

CAROLINA INDUSTRY.

Kansas Cities Longing for the Sound Her Factory Whistles.

Dear Editor COURIER:—Since reading the the Kansas letter in the COURIER by Mr. P. C. Welborn, of Eudora, Kansas, I will ask your permission for a small space in your valuable paper that is printed in the dear old county I love so well.

I would like to say right now; I wish I could say as much for Emporia and vicinity. Now we all know that Kansas is a mighty good State but we don't need to think just because she is a prohibition State and because Mr. Welborn has never seen a drop of "Booze" in the two whole years that he has lived here.

Emporia, Kansas.

All Will Agree.

"Liquor is an evil," he said. "You can't get a man, no matter how red his nose, no matter what his daily consumption of liquor, no matter how much he loves it or how much he gets away with in the course of a year, who—if you will put the question to him in his sober moments—will not say that it is wrong to use it as a beverage."

All the States in the Union, he continued, had placed restrictive legislation about the liquor traffic. It might be stated that liquor used as a beverage, was an evil.

Referring to a prohibition community he stated that he did not believe in the cry that if you run bar-rooms out you merely create blind tigers. He knew that there were people who would continue to sell by stealth, that there were "bush rangers"—men who carried a jug and would hang on the outskirts of communities and sell their wares, but that he believed that the sentiment of the public in these places, if it should be kept animate, would succeed in minimizing the evil.

The Modern Wife and the Money Question.

Usually it is the shadow of money that brings the first partial eclipse to the honeymoon, and unless the problem is rightly handled the eclipse may become total. The modern wife cannot be always asking for money and retain either her happiness or her self-respect. The husband could not keep his business going if he did not have a pay day for his employees or if he was careless about settling his bills. He cannot expect to keep his house going without a financial arrangement that will give it regularity and security. It is passing strange that this matter should be a constant difficulty in millions of homes, but it is a hardship which wives are supposed to bear uncomplainingly. She is a wise woman who rebels early and secures her rights, for she will never be a successful wife until she has her part of the income without days of grace or discounts. This is important; it is vital. Unless it is made plain and duly fixed, all her other purposes and aspirations will be forever handicapped.—From the April Delineator.

$1,211.00 for $900.

The 20th day of March, 1886 Mr Boren secured a 20 year endowment policy from this company and since that time he has paid out $900 in premiums. Mr Slack, representing the Penn Mutual, made a cash settlement, paying the policy holder $1,211.58.

READING—SUPPOSE YOU STOP AND SEE—ISN'T IT WONDERFUL?

Greensboro, N. C. March 29, 1903.

Mrs. Joe Person:—I take pleasure in stating that your Remedy has entirely cured our little girl of a very bad case of eczema, which covered a great part of her body; she had eczema (periodically) from the time she was three weeks old, until she was six years old. She is now perfectly well and I feel that I cannot speak too highly of it. She has not had a symptom of it for six years.

Respectfully, J. W. Conn.

GIVEN TEN YEARS.

John Lynn, Colored, Convicted of Burning a Barn and Horse Stealing.

John Lynn, colored, of Chatham county, indicted for burning a barn April 29, 1903, belonging to a colored man by the name of Amos Mc-Masters, near Staley, was arrested last week at Greensboro and brought here by Deputy Sheriff Marley, tried and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for 10 years.

He was also indicted for stealing a horse from the barn which he burned. He drove the horse the next day in the direction of Asheboro and tried to sell him to Mr. W. R. Hamlin.

While waiting for the train at Greensboro, Lynn made a sudden plunge for the door in an effort to escape. He made things lively for a while, but was soon captured and safely landed in Asheboro.

SLASHED WITH KNIFE.

Warned First Night—Attacked During the Second Night.

High Point April 2.—On Thursday night six white men waited on Andy Leper, the colored watchman at the Dalton, and told him not to be caught there again. Friday night they made good their threat. They went in on him suddenly, threw him down, put out the light and slashed his clothing with a knife, cutting his arm. His coat was cut in several places. After the watchman was released he shot five times at the men, but did not hit any of them as far as is known. Before they left they warned the watchman again.

Aaron Case Compromised.

The case against N. C. Aaron at Greensboro charging him with false pretense, he taking orders for pictures which he failed to deliver after making collections, was compromised last week by Aaron depositing $75 with Squire Collins to pay all claims in Guilford county. The warrant was sworn out by Mr. C. U. Hinshaw, March 24th, and in the compromise Mr. Aaron agrees to refund the money where he cannot fill the orders.

An Old Law Book.

An old law book has been resurrected by Mr. Frank Brown, of High Point. It was found among his father's effects and no doubt is very valuable. It belonged to Mr. Frank Brown's great grandfather, who was a practicing lawyer in Moore county from 1800 to 1825. The book bears the date in the printed laws signed by George Washington, the "father of our country."

At the Everett Yesterday.

Mr. Pugh, the genial proprietor of the Everett Hotel had the largest crowd there yesterday that he has ever had at one time. There were 136 took dinner and supper there. This speaks well for this hotel that is becoming more popular every day with the traveling people.—From High Point Ledger.

To Advertisers.

THE COURIER has spent large sums of money in working up its circulation and to-day it thoroughly covers Randolph and adjoining counties besides having a large list throughout this and other states. But we are working to build up Randolph county and the Piedmont section of North Carolina.

To this end we have built our circulation, that our advertisers and the community might secure the greater publicity. We have improved our plant and enlarged our paper—all of which necessarily increases expenses.

Hence this article notifying our advertisers that after March 1st, 1903, the advertising rate is as follows:

Per inch one time 25c " " month per issue 20c " " two months " 17c " " six " and over " 15c Reading notices will be charged at the rate of one cent per word. No reader accepted for less than 25c. All bills payable monthly.

Our circulation is not made up of dead heads and exchanges, but paying subscribers, who send us the cash for their subscription. Few are more than six months in arrears and many are paid in advance. This shows that we circulate among a prosperous people—the class that advertisers desire to reach.

THE COURIER appreciates the patronage accorded it in the past and pledges every effort to give value received for future business placed with it.

"CUT IT OUT"

says the doctor to many of his lady patients, because he doesn't know of any medicinal treatment that will positively cure womb or ovarian troubles, except the surgeon's knife. That such a medicine exists, however, has been proved by the wonderful cures performed on diseased women, in thousands of cases, by

GAVE UP SUPPORTER.

"I wore a supporter for four years, to keep up my womb, which had crowded everything down before," writes Mrs. R. J. Christian, of Memphis, Tenn. "My doctor told me no medicine would help me. I suffered untold misery, and could hardly walk. After taking two bottles of Cardui I gave up my supporter. Now I am taking my fifth bottle, have no bad feelings as formerly, and can be on my feet half a day at a time." I strongly recommend Cardui to every suffering woman.

Oxydonor will benefit or cause the cure of any disease at any reasonable stage. Rheumatism, sciatitis, Neuralgia, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, all nervous Diseases, Blood, Skin, Liver and Kidney Disorders, Female Complaints, etc.

Gilliams Store, Alamance Co., N. C., April 11th, 1903.

Dr. H. Saatche & Co., New York. So many of our family have been sick. I have badly needed another Oxydonor. Those on whom I used the Oxydonor got along fine, others had to resort to medical aid having but one Oxydonor. The consequences were the loss of one of our babies. I shall always regret the use of medicine. I hope I shall never be forced to call another doctor.

I have found great benefit from the use of Oxydonor. I was cured of a severe case of Rheumatism which has never returned. Oxydonor has been a general benefit in our family. Respectfully, MRS. J. W. GILLIAM.
