THE OLDEST MASON.

Mr. L. L. Thomas, Paid Asheboro and the Country's Visit Last Week.

Mr. L. L. Thomas, well known in this section of the state, having been for years associated with several newspapers as collector and solicitor, was in Asheboro last week. Mr. Thomas is 88 years of age, but is still as buoyant as ten years ago.

He paid THE COURIER a pleasant visit and proved a very interesting talker. He knows everybody and everybody knows him.

Among other things Mr. Thomas showed a watch which he has carried for years and he says it kept the time for the first train to be operated on the North Carolina Railroad.

In 1844 Mr. Thomas was married to Miss Malin, a Bernie, a sister of the late Elzevan Bernie, who died a short while ago, and he recently married his second wife in Davidson county, aged 32 years.

The "young gentleman" that arrived at Mr. W. Moffitt's seems to be the pet of the family.

It is not easy to straighten in the oak the crook that grew in the sapling.—From the Gaelic.

DIED.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich, died Saturday night about 11 o'clock after an illness of two weeks. The little one suffered with spinal meningitis. The funeral was held at Charlotte church Monday morning.

Nina, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rich, of South Asheboro, was born June 9, 1904, and fell asleep May 20, 1906.

It is natural for parents to regard their own children as lovable and winning, but it is the common verdict of all who knew Nina that she was unusually sweet and lovable. Counted by our imperfect way of reckoning time, her stay on earth was brief, but who can tell but what she has lived more than some who reach their three score years and ten. The sweet influences set in motion by her beautiful and tender child life will bless the world and leave no corroding care to spoil the holy aspirations awakened in the lives of all who loved her so.

We laid her to rest in the cemetery of Charlotte Methodist Protestant church, where many gathered to take part in the last rites, and left her little body to rest beneath a fragrant pillow of flowers, while the gentle sunshine kissed into beauty the little mound where she sleeps. That spot is sacred to the sorrowing parents and God also will watch her sacred dust.

Life is not now what it was before, but as we come so near the trembling veil that obscures the great beyond we almost hear the rustle of a wing, and the straining eye can almost see the "Loved one in Glory looking this way." The warmest sympathy of the entire community goes out to these dear parents in sorrow, but it is a joy to know that while our eyes are dimmed by tears to-day, Nina is beholding the beauties of heaven in the light of the "unclouded day."

May the consolations of the grace of God sustain the parents and all who so keenly feel the loss.

W. G. Davis, a prominent citizen of Ophir township in Montgomery county, died May 13th, 1906, after an illness of several months of cancer on the face. Mr. Davis had been to Baltimore on two different occasions and had surgical operations performed, but the cancer returned and Mr. Davis lost all hope and gave up in despair. His age was 61 years. He was a prominent citizen and a brave Confederate soldier.

Mrs. M. L. Betts died suddenly last Friday at her home at Salisbury from heart disease. She is the mother of Messrs. Clarence and Paul Betts, and a sister of L. E. Heilig, of Salisbury, C. G. Heilig, of Mt. Pleasant, Lewis H. Heilig, of Concord, George J. Heilig, of Jonesboro, Ill., and Mrs. S. H. Heane, of Albemarle, and Mrs. Grace G. Hall, of Magnolia, Miss.

"Mrs. Betts was decending the steps of the front porch at her home when she swooned but before consciousness left her stepped to the ground and fell upon the lawn.

Gaines Cornelius Wittingham, aged 25 years, 1 month and 9 days, died at the residence of his father, J. L. Wittingham, in Greensboro, N. C. at eight o'clock May 16, 1906.

Mr. Wittingham had been in bad health over a year. Last September while on his way to Hot Springs, Arkansas he had the misfortune to get his foot cut off by the train at High Point and the limb had to be amputated just below the knee. Not being able to take proper exercise since he contracted tuberculosis which resulted in his death.

Before his illness he was book-keeper and assistant to his father in his business.

Since his accident he was never heard to utter a complaint or an impatient word about his sufferings and he often expressed himself as being ready for death or life just whichever God saw best for him.

He leaves a young wife, father, mother, two brothers and three sisters.

He was a member of West Market Street church and in the absence of his pastor the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Harold Turner, assisted by Rev. T. A. Bell and Rev. R. M. Andrews, his wife's pastor, from the family residence. "Abide with Me" and "Asleep in Jesus" were sung by a quartette and Miss Kate Vance gave very touchingly rendered "The Home of The Soul." He was laid to rest in Greenhill Cemetery. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

Mrs. Allen Dead.

Last Sunday night May 20, Mrs. Sally Allen died at the home of her son, Mr. William Allen, near Eleazer. Mrs. Allen had been ill for some time from cancer. She was the wife of Daniel Allen, deceased. Mrs. Allen leaves five sons and one daughter, a number of grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn their loss. The remains were laid at rest in the Pisgah cemetery.

Albert Jordan, who has been in Atlanta for sometime will return to Liberty this week where he has a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burns, of High Point, spent Wednesday in town with Capt. A. E. Burns.

To Advertisers.

THE COURIER has spent large sums of money in working up its circulation and to-day it thoroughly covers Randolph and adjoining counties besides having a large list throughout this and other states. But we are working to build up Randolph county and the Piedmont section of North Carolina.

To this end we have built our circulation, that our advertisers and the community might secure the greater publicity. We have improved our plant and enlarged our paper—all of which necessarily increases expenses.

Hence this article notifying our advertisers that after March 1st, 1906, the advertising rate is as follows:

Per inch one time 25c
" " " month per issue 20c
" " " two months " " 15c
" " " six " and over " " 10c

Reading notices will be charged at the rate of one cent per word. No reader accepted for less than 25c. All bills payable monthly.

Our circulation is not made up of dead heads and exchanges, but paying subscribers, who send us the cash for their subscription. Few are more than six months in arrears and many are paid in advance. This shows that we circulate among a prosperous people—the class that advertisers desire to reach.

THE COURIER appreciates the patronage accorded it in the past and pledges every effort to give value received for future business placed with it.

THE COURIER clubs are becoming popular. It is not much trouble to get subscribers for THE COURIER. Everybody wants it and almost everybody in this section is a subscriber or intends to become one. Let the good work go on.
