

Local and Personal.

Miss Lambeth, of Thomasville, is visiting Mrs. Annie Robins.

Miss Nellie Spoon left yesterday for Jackson Springs.

Chas. Beasley, of Randleman, spent Sunday in Asheboro.

Dr. A. P. Staley, of High Point, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. J. P. Boroughs returned Tuesday from Jackson Springs.

Mrs. Jno. K. Wood and daughter, Etta Reid, and Miss Pattie Smith, of Raleigh, are visiting Mr. W. P. Wood in Asheboro.

Miss Lillian Bunch returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks at Greensboro and Mt. Airy.

Mrs. George Hunsucker, is visiting relatives at Randleman.

Mr. George Hunsucker, who has a position on the railroad in West Virginia is visiting his family here.

O. M. Henry is spending a few days in Asheboro.

Mrs. John Bulla and daughter, Miss Beatrice, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. W. H. Moring.

Misses Bera and Lucile Scarborough spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Star.

Mr. H. Mitchell and Miss Hassie Bean were married at High Point August 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith have rented a cottage at Jackson Springs and are there spending some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Simpson delightfully entertained a party of their friends at their home in south Asheboro on Tuesday night.

The Randleman Times says: One day last week Mr. J. T. Bostick killed a six-year-old rattler in the immediate neighborhood of his house.

Miss Etta Auman has returned to her home at Why Not after spending several weeks in Asheboro with Mrs. J. P. Boroughs.

Garland Blair is suffering with typhoid fever at Tulsa, I. T., where he has been confined in a hospital for two weeks.

Rev. F. A. Fetter, of Franklin, Va., is visiting Mrs. O. L. Sapp.

Mr. T. H. Fuller, who has been ill for several weeks we are sorry to inform his many friends, does not improve. His condition is critical.

Revenue Officer Shepherd* and Deputy Allen raided a still at Cagle's Mill Saturday, but found that the operator had learned that they were coming and had moved it out. They destroyed several hundred gallons of beer.

Mr. Percy Mendenhall is moving his family to the Burns house on Salisbury street. Capt. A. E. Burns has greatly improved the house since rolling it from the old site, upon which he now has a beautiful residence.

Rev. C. P. Wood, preached two powerful sermons at the M. E. Church Sunday, supplying for Rev. N. B. Richardson, who is conducting meetings near Ramseur.

Mr. Wood went to Farmer Monday to help Rev. B. F. Fincher in a series of meetings this week.

Miss Mittie Lovett, of Burlington, is a guest of relatives and friends in Asheboro.

Rev. N. R. Richardson left Saturday for White's Chapel where he is assisting Rev. J. J. Eads in a series of revival meetings. White's Chapel is five miles from Ramseur.

Rev. C. M. Campbell, pastor of the M. E. Church at Randleman, was the successful contestant from Randolph county for the trip to New York in the recent voting contest conducted by The Davidson Dispatch, he having received 35,685 votes.

The fact that there are sections of the county without a road force shows that Randolph needs some amendments to the road law. Our citizens should think this matter over carefully, and if legislative enactment is necessary to make the necessary correction, should let our next representative know their will.

Dr. A. L. Plummer, who had located at Farmer to practice his profession with Dr. Lewis has sufficiently recovered from his illness to be enabled to go to his home in Davidson county. It will be remembered that he was seriously ill a few weeks ago.

Mrs. T. W. Neely, of near Charlotte, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Hunter, on Worth St.

R. Vuncannon, of Ether, spent a few days with friends in Asheboro last week.

W. N. Elder, of Trinity, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. Arthur Davis, of Salisbury is visiting in Asheboro, a guest of Mrs. Wm. Skeen.

Mrs. A. A. Spencer and children are visiting relatives in Caraway.

Dr. C. H. Lewis, of Farmer, spent Sunday in Asheboro.

Mrs. M. A. Moffitt and daughter, Miss Clara, have returned from Liberty and Pittsboro, where they visited friends.

Willie Ward is visiting his father Jno. B. Ward in West Asheboro.

Jno. K. Wood, of Raleigh, is visiting his father W. P. Wood in Asheboro this week.

Mrs. W. J. Teague returned Saturday from a visit to relatives and friends in Tennessee.

Mrs. J. T. Underwood is visiting relatives in Greensboro.

Miss Etta Staley, of Staley, is visiting her brother, Prof. Chas. M. Staley.

Miss Carrie Freeman, of Franklinville, is a guest of Mrs. E. Moffitt.

E. E. Lewallen, who purchased the home of D. M. Ho'lady several weeks ago will move his family to Asheboro in a short time. Mr. Lewallen is offering his farm and sawmills for sale. When he moves to Asheboro he will connect himself with the Asheboro Department Store.

HIGH POINT ITEMS.

Two Weddings--More Building--Military to Morehead City--Gathering at Guilford--Personals and Locals.

Hattie Kiser won a nice pair of shoes, at H. A. Moffitt's sale last week. She held the number 7525, the lucky one.

Mr. Ed Tate and Miss Nannie Meyers, were married on August 8th at 8 o'clock in the evening. Rev. O. L. Powers officiating.

Capt. M. L. Jones was in the city last week, talking new railroad matters with our citizens.

Several people went from here to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. N. Mendenhall, at Lexington, last Friday. Homer Richardson and Miss Ida Snider were married last Wednesday evening.

The Presbyterian Sunday school, held their annual picnic at Boones Mill last Wednesday.

Hal Benceni and Charles Wiggins, are erecting some new houses.

