THE COURIER failed to say last week that the prize catch made by the party who spent the day with Mr. S. W. Kivett on Caraway fishing was a seven pound redhorse.

The Asheboro Band will give their minstrel show at Franklinville June 2nd instead of June 5th as announced last week. The boys have a good show and will be given a large house.

Miss Ora M. Cox, of Greensboro, who has been teaching in the Apostolic Holiness Bible School there, passed through Thursday on her way home to attend the Friends' Quarterly Meeting at Holly Springs.

Mr. L. L. Thomas, "The oldest Mason in North Carolina," was in Asheboro last week. He says the statement made by a Winston-Salem paper that he was married recently to a young woman 32 years old is an error. THE COURIER gladly corrects the mistake.

Attention is called to the new advertisements of the Wachovia Loan and Trust Company, of High Point; the Asheboro Department Store; Stieff Pianos; H. C. Wilmoth, of Charlotte and McCrary-Redding Hardware Store, of Asheboro.

THE COURIER clubs are becoming popular. It is not much trouble to get subscribers for THE COURIER. Everybody wants it and almost everybody in this section is a subscriber or intends to become one. Let the good work go on.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis, of Farmer, were visitors in Asheboro Tuesday. Mrs. Lewis brought the COURIER ten dollars in subscription and receives two of the premiums—one the breakfast set. We thank her very much for the interest taken in the paper which our force is sparing nothing in an effort to make it the best paper of Piedmont Carolina.

Mr. Geo. D. B. Reynolds, of Troy, was here Saturday enroute to Why Not to attend commencement. It is reported that Mr Reynolds has aspirations which will probably make him a candidate for the nomination for Congress on the Republican ticket.

WHY NOT ACADEMY.

D. F. Hulin Awarded Declaimers' Medal, Miss Beane, the Young Ladies' Medal and Miss Biggs the Primary Department Medal.

The closing exercises of Why Not Academy and Business Institute were held on Thursday, May 24th. Long before 10 o'clock a vast concourse of people had assembled on the grounds to witness these exercises. Many of the citizens claim that the crowd was the largest ever seen here on such an occasion. It was a charming day, and the order was exceptionally good for such a large crowd of people.

There were three contests for gold medals, given by the Principal. The one given to the children was won by little Miss Maggie Biggs; the one to the young ladies was won by Miss Ina Beane; and the declaimers' medal was won by Mr. D. F. Hulin.

The students all did well in their recitations and declamations, reflecting honor and credit on themselves and teachers.

John T. Brittain, Esq., of Asheboro, delivered the address. His subject was, "Education from a Financial Standpoint." He handled the subject well, setting forth many examples to prove that education pays financially as well as mentally, morally and religiously. Many compliments were passed upon his speech.

Mr. W. A. Cochran, of Troy, presented the children's medal; Mr. G. D. B. Reynolds, of the same town, in a speech of appropriate and well-chosen words, presented the young ladies' medal; and Mr. J. T. Brittain, in a speech of sound and wholesome advice, presented the young men's medal.

On the whole, the commencement was a success. We would not forget to mention the social gathering at night. This was greatly enjoyed by the young people, and older ones, too.

The Moffit String Band furnished the music for the commencement exercises and social, which added much to the pleasures of the occasion.

The year just closed has been a very successful one, with the exception of about two months in the Spring Term, at which time measles and whooping cough affected the school very much, causing many to draw out, and preventing many others from entering.

The Fall Term will begin August the 6th, 1906.
