

EPWORTH LEAGUE. Organized at the Methodist Episcopal Church Officers Elected—Meet Every Friday Evening. A large number of young people met at the M. E. Church Sunday and perfected the organization of the Epworth League with the following officers: President—Rev. N. E. Richardson. Secretary—Herbert Slack. Treasurer—Grady Miller. First Vice President—Jesse Scarborough, who will have charge of the devotional department. Second Vice President—Miss Bessie Coffin, in charge of the Department of Charity and Help. Third Vice President—Miss Mamie Richardson, in charge of the Literary Department. Fourth Vice President—Miss Nannie Balla, in charge of the Missionary Department. Miss Corinna Auman was elected organist and Miss Esther Auman agent for the Epworth Era, the organ of the league. Devotional meetings will be held every Friday night at 8 o'clock at the church and after the devotional meeting on each first Friday in the month a regular business meeting will be held.

DAVIS STILL FREE. Identity of Prisoner Captured in Forsyth Not Yet Established—Suspect Captured in South Carolina. Charles Whitt, a negro, was arrested last week at Salisbury, N. C. He was charged with the murder of W. A. Wiggins, at Salisbury, but investigation has failed to establish the identity of the prisoner. Solicitor W. C. Hammer and two witnesses, Eldridge Soules, an intelligent deaf mute of Salisbury, and Sallie H. H., a colored woman who conducts a boarding house near the depot in Salisbury, and with whom the negro who killed Mr. Wiggins and a woman who passed as his wife, stopped on Saturday night before the murder was committed next day, went to Winston Tuesday where the prisoner in jail. Both witnesses testified that the prisoner whose home is in Salisbury was not in their opinion, the murderer. However, the officers of Forsyth county will hold Whitt until his release is authorized by either the sheriff of Rowan or the solicitor. Sheriff Julian, of Rowan, was notified Tuesday that another suspect was under arrest at Conway, S. C.

DELMAR, THE nine-year-old son of Hilliard Hill, who shot himself Monday evening while playing with a pistol at the home of his father at Naomi Mills at Randleman, died Wednesday from injuries received.

FRANKLINVILLE HIGH SCHOOL. Commencement Exercises Will Open Friday Night—Asheboro Band Expected. The commencement exercises of the Randleman Graded Schools will begin Sunday, June 3rd. On that day the baccalaureate service will be preached by Rev. A. L. Powers, pastor of First Baptist church, High Point, N. C. Tuesday, June 5th, closing exercises. The exercises begin at 10 a. m. E. D. Broadhurst, of Greensboro, will make an educational address at 11:30. The exercises will close with an opera given Tuesday evening at 8:30.

ROBBERY AT TARBOLO, N. C. Alleged, occurred at Tarboro, N. C. The arrest was made by Sheriff Karp and Deputy Phelan, of Columbus. Extrajudicial papers have been prepared and will be taken to North Carolina for trial.

ROOSEVELT CHANGES. South Carolina Senator Again Attacks President Roosevelt. CHARGES HIM WITH BAD FAITH. Chief Executive Disphers Bold Front for Highway Rate Legislation but Concludes by Changing Position on the Crisis.

FOR DAYS the Senate chamber at Washington has been the scene of an animated debate on the Hepburn railroad rate bill. It has been sifted thoroughly and after several days of hard fighting it had reached a point where the people's wishes could be recognized. Then came a "slump" the cause of which was revealed by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Saturday. Senator Tillman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his action during the debate in allowing himself to surrender to the anti-railroad-rate gang.

THE CHARGES so alarmed the President that he immediately phoned the senate branding the statement as false. Positive testimony in the prosecution will be presented, soon, however. Thos. J. Pence, writing to the News & Observer says: The change of bad faith against President with reference to the rate bill, which was made with many evidences of circumstantial proof Saturday gave the staid old Senate a sensation such as it has not known in a long while.

EVERY MAN in Washington, who is the least informed, knows that Roosevelt surrendered to the Aldrich crowd in the Senate at the very moment that an effective rate bill had secured a sufficient number of votes to guarantee its passage. The proof was not expected so soon, but your Uncle Ben Tillman sharpened his bludgeon, and did the job in such a fashion as to carry dismay to the President's friends.

