

NORTH CAROLINA LEADS.

In Capital Invested and an Increase in Wages Paid.

North Carolina takes the lead in the investment of capital in manufacturing enterprises since 1900. Where there was $68,000,000 invested in 1900, there is now engaged in manufacturing industries over the State the sum of $131,000,000, showing an increase of 106 per cent. The total amount of wages paid out was increased $7,000,000, and where the cost of materials used in 1900 was $44,000,000, last year it amounted to $80,000,000. Some figures are given of Connecticut, and show that her increase in capital invested is only 24 per cent. New Hampshire shows only an 18 per cent increase. Alabama, on the other hand, shows her capital to have increased in the five years by 75 per cent. Virginia is below her sister Southern States with an increase of only 60 per cent. South Carolina shows an increase of 80 per cent. These figures are significant in showing that the trend of capital is working its way South and at a rate which indicates that in a few years the Southern States will rank with New England in manufacturing. Factories for common goods rank first in the South, with tobacco second; lumber and timber products third, with flour and grist mill products fourth.

MOORE COUNTY

Brown Wilson Killed by Train—Presbyterian Sunday School Institute Organized.

The Carriage Blade

Mr. Brown Wilson who lived about two miles from Lakeview was killed by a train Wednesday at the railroad crossing in Lakeview. Mr. Wilson could not hear very well and as there is a curve in the road did not see the train in time to save his life.

A committee has been ordered to organize permanently a farmer's institute for Moore county.

Henry O. Black, brother of Miss Ida Black, formerly assistant postmistress at Carthage, accidentally killed himself at Columbia, Texas last week.

Miss Julie Melver, daughter of Judge A. W. Melver of Caldwell, Texas, arrived here last week on a visit to her uncle, Judge James D. Melver.

The Moore county Presbyterian Sunday School Institute was organized Tuesday with the following officers: Moderator, A. F. Seawell, of Jonesboro; Vice Moderator, M. A. McLeod, Broadway; Secretary, Miss Jennie McKee, Jessup; Treasurer, Miss Alma Melver, Carthage. The next meeting will be held at Cameron.

LIFE WAS NOT WORTH LIVING, BUT—

Shelby, N. C., April 30, 1902. I had been a severe sufferer from nervous prostration for two years, and everything I ate disagreed with me. This made me feel so wretched and had all the time, that life was a burden and I felt that I had rather die than live. I could not eat meat or any solid food at all, and everything I did eat caused me to suffer. I had terrible nervous spells, when I would become cold and feel almost lifeless—then hot baths would have to be applied. I suffered from gas on the stomach all the time, and was so weak I didn't do any work for twelve months. Nothing I tried did me any good.

I was in that condition last July, when Mrs. Joe Person called to see me and said everything she could to persuade me to try her Remedy, as she was confident it would cure me. I bought a half dozen bottles and felt a great deal better by the time I had taken the third. I continued it until I took 18 bottles which CURED me. My indigestion is well, I can eat anything I want, and it is very seldom I ever have a touch of nervousness. My health is good, and life itself seems like a different thing to me and well worth living. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 105 pounds, now I weigh 140 pounds which was my natural weight before I was taken sick.

If any one suffers from indigestion or nervous prostration they need not hesitate to try the Remedy. I would not take any amount of money for what it did for me.

Mrs. J. D. Brevard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Trotter of Greensboro are entertaining a house party at Piedmont Springs. Among those comprising the party are Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith, of Troy; Misses Hester Allen and Maggie Wright, of Troy; Miss Lula Tatt, of Mt. Gilead; Mr. C. H. Grantham, of Greensboro; and Mr. Stanley Archer of Richmond.

STANLEY NOTES.

Furniture Company Organized—Other Items of Interest.

Stanley Enterprise.

The Parker-Little Furniture Company has been fully incorporated and the following officers elected: M. F. Little, president; M. A. Boger, vice president; W. F. Snuggs, secretary and treasurer; A. C. Parker, general manager. These with T. S. Parker, compose the directors. Contract has been closed with L. A. Moody for a brick building 50x75 feet to be completed by December 1. The firm is a strong one and will be quite an addition to the business of the place.

The protracted meeting at Porters, conducted by Rev. G. W. Belk will begin on Thursday, July 26th.

Dr. V. A. Whitley's splendid barn burned last Thursday evening. He had stored away in it a lot of bundled oats, and the compressed heat is supposed to have caused spontaneous combustion. Considerable feed and roughage was lost, aggregating some $500.

TO HANDLE A COLT.

The First Year of a Colt's Life Fruitful of Instruction.

The first year of a colt's life should be fruitful of instruction. The colt will learn more easily when six months old than when a year old. Hence it is wise to handle the colt early. Its first training should not stop with breaking it to the halter, but should be handled until it will drive as well as lead. To teach it all this, and keep it from forgetting what it has learned, is a little trouble, but if the colt is of good stock the work is well paid for. Practice a little common sense with the young stock and note the high rate of interest coming back to you as the result of the investment.—Ex.

