Mr. J. E. Albright, of Brower township, was a welcome visitor at THE COURIER office a few days ago.

This news paper thinks as much of a poor man as a rich man. We print the news about either. Send in any news.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Luck, of Giles' Chapel, were in to see us Saturday and remembered us kindly with a renewal of their subscription.

Monroe, a town a little larger than Asheboro, has ten R. F. D. routes, Asheboro has two. Our business men should make an effort to get more routes here.

Asheboro should have a laundry. There are hundreds of dollars being sent from this section of the state to Charlotte that could, through this channel, be brought to Asheboro.

Mr. A. P. Harris, a native of Montgomery county, a graduate of the State University, and first cousin of Mr. W. J. Scarborough, of Asheboro, is the democratic nominee for Clerk of the Superior Court of Stanly county.

Mr. J. T. Wood received his samples of clothing last week and is now traveling the Piedmont Section of North Carolina. Mr. Wood represents two of the best clothing manufacturers.

A petition is being circulated at Randleman and other points between Asheboro and High Point asking the Southern to operate a mail and passenger train on Sunday on the Asheboro branch. Wherever presented the petition is being freely signed.

Last week at Spring Garden M. E. Church Greensboro, G. W. Ward, W. A. Watson, L. F. Hanes and E. L. Sides, were elected delegates to the district conference to be held in Asheboro July 24.

FRANKLINSVILLE NEWS.

Mr. Marton Burk Died Suddenly Saturday Night—Harrel Stuart Goes to Greensboro—Other Interesting Notes.

The revival meeting at the M. E. church is still in progress at this writing. There have already been several conversions and much good has been accomplished.

Rev. B. F. Fincher, who has assisted the pastor, Rev. C. A. Wood, was called away Friday to conduct the funeral of one of his members on the Uwharrie circuit.

Mr. J. A. McKinnon spent Saturday night and Sunday at Cole-ridge with relatives.

Geo. H. Tippett, who has been with the Seaboard Air Line railway for some time spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with his parents.

Dr. T. I. Fox made a business trip to Greensboro one day last week. Some of the members of Hanks Lodge attended the funeral of Mr. Geo. Lambert, at Concord, Thursday Rev. C. A. Wood preached the funeral and the body was laid to rest with Masonic honors.

Hugh Parks, Sr., and Hugh Parks, Jr., spent Sunday with relatives and friends near Parks X Roads.

Will Jones, one of M. G. Buies, assistants in the baling room of the Franklinville Mfg. Co. has resigned and will probably locate in Wilmington.

J. R. Tippett is the happiest man in the city. Another fine plow boy has been added to his force.

Mrs. Martitia Julian spent Sunday Rameur with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Steed.

Mr. Harrell Stuart left Monday morning for Greensboro, where he has accepted a position with the Wakefield Hdw. Company. He is a son of our townsman, Mr. C. E. Stuart and is one of our brightest and best young men. Although only about sixteen years old, yet by hard work and study, he has equipped himself for a business career the equal can hardly be found any where among young men of much more mature age. Much credit is due his father for his success and also to Prof. D. M. Weatherly, whose students rarely if ever fail to succeed in life.

Mr. Marion Burke, who lived about three miles southwest of town died suddenly Saturday night Mr. Burk did a hard day's work Saturday, ate a hearty supper Saturday night and retired as usual and from all appearance was enjoying good health. Sometime during the night he got up unobserved by the family and went out and was found Sunday morning sitting on the front steps with his head leaning against the door facing and apparently had been dead several hours. Mr. Burke was about 58 years old and was a good husband and father. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn their loss. The body was buried at Pleasant Cross Monday morning, Rev. James Jordan conducted the funeral. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of our people.

Mr. M. L. Burke, of High Point and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hayes of Randleman, attended the funeral of Mr. Burke Monday.

Mr. W. C. Russell, who has not been in very good health for some time, was taken suddenly ill Monday evening, but it is not thought to be of a serious nature and hope he will be out again shortly.

The Central Falls Meeting.

The protracted meeting at this place closed Sunday night. Much good was done. The preaching was marked with enthusiasm and devotion. Dr. Brooks helped in the work preaching very able sermons, about which much has been said, to show that his able efforts were not in vain, but as good seed sown, the harvest of which is yet to come. Bro. Richardson does his best on all occasions and no comment is necessary to express his zeal as well as efficiency in a meeting of this kind. We hope to have Dr. Brooks and Mr. Richardson again; they are most excellent preachers.

Very truly,
J. F. HAMILTON.

Old People's Day.

Sunday, June 3rd, will be observed as Old Peoples Day by the Worthville Sunday Schools. A well arranged program, consisting of music recitations and addresses has been arranged. The exercises begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Prof. Thos. Newlin will deliver the address to the children during the afternoon and to the young ladies and men in the evening.

Saturday night June 2nd, Mr. Newlin will deliver an educational address.

If we could fool God as easy as we do our neighbors, a lot of us would not be scared out of our haunts every time we thought a cyclone was coming.

"JONQUILLE EVENING.

Ramblers Book Club Entertained at Home of its President Mrs. W. A. Coffin.

The Ramblers Book Club met at the home of their president, Mrs. W. A. Coffin, Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. After the regular business session, during which a large number of new books were distributed, the members entered into an interesting Jonquille contest. Each attendant was given a neat card one side of which was decorated with handpainted Jonquille flowers and on the other were questions to be answered by which were formed only of letters contained in the word "Jonquille" of which the Jonquille is a specie. The first prize, a copy of "The Changed Life," by Henry Drummond, in Jonquille binding, was awarded to Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer. Consolation, a bunch of Jonquilles, was given Mrs. John Anderson.

