

CALL FOR COURIER CLUB RAISERS.

Enter Your Name On Our List at Once and Win One of the Premiums Offered. Hundreds of Dollars will be Distributed in Presents During the Next Few Weeks.

In arranging this contest we have endeavored to offer a reward to workers sufficient to make them enthusiastic and at the same time make the work of securing subscribers easy, so they could not fail to win prizes. Every one who pays one dollar IN ADVANCE will get free with THE COURIER one of these papers one year, the Woman's Magazine, The Metropolitan and Rural Home, The Southern Agriculturist, or the Farm and Fireside for one year. This contest begins NOW and will close July 1, 1906. The person who sends us the largest number of subscriptions during that time will receive as a prize a handsome National Sewing Machine, which sells for $65.00.

To the person who sends in the second largest list of subscribers we will give a Champion New Home Sewing Machine, price $65.00.

To the person who obtains for us the third largest list of subscribers we will give one Carolina Cook Stove with "B" list with pipe, including full and complete cooking outfit which sells everywhere for $18.00. This stove is on exhibition at the Lewis & Winslow Hardware Company.

To the person sending us the fourth largest list we will give a genuine American movement ladies' watch made by the New York Standard Watch Company, fitted in a gold filled hunting case, warranted for 20 years. It is a stem-winder and stem-setter, and in every way a reliable time keeper. Each case is handsomely engraved.

To the worker who sends us the fifth largest list we will give a watch with movement like the foregoing description except a ten year guarantee case.

To the person sending us the sixth largest list we will give a pair of Queen Quality Shoes worth $3.50. These shoes are on exhibition at Messrs Wood & Morning's Store.

The person sending us the seventh largest list will receive a pair of the celebrated White House Patent Leather Blucher Ladies' Shoes worth 3.50. These shoes can be seen at anytime at the Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co's Store.

The person sending us the eighth largest list will receive a pair of the popular Woman's College Walking Shoes, worth 3.50. It can be seen at Mr W J Miller's store.

The worker sending us the ninth largest subscription list we will give free a beautiful 52-piece porcelain breakfast set.

To the person sending us the tenth largest subscriptions we will give a handsome water set worth $6.50.

The person sending us the eleventh largest list of subscribers will receive a 14-piece combination American Beauty Rose silver set, consisting of 1 dozen Tea Spoons, Sugar Shell and Butter Knife to match, pure coin silver plated over nickel plate on hard metal base, packed in fancy box.

Every dollar sent we count one subscription. It will take two fifty cent subscribers to count one subscription in the contest.

Now here are the "sure things" prizes—those you KNOW you can get whether you win one of the other prizes or not.

To every person sending us twelve subscribers at one time with twelve dollars, we will give a handsome water set the best made, or, if you prefer, a set of genuine Rodgers knives and forks, either of these sell anywhere for $5.00 to $6.00. Or to any person, who will send us 18 subscriptions with $18.00, we will send both these premiums.

But that is not all, we make another offer that every body can get and that is that every worker, who will send us six subscriptions at one time accompanied by $6.00, we will give a fine porcelain, 30 piece breakfast set or for five subscriptions we will give a handsome stereoscope and 48 colored scenes from all parts of the world. This breakfast set never sold for less than $4.00 and it is worth $6.00 anywhere and the stereoscope and views are worth fully as much as the breakfast set, or if any worker will send us 10 subscriptions accompanied by $10, we will send both these handsome premiums.

We know you will wonder how we can make such a remarkable offer. To be frank with you we couldn't if we did not know from experience that three-fourths of the new subscribers obtained in this way will be turned into regular subscribers at the end of the year.

We are paying you handsomely simply to get them started for us. The merit of the paper itself will do the rest and in the long run we will make a profit and you will be doing your community a good turn by inducing the people to read a paper which teaches them how to make more money from their farms and in various occupations.

To everyone who sends us as much as $100.00 for subscriptions and job work together we will give a Champion New Home Sewing Machine.

Any young man who wants a pair of "Keiths Konqueror" shoes, or a pair of celebrated King Bee shoe, or a pair of Crossett's best shoes, each and every pair sells for $5.00 the world over, or if you want free the best railroad watch ever made you can learn how to get them free by getting subscriptions or job work for THE COURIER.

Now the facts are all before you and the contest is on. DON'T WAIT UNTIL TO-MORROW TO BEGIN WORK. Start now and keep it up, if you want one of the big prizes. We will send you sample copies, if you ask for them, but we do not furnish receipts and subscription blanks except direct to the subscribers upon receipt of the list and amount enclosed. An ordinary piece of paper will do. Don't send stamps. Put the silver dimes in an envelope and fold it up and put in another envelope which bears the stamp and address and they will not be lost. Address all letters to THE COURIER, Asheboro, N. C.

