A fire in the laundry department of the State Hospital for the insane at Raleigh did $1,200 damage last Wednesday. Loss fully covered by insurance.

The Steele Soap Mfg. Company is the name of a new enterprise at High Point. Its product is meeting with a ready sale.

$2,500,000 is the estimated loss to the International Exposition at Milan, Italy August 3rd. Fire broke out that morning in sections devoted to decorative arts in the center of the most attractive part of the exposition. The conflagration is supposed to be the work of disgruntled night watchmen.

Dr. G. M. Van Poole, of Rowan county, who is with the United States army in the Philippines, has recently been promoted to Captain. Dr. Poole is a surgeon of great skill and is devoted to army life. He has risen rapidly in the ranks on merit alone.

An accident to a boy in a mill at Concord last week brought to the attention of the managers the statutes against child labor and all under 14 years of age were immediately dismissed from service.

Rev. A. N. Ferguson, pastor of the Methodist church at Home of Greensboro, spent the home of his son-in-law, Sheriff W. H. McLaughlin, at Greensboro, last week. He had been pastor at Warren Hill Church for thirty-two years. The document was 29 years of age.

Mr. R. M. Phillips formerly editor of the Raleigh Post, and Secretary of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, has been unanimously elected Secretary of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce. He has handed in his resignation to the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and will in all probability accept the secretaryship of the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce though he was elected without solicitation.

IREDELL COURT.

A Heavy Docket Disposed of—Long Sentences to County Roads.
Iredell court last week was large and the docket presented some interesting cases, employing unusually strong legal talent. Three desperate criminals were sentenced to ten years on the county roads. While it is not usual to send to the county roads prisoners convicted of so grave offenses and sentenced for long terms, the fact that escapes from the penitentiary are numerous and that the prisoners would be safer, probably, on the Iredell roads, than on the penitentiary farms, Judge Ferguson decided in favor of the Iredell roads, although he warned the chain gang management that prisoners sentenced for such long terms would run at the first opportunity and that special care should be exercised in regard to them. Jim Hart, a negro charged with assault upon a young girl of his own race; John Feinster, a desperado of the Lora neighborhood and John Williams, a burglar, were each given ten years on the county roads.

CHARLOTTE CHATAUQUA.

Elaborate Preparation for Big Event at The Queen City.
Charlotte, August 8th. It is confidently expected by those interested in the Greater Charlotte Chatauqua that the September meeting will outrank all other events of the kind ever held in the State. They are determined. In doing this, they will spare no money in securing the best talent, both musical and oratorical, to be had. Rev. D. L. Reid, general manager, has made arrangements with Rev. R. Tillman, of South Carolina; Rev. George R. Stewart, the "great Southern evangelist", and Hon. John Temple Graves, editor of the Evening Georgian, of Atlanta, Ga., to attend.
He has secured the noted Daily Quartette and several widely-known soloists.

Mr. Watkins for Commissioner.
EDITOR COURIER:
I see a good many names suggested for the various county offices, except for county commissioners. This is more important to the county and to the voters than most any of the other offices, and none but strong active business men should hold this office, at least, the chairman should be a man thoroughly acquainted with business, and for one of this kind I name William H. Watkins, of Ramseur. Mr. Watkins has had large experience in the business world and he is too good a Democrat to refuse the nomination if the convention will give it to him, however, he may say that he has not the time to serve on the board, but the county needs just such men as Mr. Watkins. A nomination means his election, and the county will be safe in his hands.
Most respectfully
E. C. LASSITER.

To the Democrats of Randolph.
We, democrats in Coleridge township, have nothing to say against any opponent of Mr. S. L. Hayworth, but we think that Mr. Hayworth ought to receive the nomination for Sheriff on the first ballot, for many reasons.
He has stood by the party through thick and thin without any reward. Four years ago his friends, especially in the eastern part of the county, thought he should be elected sheriff. His name was placed before the convention and he assisted the nomination by less than one vote. He rallied to the support of the nominee and gave his time and energies for the success of the entire ticket, and he has never let up on the responsibilities since that day.
Hayworth has been tried over and over again. He is worthy and well qualified and no man in the county would make a better or more popular officer.
This section of the county has not furnished one of the county officers for many years.
Give us Hayworth for sheriff and we will spread ourselves more than ever if possible.
Yours very truly
THOS. S. GRAYES.

Endorsement for Underwood.
THE COURIER:
I wish to add my endorsement of Mr. W. A. Underwood, of Randleman, N. C., for the office of County Treasurer, to that of Messrs. H. B. Carter, of Ramseur, and H. O. Barker, of Randleman.
Mr. Underwood will, in my opinion, poll more votes in Randleman, as well as the entire County, than any man the Convention can or will put out, and its just such men as this who must receive our serious consideration at the coming Primaries; men who are strongest throughout the entire County; who are well known and who will lead the ticket in their respective Townships.
Yours very truly,
W. G. BROWN,
Randleman, N. C.
Hayworth and Way,
Coleridge, N. C.,
August 4th 1906.
Coleridge township is for S. L. Hayworth for sheriff and J. M. Way for Register of Deeds for two reasons:
First, they are true democrats who have always stood up and worked hard for the success of the party, and they are competent men for the places. There is not a blemish on the character of either, and neither of them has ever scratched a ticket. What the party needs is Democrats who have been true to the party in every instance—straight Democrats.
Second, I think there should be a new ticket. No man has ever been elected four times in succession in this county. Randolph county never had a better or more popular sheriff than E. A. Moffitt, but in making his fourth attempt to be elected sheriff he was defeated. Let past experience lead the party in choosing men this time. A good man can be run to death.
W. H. Yow.

CARBUNCLE CURED.
Three years ago my system was in such a condition that I had a succession of Boils—in all, sixteen. They were mostly between my shoulders and on my neck, though I had one bad one near my right eye. As fast as one would get well another would come and they troubled me and caused me to suffer all summer. Finally they developed into a large Carbuncle on my right shoulder—as large as the top of a teacup. My whole arm was affected and caused me much suffering. I had to carry my arm on a pillow. It was September when the Carbuncle came and for six weeks I had to be dressed three times a day. Knowing the trouble came from blood, I bought a box of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and took a half dozen bottles before I stopped, and it cured me. By the time I took the six bottles my Carbuncle was well and I have never had a touch of the trouble since.

DOING GOOD BUSINESS.

First Six Months of 1906 Were Profitable for Asheboro Enterprises.
The past month witnessed many semi-annual meetings of the stockholders and boards of directors of Asheboro industries and all report an increased and profitable business for the first six months of 1906.
The Cotton has mentioned several. Besides these the Home Building and Material Supply and the Asheboro Bobbin Company must be added. Though they take good care of their orders, still their business is growing many weeks ahead. Under the careful management of W. E. Scarborough and Superintendent J. A. Martin, the Asheboro Bobbin Company has developed a large and profitable business. Keeping in touch with the progress of the cotton industry this firm is receiving a good share of benefit from the development of cotton factories of the South. They daily receive large orders for bobbins, skewers and cleater rolls, taxing the equipment to its full capacity.