THE PRESIDENT does not deny and cannot deny that he favored the Bailey amendment as the most desirable of the many proposed up until a few days prior to his surrender. Ex Senator Chandler's word is not necessary to corroborate this statement, for Mr. Roosevelt so expressed himself to a score of Democrats who called at the White House. But as the old saying goes in North Carolina there is a lie out, and it is between the President, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler. Tonight Chandler is with Senator Tillman at his home, and declines to be interviewed. There is the best of authority for saying that the ex-Senator read and approved the statement made by Senator Tillman before it was read in the State.

OWENS STILL LIVES. Rowan Farmer's Wounds Have Not Yet Proved Fatal—Hope of Recovery. John Owens, of Rowan county, who was stabbed by Chas. Brady, with his father, Jas. A. Brady, as accomplice, is still living and the physician attending says the chances for recovery are good. Brady's father was given a preliminary hearing under habeas corpus at Salisbury Saturday and was placed under a $2,500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the developments in the condition of their victim. Owens' injuries are most serious, ugly wounds appearing on the breast, sides and head. The knife entered the left breast cutting off a part of the lung.

PLANTED MANY COLORS. Mr. Julius J. White has been appointed postmaster at Trinity, to succeed Miss Amanda Leach, who recently died. Mr. White was once a Democrat and was in the Senate of 1889. He came to the surface on the Alliance wave. While in the Legislature he voted against the establishment of the corporation commission. This put an end to his political career as a Democrat. He was afterwards elected as a Fusionist and was known in the legislature as a Pritchard Populist. He was appointed postmaster at Trinity over the application of a most excellent lady, who was supported by a petition from a large majority of the patrons of the office.

ROOSEVELT CHANGES. South Carolina Senator Again Attacks President Roosevelt. CHARGES HIM WITH BAD FAITH. Chief Executive Disphers Bold Front for Highway Rate Legislation but Concludes by Changing Position on the Crisis.

FOR DAYS the Senate chamber at Washington has been the scene of an animated debate on the Hepburn railroad rate bill. It has been sifted thoroughly and after several days of hard fighting it had reached a point where the people's wishes could be recognized. Then came a "slump" the cause of which was revealed by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Saturday. Senator Tillman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his action during the debate in allowing himself to surrender to the anti-railroad-rate gang.

THE CHARGES so alarmed the President that he immediately phoned the senate branding the statement as false. Positive testimony in the prosecution will be presented, soon, however. Thos. J. Pence, writing to the News & Observer says: The change of bad faith against President with reference to the rate bill, which was made with many evidences of circumstantial proof Saturday gave the staid old Senate a sensation such as it has not known in a long while.

EVERY MAN in Washington, who is the least informed, knows that Roosevelt surrendered to the Aldrich crowd in the Senate at the very moment that an effective rate bill had secured a sufficient number of votes to guarantee its passage. The proof was not expected so soon, but your Uncle Ben Tillman sharpened his bludgeon, and did the job in such a fashion as to carry dismay to the President's friends.

THE PRESIDENT does not deny and cannot deny that he favored the Bailey amendment as the most desirable of the many proposed up until a few days prior to his surrender. Ex Senator Chandler's word is not necessary to corroborate this statement, for Mr. Roosevelt so expressed himself to a score of Democrats who called at the White House. But as the old saying goes in North Carolina there is a lie out, and it is between the President, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler. Tonight Chandler is with Senator Tillman at his home, and declines to be interviewed. There is the best of authority for saying that the ex-Senator read and approved the statement made by Senator Tillman before it was read in the State.

OWENS STILL LIVES. Rowan Farmer's Wounds Have Not Yet Proved Fatal—Hope of Recovery. John Owens, of Rowan county, who was stabbed by Chas. Brady, with his father, Jas. A. Brady, as accomplice, is still living and the physician attending says the chances for recovery are good. Brady's father was given a preliminary hearing under habeas corpus at Salisbury Saturday and was placed under a $2,500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the developments in the condition of their victim. Owens' injuries are most serious, ugly wounds appearing on the breast, sides and head. The knife entered the left breast cutting off a part of the lung.

PLANTED MANY COLORS. Mr. Julius J. White has been appointed postmaster at Trinity, to succeed Miss Amanda Leach, who recently died. Mr. White was once a Democrat and was in the Senate of 1889. He came to the surface on the Alliance wave. While in the Legislature he voted against the establishment of the corporation commission. This put an end to his political career as a Democrat. He was afterwards elected as a Fusionist and was known in the legislature as a Pritchard Populist. He was appointed postmaster at Trinity over the application of a most excellent lady, who was supported by a petition from a large majority of the patrons of the office.