A VIGOROUS PROTEST.

The Labor Leaders Memorialize the Republicans.

The memorial of the labor organizations of the country to President Roosevelt, Speaker Cannon and the presiding officer of the senate for remedial legislation and relief from conditions about which organized labor complains is one of the greatest political events of this generation. In effect it declares that if no relief is granted the American Federation of Labor will discard its non-political garb and will enter upon the nonpartisan plan of uniting the votes of all its members against those politicians of all parties who have refused or neglected to vote for the legislation labor demands and who have voted for such legislation as the repeal of the eight hour bill in Panama. It will also mass all its voters for those candidates of either party who have proved friendly.

The plan to be followed is to question those candidates whose position on labor legislation has not been disclosed and combine the labor vote on those who pledge themselves favorably. That will be a pretty tough proposition for many Republican candidates, who rely upon the Manufacturers' association for campaign funds, for the written pledges of candidates will be published, and their usual plan of promising everything to everybody will hardly answer.

There was a test vote taken in the house of representatives on Jan. 26, which will be found recorded on page 1,592 of the Congressional Record of the present session of congress on the question of repealing the application of the eight hour law to alien labor employed on the isthmian canal. The Republicans voted unanimously for the repeal and the Democrats solidly against the extension of the hours of work. That vote is one of the questions raised in the memorial of the American Federation of Labor.

The Republican managers reported a special rule, to be adopted without debate, to force this repeal of the eight hour law as an amendment to the urgent deficiency bill, and the labor side of this outrageous action was well stated by Mr. Underwood of Alabama, who said:

"You are depriving the great laboring vote of the United States of the opportunity to come before the appropriate committee and give their evidence as to why this proposition should not be adopted and why it is detrimental to the labor conditions of this country if they desire to do so, and I can say to you I know they do desire to do so. * * * You say that this relates to alien labor. One might be led to believe that you did not know anything about the principles on which the contentions for the eight hour law are founded when you state that proposition. Is not the alien laborer the competitor of American labor as any other American laborer? If you want to keep up the standards of American labor, must you not keep up the standard of his competitors? If you pull down the standard of the competitor of American labor and open the field for his competitor down must come the standard of American labor with it of necessity."

And John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, said: "I said some time ago that the time would come when one more drop would overflow the cup of your insolence and your triumph. This is about the drop that will do it. You talk about being peculiarly the party representing American labor within the American Union. I notice you always represent it in such a manner as that the American capitalist may collect the returns, and whenever there is a chance for you to stab American labor under the fifth rib you stab it, and this is one of the chances you have had lately, and you are stabbing now."

So here is a concrete case where the Republican leaders refused to allow the representatives of organized labor to even be heard in their own behalf on one of the most important questions that labor is interested in. To memorialize a Republican congress or president is only time thrown away by the labor people. For at least ten years organized labor has been begging the dominant party to pass an anti-injunction bill and other legislation, but a deaf ear has been turned to their request, although just before an election the house once or twice passed a bill, knowing it would be allowed to lapse in the senate.

With this record of the Republicans it is no wonder that the labor leaders have at last decided upon more strenuous action that will produce results.

A Trust Denounced. That bridge trust in Ohio that the Republicans have fostered has all the characteristics of the worst features of the sugar trust, the beef combine or any of the other octopi that the Republican party has made possible by tariff and other protective legislation. The attorney general of Ohio declared before the judiciary committee of the legislature that "I never knew of a conspiracy so infamous, so thoroughly steeped in crime, as the bridge trust."

Politics A-booming. With the president scurrying around after cabinet material and Secretary Taft appealing for help to make up his mind, the senate all mixed up on railroad rate regulation and the Republican members of the house trying to show the dear people how they love them, Washington is having all the political excitement it cares for.

Statement Proved. Judge Parker in his late speeches did not say, "I told you so," but he again expressed the opinion that the Republican party is "rotten to the core," which even President Roosevelt will now hardly deny in view of recent exposures.

THE SOUTH MUST LEAD

Invitation to Command the National Democracy.

EULOGY OF SOUTHERN STATESMEN

The Pernicious Tendencies and Baneful Corruption of the Republicans. The Country Ready to Intrust a Vigilant and Reputable Democracy With Power.

The southern states are the stronghold of Democracy, for when other sections went off into un-Democratic fields the south stood steadfast for the party of the people. Heretofore the south has been very modest, even with advice, at national conventions and has brought forward no candidates for the national nominations except in an indifferent way from the debatable border states, such as Missouri and Maryland.

