50	1,000.00	2,250.00	5,650.00
1.00	2,000.00	4,500.00	11,300.00

The above is on a basis of 4 per cent. per annum, compound interest :: :: ::

Should you lend to an individual you would endeavor to get the best possible protection. The same should apply when you lend to a bank. Remember WE offer you the protection of $600,000.00 capital.

Interest Paid on Deposits

Wachovia Loan & Trust Company.
High Point, N. C.