ROOSEVELT CHANGES. South Carolina Senator Again Attacks President Roosevelt. CHARGES HIM WITH BAD FAITH. Chief Executive Disphers Bold Front for Highway Rate Legislation but Concludes by Changing Position on the Crisis.

FOR DAYS the Senate chamber at Washington has been the scene of an animated debate on the Hepburn railroad rate bill. It has been sifted thoroughly and after several days of hard fighting it had reached a point where the people's wishes could be recognized. Then came a "slump" the cause of which was revealed by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Saturday. Senator Tillman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his action during the debate in allowing himself to surrender to the anti-railroad-rate gang.

THE CHARGES so alarmed the President that he immediately phoned the senate branding the statement as false. Positive testimony in the prosecution will be presented, soon, however. Thos. J. Pence, writing to the News & Observer says: The change of bad faith against President with reference to the rate bill, which was made with many evidences of circumstantial proof Saturday gave the staid old Senate a sensation such as it has not known in a long while.

EVERY MAN in Washington, who is the least informed, knows that Roosevelt surrendered to the Aldrich crowd in the Senate at the very moment that an effective rate bill had secured a sufficient number of votes to guarantee its passage. The proof was not expected so soon, but your Uncle Ben Tillman sharpened his bludgeon, and did the job in such a fashion as to carry dismay to the President's friends.

THE PRESIDENT does not deny and cannot deny that he favored the Bailey amendment as the most desirable of the many proposed up until a few days prior to his surrender. Ex Senator Chandler's word is not necessary to corroborate this statement, for Mr. Roosevelt so expressed himself to a score of Democrats who called at the White House. But as the old saying goes in North Carolina there is a lie out, and it is between the President, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler. Tonight Chandler is with Senator Tillman at his home, and declines to be interviewed. There is the best of authority for saying that the ex-Senator read and approved the statement made by Senator Tillman before it was read in the State.

OWENS STILL LIVES. Rowan Farmer's Wounds Have Not Yet Proved Fatal—Hope of Recovery. John Owens, of Rowan county, who was stabbed by Chas. Brady, with his father, Jas. A. Brady, as accomplice, is still living and the physician attending says the chances for recovery are good. Brady's father was given a preliminary hearing under habeas corpus at Salisbury Saturday and was placed under a $2,500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the developments in the condition of their victim. Owens' injuries are most serious, ugly wounds appearing on the breast, sides and head. The knife entered the left breast cutting off a part of the lung.

PLANTED MANY COLORS. Mr. Julius J. White has been appointed postmaster at Trinity, to succeed Miss Amanda Leach, who recently died. Mr. White was once a Democrat and was in the Senate of 1889. He came to the surface on the Alliance wave. While in the Legislature he voted against the establishment of the corporation commission. This put an end to his political career as a Democrat. He was afterwards elected as a Fusionist and was known in the legislature as a Pritchard Populist. He was appointed postmaster at Trinity over the application of a most excellent lady, who was supported by a petition from a large majority of the patrons of the office.

ROOSEVELT CHANGES. South Carolina Senator Again Attacks President Roosevelt. CHARGES HIM WITH BAD FAITH. Chief Executive Disphers Bold Front for Highway Rate Legislation but Concludes by Changing Position on the Crisis.

FOR DAYS the Senate chamber at Washington has been the scene of an animated debate on the Hepburn railroad rate bill. It has been sifted thoroughly and after several days of hard fighting it had reached a point where the people's wishes could be recognized. Then came a "slump" the cause of which was revealed by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Saturday. Senator Tillman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his action during the debate in allowing himself to surrender to the anti-railroad-rate gang.

THE CHARGES so alarmed the President that he immediately phoned the senate branding the statement as false. Positive testimony in the prosecution will be presented, soon, however. Thos. J. Pence, writing to the News & Observer says: The change of bad faith against President with reference to the rate bill, which was made with many evidences of circumstantial proof Saturday gave the staid old Senate a sensation such as it has not known in a long while.

EVERY MAN in Washington, who is the least informed, knows that Roosevelt surrendered to the Aldrich crowd in the Senate at the very moment that an effective rate bill had secured a sufficient number of votes to guarantee its passage. The proof was not expected so soon, but your Uncle Ben Tillman sharpened his bludgeon, and did the job in such a fashion as to carry dismay to the President's friends.