After the contest Mrs. J. D. Simpson and Miss Blanche Coffin entertained with music. Sandwiches and clives were served during the evening.

WAS A BRAVE SOLDIER.

Mr. Marshal Cox Died at his Home Friday—Funeral Monday Morning.

Mr. J. Marshal Cox died at his home in North Asheboro Friday after an illness of months with lung trouble. Mr. Cox was sixty years of age and leaves four children.

His oldest son is Charles V. Cox, who is a foreman of the ash, door and blind department of the Southern Lumber Co. of Tampa, Fla. The other two sons, Dolph and Gurney Cox, have positions with the Asheboro Wheelbarrow and Mfg. Co. of this place.

The deceased is well known and highly respected in this community. He was a brave and faithful soldier in the Confederate army, having volunteered his services at the tender age of seventeen years. He was 58 years old at his death. Mr. Cox was a son of the late Col. Jesse D. Cox, well known to the citizens of Randolph county.

The community extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. C. V. Cox arrived from Fla. Sunday to attend the funeral which occurred Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Alone.

Lines composed by Mrs. Lillian Thonburg in girl-hood, reprinted now by permission.

Alone, O soul, thou canst not be.
'Tis only that thou wilt not see
The outstretched hand, to guide aright
And lead thee, safely into light.
The clouds that hide the sun from view
Bright, beaming rays will soon pierce through.
And thou, O heart, so frown art
A fount of love, wilt warmth impart.
Departed friends thou still dost mourn,
Have safely reached their Heavenly home
To them cold death was but a dream,
They've passed from darkness into gleam.
Alone, thou canst not ever be,
Since God has ever said, "Lo I am with thee."
And round thee coming from above
Are angel spirits, breathing love.
Look up, from out thy gloomy night,
And but behold those "beings bright,
Nor longer think, thyself alone,
And that for aye, sweet hope, hath flown
In His pavilion, safely hide,
Look up to him, now glorified,
Instead the tear, that dims the eye,
Thy life, song to all breathe on high.
The brighter hour, do not bemoan,
God's flowers for all, have sweetly grown,
No cross will be too great for thee,
For as thy days, thy strength shall be.

SAYINGS OF SUSAN B. ANTHONY.

"No man is good enough to govern any woman without her consent."
"Self-government is as necessary for the best development of women as of men."

"The greatest compliment ever paid me was that by my life work I had helped to make the constituents who stand with ballots in their hands."

"So long as State constitutions say that all may vote when 21, save idiots, lunatics, convicts, and women are brought down politically to the level of those other disfranchised. This discrimination is a relic of the dark ages. The most ignorant and degraded man who walks to the polls feels himself superior to the most intelligent woman."

"That women are 'lawful citizens' is undeniable, since the law recognizes them as such through the visits of the assessor and the tax-gatherer; since it recognizes them as such in the police-stations, the jails, the courts and the prisons. Only at the ballot-box is the lawful citizenship of women challenged."

LATEST PROCESS.

Crown Milling Company Installing New Machinery—Popular Roller Mills.

Saturday a COURIER representative was shown an interesting machine which has just been installed at the roller mills of the Crown Milling Company of this city.

It is an electric flour purifier, consisting of a small dynamo, which generates electricity for a storage battery. From this storage the current is transmitted to large cylinders where the current mingles with the flour, and has a tendency to destroy all impurities and produces a flour as white as snow. The machine, though small represents an expenditure of about $1,400.

This is the only mill in the State equipped with this latest improved machine. The Crown Milling Co. is a recognized competitor of the best mills in the country. A new boiler will be put in soon.

COMMENCEMENT NEXT WEEK.

Exercises Begin at 8 O'clock Tuesday Evening—Music by the Band.

The closing exercises of the Asheboro graded school will be held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week—May 1st and 2nd. The exercises Tuesday evening will consist of recitations, songs, drills motion songs, etc., by the pupils of the primary and intermediate grades. The exercises Wednesday evening will consist of essays and orations by the ninth grade. On both these evenings the exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Asheboro Band will furnish music for the occasion.

BRIEFS.

Miss Florence Blair, who has been teaching at Conley, Va., during the last winter, will return home next week.

Miss May Reddick, of Hertford, was married to Mr. Joseph Cox, Jr., of High Point, yesterday. They will be at home at High Point after May 10th. The bride was a guest of Miss Etta Blair recently.

Rev. D. M. Hawthorn, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Thomasville will preach at the Asheboro Presbyterian church Sunday morning and at the Worthville Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

Prof. W. B. Owen, formerly of Liberty, this county, recently closed a successful school at Cornelius in Iredell county. Two gold medals were given to successful contestants. Hon. R. Z. Linney delivered a characteristic address.

A message from Frank Blair, son of Mrs. Rachel Blair of Trinity township, and nephew of Mrs. Mattie Blair, of Asheboro, who was in San Francisco during the earthquake says he escaped without injury.

"Long Record.

Equire J. C. Skeen and wife of Jackson Hill Township were in town visiting their children in Asheboro. Squire Skeen has done considerable legal business in Randolph. He has been executor of different wills of Randolph citizens, who are his neighbors living across the line. Mr. Skeen brought over to clerk Hammond the will of the late Alexander Russell to have it admitted to probate. Mr. Skeen was executor, but he resigned and his son Mr. W. S. Skeen was appointed as administrator with the will annexed.

Squire Skeen has been an acting justice of the peace for 54 years, and is a prominent farmer and successful business man. He is now 82 years of age and in excellent health.