The country sorely needs honesty, and Democrats must rescue the government from the party of graft, greed and scandals that now is in power. The steadfast south, whose unwavering devotion to Democratic principles has withstood the bribes and gibes of the enemy, has now been invited to lead in the reorganization of the party on the old and undisputed doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none." This invitation comes from the state that has heretofore always been dominant in dictating party policies and candidates, but is now ready to follow the lead of the south, which has hitherto been content to follow what have been considered the necessary but doubtful states.

At Charlotte, N. C., Judge Parker lately made a speech urging the south to take the lead in party management and further said:

"But the time has come when new duties and responsibilities must be undertaken by the Democrats of the south. It is more than two score years since the war closed, and your people find themselves upon the threshold of what promises to be the most remarkable business development the world has ever known within the same time and space. Some of your men have gone forth to command the highest success, in the most honorable way, in the greatest financial and commercial movements of the time; others have become the managers of great railway interests; you have developed great manufacturing enterprises, and, most difficult of all, your people, as a whole, have so maintained and increased their own position and the dominance of the country in one of the greatest products of the soil as to make them the wonder and admiration of the world.

In spite of your devotion to principle and consistency in the face of numerical importance that was predominant, in politics only have you stepped aside. From the earliest day you have sent your best men into public life. They have been at once modest, able, devoted, patriotic and honest. No jail or penitentiary has opened its hospitable doors to admit your senators, representatives or governors, nor have the officers of the law, from detectives to attorney general, been compelled to haul them into the criminal courts. In the face of this record you have not only permitted us of the north to present to you candidates for president and vice president, but you have insisted upon our doing so and have then voted for them, and that, too, when sometimes no other states did so."

After plainly presenting to the minds of his audience the Democratic disasters of the past ten years Judge Parker continued:

"When such conditions confront you why should you hesitate any longer? You have borne the heat and burden of the day. Your statesmen have demonstrated their ability not only to take care of the interests of their states and their section, but they have been the only dam against aggression at home and the threat of discredit abroad. Among them are men with the knowledge, experience, honesty and courage to represent their fellow partisans without the surrender of principle and their fellow countrymen with safety and honor.

"The time has come when the really effective Democrats of the country should be recognized and when they themselves should no longer hesitate, decline or refuse to seek or to accept those honors which are their just due for work well done. I believe firmly that it will do better, because it will at once eliminate the factions which are inevitable so long as their leaders feel that they have only to capture a few state organizations in the north, nominate their candidate and then depend upon the south to support and elect him, if possible.

"But if this course would give southern Democrats the recognition they deserve it will also put them upon their mettle. It will make it necessary for them to insist upon devotion to ideas and principles, to avoid, as their character and traditions assure, extreme policies, to keep themselves thoroughly in touch with all the elements to be found in a national and progressive party and to be ready and willing to anticipate and promote all the needs of a great country.

"If we are honest with ourselves, earnest and vigilant in the recognition of those popular needs which are both safe and Democratic and regardful of our own ideas and traditions, we shall again be entrusted with power, and we shall be ready for it. When this time comes the south ought to be, and, indeed, it must be, the one great effective force in bringing about such a happy consummation—sorely needed if our institutions are to endure inviolate."

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Is Politeness Declining?
 DEAR MR. EDITOR:—I notice, in your last issue, an interesting article on the above subject, indicating that such is the case, beyond a doubt it is true and the cause of it is not hard to locate.

We find the conditions of politeness, just as portrayed in Prof. Craven's article, in cities, towns and schools and to great extent throughout the country. Hence, no wonder the Journal that published the article be styled a refreshing exception to the general rule.

It may seem strange on first thought why the poverty-stricken poor, and the old time negroes, are the most genteel and polite of our day and race; why they really love each other most, and have a nobler opinion than those in higher life have even of their own class members.

The thing is selfishness—pure, unadulterated selfishness, that should be condemned on all occasions—in the pulpit, school room, around the fireside, on the streets, in business affairs and at every turn of life. Then pure and noble politeness will flourish like a beautiful tree planted in rich soil beside many waters. The ladies in poor little down-trodden Cuba, and even before they were free, felt alighted by our soldiers, when passed without recognition. "Como esta, bonita senorita," meaning, "How do you do, beautiful young lady," would always bring back expressions of gratitude and thanks from their hearts.

All the South has to pay for its bustling business, must never rob it of its already scanty gentility. It is the contaminating influence of greed that makes us selfish, so let us get out, clean up the trash and live more polite.

J. F. HAMILTON, Central Falls, N. C.

A Good Suggestion.
 Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Standard Drug Co., Asheboro, W. A. Underwood, Randleman.

Stereoscope Free.
 If you will send us three new subscribers during the month of May we will send you a fine stereoscope with 24 beautiful views, provided you will send us 25 cents for postage and packing.