THE PRESIDENT does not deny and cannot deny that he favored the Bailey amendment as the most desirable of the many proposed up until a few days prior to his surrender. Ex Senator Chandler's word is not necessary to corroborate this statement, for Mr. Roosevelt so expressed himself to a score of Democrats who called at the White House. But as the old saying goes in North Carolina there is a lie out, and it is between the President, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler. Tonight Chandler is with Senator Tillman at his home, and declines to be interviewed. There is the best of authority for saying that the ex-Senator read and approved the statement made by Senator Tillman before it was read in the State.

OWENS STILL LIVES. Rowan Farmer's Wounds Have Not Yet Proved Fatal—Hope of Recovery. John Owens, of Rowan county, who was stabbed by Chas. Brady, with his father, Jas. A. Brady, as accomplice, is still living and the physician attending says the chances for recovery are good. Brady's father was given a preliminary hearing under habeas corpus at Salisbury Saturday and was placed under a $2,500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the developments in the condition of their victim. Owens' injuries are most serious, ugly wounds appearing on the breast, sides and head. The knife entered the left breast cutting off a part of the lung.

PLANTED MANY COLORS. Mr. Julius J. White has been appointed postmaster at Trinity, to succeed Miss Amanda Leach, who recently died. Mr. White was once a Democrat and was in the Senate of 1889. He came to the surface on the Alliance wave. While in the Legislature he voted against the establishment of the corporation commission. This put an end to his political career as a Democrat. He was afterwards elected as a Fusionist and was known in the legislature as a Pritchard Populist. He was appointed postmaster at Trinity over the application of a most excellent lady, who was supported by a petition from a large majority of the patrons of the office.

ROOSEVELT CHANGES. South Carolina Senator Again Attacks President Roosevelt. CHARGES HIM WITH BAD FAITH. Chief Executive Disphers Bold Front for Highway Rate Legislation but Concludes by Changing Position on the Crisis.

FOR DAYS the Senate chamber at Washington has been the scene of an animated debate on the Hepburn railroad rate bill. It has been sifted thoroughly and after several days of hard fighting it had reached a point where the people's wishes could be recognized. Then came a "slump" the cause of which was revealed by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Saturday. Senator Tillman severely arraigned President Roosevelt for his action during the debate in allowing himself to surrender to the anti-railroad-rate gang.

THE CHARGES so alarmed the President that he immediately phoned the senate branding the statement as false. Positive testimony in the prosecution will be presented, soon, however. Thos. J. Pence, writing to the News & Observer says: The change of bad faith against President with reference to the rate bill, which was made with many evidences of circumstantial proof Saturday gave the staid old Senate a sensation such as it has not known in a long while.

EVERY MAN in Washington, who is the least informed, knows that Roosevelt surrendered to the Aldrich crowd in the Senate at the very moment that an effective rate bill had secured a sufficient number of votes to guarantee its passage. The proof was not expected so soon, but your Uncle Ben Tillman sharpened his bludgeon, and did the job in such a fashion as to carry dismay to the President's friends.

THE PRESIDENT does not deny and cannot deny that he favored the Bailey amendment as the most desirable of the many proposed up until a few days prior to his surrender. Ex Senator Chandler's word is not necessary to corroborate this statement, for Mr. Roosevelt so expressed himself to a score of Democrats who called at the White House. But as the old saying goes in North Carolina there is a lie out, and it is between the President, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler. Tonight Chandler is with Senator Tillman at his home, and declines to be interviewed. There is the best of authority for saying that the ex-Senator read and approved the statement made by Senator Tillman before it was read in the State.

OWENS STILL LIVES. Rowan Farmer's Wounds Have Not Yet Proved Fatal—Hope of Recovery. John Owens, of Rowan county, who was stabbed by Chas. Brady, with his father, Jas. A. Brady, as accomplice, is still living and the physician attending says the chances for recovery are good. Brady's father was given a preliminary hearing under habeas corpus at Salisbury Saturday and was placed under a $2,500 bond, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the developments in the condition of their victim. Owens' injuries are most serious, ugly wounds appearing on the breast, sides and head. The knife entered the left breast cutting off a part of the lung.

PLANTED MANY COLORS. Mr. Julius J. White has been appointed postmaster at Trinity, to succeed Miss Amanda Leach, who recently died. Mr. White was once a Democrat and was in the Senate of 1889. He came to the surface on the Alliance wave. While in the Legislature he voted against the establishment of the corporation commission. This put an end to his political career as a Democrat. He was afterwards elected as a Fusionist and was known in the legislature as a Pritchard Populist. He was appointed postmaster at Trinity over the application of a most excellent lady, who was supported by a petition from a large majority of the patrons of the office.