The furniture manufacturers, returned from their annual meeting at Morehead City last Friday.

Swift & Company of Chicago, are contemplating locating a large glue factory here.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Frazier, was buried last Friday at Abbotts Creek.

Company M. High Point Rifles, left for their annual encampment, at Morehead City, last Saturday morning. The boys are well drilled, if they are the baby boys in the 1st Regiment of N. C. Guards.

Mr. Cross an experienced contractor will build the new bank building for the Armfields, on North Main street.

George T. Penny's fine horses, are winning for him some of the purses at the Stanton, Va. Fair this week.

Mable Ridge, of Greensboro, spent several days he is visiting her aunt Mrs. C. F. Wilson.

J. A. Clinard is improving. He has been a very sick man.

High Point people attended very largely, the educational rally at Old Trinity last Friday. Many were the compliments passed on the Asheboro Nightingale Band.

Mr. R. G. Gray, of Milwaukee, Wis. was stricken with appendicitis Monday and was taken to the Hospital for treatment.

J. W. Nells a man of a family on Reid St., was found nearly dead last Monday. He had taken 4 bottles of Laudanum it seems with the intention of committing suicide. Dr. McAnally saved the man's life. No reason was given for the rash act. 700 voters, have registered for the coming bond election.

Mrs. L. J. Diffeo, has bought a lot of Rev. Thos. Carrick, on North Main street and will commence at once the erection of a 7-room 2 story house.

Randolphians passed through in large numbers last week enroute to Guilford College. We could not help wishing that the meetings were held here, that we might see more of them.

FROM FARMER.

Institute Opens September 4th--Primary Well Attended.

Next session of Farmer's Institute will open September 4th, with Prof. J. C. Carson in the chair. Prof. Carson is a native of Pitt county. He has had several years experience teaching in the graded schools of his county. We are looking forward to one of the best schools in the history of the Institute. All persons who contemplate sending their children or attending Farmer's Institute this year will do well to be on hand the first day, September 4th.

Our old friend Ex-Sheriff E. C. Lassiter and family, of Greensboro, are visiting relatives in this section.

W. E. and J. O. Kearns have moved their saw mill to near Jesse Kearns in New Hope township. They have purchased a fine lot of timber in that community and it will take several weeks to work it up.

Rev. B. F. Fincher is conducting a series of meetings at Salem Church this week.

Pearl and Eddie Johnson are visiting their parents.

Successful Sale.

Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co's big ten days bargain sale closes Saturday. The sale began last Wednesday and has been a big success. The management stuck closely to the reductions advertised by posters and in the Courier last week, and though they lost money by these specials they established the honor of the firm and made many friends. This sale and the patronage not only speaks well for the firm but the success is a complement to Asheboro and the entire county.

From Ralph.

A large crowd attended the Childrens Day at Browsers Chapel Sunday. Prof. Charles Staley, of Asheboro, made us a good talk on Sunday School work. Carson Winningham, of Asheboro, spent Sunday night with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cox, of High Point, spent last week with his father, A. C. Cox. The postponed meeting will begin the fourth Sunday in August. Will Haley is visiting his cousin, W. M. Cox.

BUT THREE DAYS

IN WHICH TO REAP THE HARVEST OF

The Greatest BARGAINS Ever Offered

In Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Etc.

MORRIS-SCARBORO-MOFFITT CO'S. GREAT CRUSHING SALE

Will End Saturday Night, August 18th.

Read These Extra Specials:

Matchless Bargains, Hundreds of Others Equally as Attractive, some Better, await Your Inspection.

Jap silk that sells the world over for 50c to 75c. Thursday, Friday and Saturday Price.....	.28	We will sell 10 yards of good 36 inch Bleaching for 48c Friday morning from 9:30 to 10 o'clock.
Matting, regular values up to 35c, Tuesday Friday and Saturday Price.....	.19	Don't overlook our Remnant Counter that has grown very large during our past week sales, that must be closed out.
Colgate Talcum Powder that sells the world over for 25c Tuesday, Friday and Saturday Price.....	.14	From 2:30 to 3 o'clock Saturday one lot of shoes, values up to $2.00 at.....
		.38

A FINE SUIT ABSOLUTELY FREE

We will give every man that buys a suit from us Thursday, Friday or Saturday, a chance at a suit to be given away Saturday night at 8 o'clock. All clothing goes at crushed prices. $10.00 suits at $4.48. $12.50 suits at $6.85. $15.00 suits at $8.95.

Men's straw and felt hats, worth from $1.00 to $2.00 to be crushed out Thursday, Friday and Saturday at.....	$.48	Lace Curtains, 3 yards long and very pretty patterns well worth $2.00 and $2.50, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Price.....	$1.19
We will sell 4 spools of Coats Spool cotton for 5c, from 9 to 9:30 Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning.		FURNITURE DEPARTMENT
Men's linen colars well worth 12c to be crushed out at.....	$.02	$10.00 Hall Racks, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Price.....	$5.98
		All kinds of Furniture at Crushing prices, for these three days.
		We will sell one lot of Tin Ware, regular value up to 50c, Friday from 2:30 to 3 o'clock.....	.02

Come to the Drawing of the Buggy

THAT WILL BE GIVEN AWAY SATURDAY AT 4 O'CLOCK.

Saturday will be a GALA DAY. Bring the Children.

Music by the Asheboro Nightingale Band.

IT SEEMS STRANGE, STRANGE, BUT IT IS THE TRUTH.

MORRIS-SCARBORO-MOFFITT Co., Asheboro, N. C.