Roads in Columbia Township.

The Board of Supervisors will meet in Ramseur, Saturday, August 4th, at 9 o'clock a. m. Overseers are requested to not send up their orders by another person nor by mail, nor that they will keep their order another year unless the condition of their road is satisfactorily established. The terms, fairly good and passable, as applied to roads where the limit of the law as to time has not been reached, will not pass muster this year. The demand for better roads and better work on the roads, is so great that all overseers had better look well to these matters. The board will positively take no chances, nor promises of better work next year, as a set off next year returning day.

Y. M. C. Johnson, Chairman.

Things to Eat.

RASPBERRY JAM—Pick over the berries. Mash a few in the bottom of a preserving kettle, using a wooden masher, and so continue until all the fruit is used. Heat slowly to the boiling point, and add gradually an equal quantity of heated sugar. Cook slowly forty minutes and put in a stone jar or jelly tumblers.

CANNED RHUBARB—Pare the rhubarb and cut into one-inch pieces, using a silver knife. Pack solidly into a jar, put under the cold-water faucet and let the water run for twenty minutes; then adjust the cover. I have asked many chemists why rhubarb could be preserved in this manner, but have never received a satisfactory reply. As a matter of fact, I have known rhubarb so treated to keep from one rhubarb season to the next.

QUINCE JELLY—Wipe the quinces, remove the stem and blossom ends, cut in quarters and remove the seeds. Put in a graniteware preserving kettle, and add cold water to come nearly to the top of the fruit. Cover, and cook slowly until the fruit is soft. Mash and drain through a coarse sieve; then allow the juice to drip through a jellybag. Boil for twenty minutes, add an equal quantity of heated sugar, boil for five minutes, skim and turn into glasses. Let stand twenty-four hours in a light place, then cover.—Fannie Merritt Farmer in Woman's Home Companion for August.

Capt. M. S. Austin, accompanied by his nephew, Mr. Bryant Austin of Union, is the guest of his nieces, Mesdames Bastian, Lowrance and Caldwell, and other relatives. Capt. Austin was a member of the 52d N. C. Regiment, and carries an empty sleeve where his right arm used to be, a reminder of the battle of Hatchers Run at Petersburg. He came through New London, where he visited his old friend and classmate of sixty-three years ago, Capt. M. S. Parker. Capt. Austin is now 78 years of age, and a most interesting old gentleman. He moved from this county to Union in 1843, and just after the war went to Texas, where he now lives, in the northern part of the State.—Carthage Blade.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson 5—Jesus Dines With a Pharisee.—Sunday, July 20, 1902.

CHRISTIAN AMONG MEN.—THE CHRISTIAN IS WATCHED BY THE WORLD.

The wicked watcheth the righteous and seeketh to slay him. Psa. 37:32. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world therefore the world hateth you. John 15:18-19.

THE CHRISTIAN SHOULD BE THOUGHTFUL.

Behold I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. Matt. 10:16. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Eph. 5:15.

THE CHRISTIAN SHOULD DO GOOD.

Freely ye have received, freely give. Matt. 10:8. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work. 2 Cor. 9:8.

But do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Heb. 13:16.

THE CHRISTIAN SHOULD BE UNSELFISH AND HUMBLE.

The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom; and before honor is humility. Prov. 15:33. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Rom. 12:16.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant. Phil. 2:5-7.

THE CHRISTIAN SHOULD HELP THE NEEDY.

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again. Prov. 19:17.

Is this not the fast which I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Isa. 58:6-7. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Jas. 1:27.

THE CHRISTIAN'S REWARD.

For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Matt. 16:27.

Knowing that whatsoever good thing man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Eph. 6:8.

And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. Rev. 22:12.

A Political Rhyme.

Sing a song of candidates, Pocket full of smokes— Four and twenty promises, Five and fifty jokes.

Sing a song of candidates Pocket full of rye— Filled chock full of anxious ones Hungerin' after pie.

Sing a song of candidates— Whoop 'em up there boys! We're after Legislature And Senatorial joys.

The Thomasville Orphanage.

The annual report of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, published in Charity and Children by General Manager M. L. Kesler, shows some interesting facts. During the year 356 fatherless ones were cared for; 55 received into the institution, 43 discharged. Although the orphanage community passed through epidemics of whooping-cough, diphtheria and pneumonia, only two children died. The fiscal year began with a debt of $11,408, but the actual debt now is $6,819, and it would have been only about half as much had not several thousands been spent on needed improvements.

Large Fruit Growing Company.

Mr. Ralph Page, of New York, promoter of the new fruit company at Candor says the company will begin clearing the one hundred and forty acres in the next ten or fifteen days. This will make 350 acres in peaches when completed.
