

The Asheboro Courier.

Asheboro, N. C. August 23, 1908.

Local and Personal.

O. L. Sapp is in Troy on business.

J. R. Wall went to High Point Wednesday.

W. A. Coffin is spending the week at Jackson Springs.

Mrs. Jennie Hancock left Saturday for Greensboro.

Miss Bessie Coffin visited friends in Handleman Sunday.

James Bunch is spending a week at Oak Ridge with friends.

Mrs. Z. F. Rush is quite ill at her home on Salisbury St.

Sam Spencer, of Carthage, spent Saturday night in Asheboro.

Miss Beatrice Bulla spent Friday with Mrs. Nannie Craven at Trinity.

C. J. Angle, of Greensboro, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. W. J. Page and Miss Minnie Hall, of Elise, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Nannie Robbins was a guest of her sister, Mrs. F. H. Wood, at Trinity Friday.

Mrs. Bascom Yates and Miss Coggins, of Biscoe, were in Asheboro Monday shopping.

Mrs. W. E. Swain and son, James, left Monday for Jackson Springs to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oglesby, of Montgomery county, arrived yesterday to visit friends.

Mrs. John Page and children, who have been visiting in Asheboro went to Steeds Saturday.

Mrs. Rankin Parks, of Salisbury, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Moffit in Asheboro.

The children of Mrs. A. M. Ferree and Mrs. A. E. Burns are recovering from a long illness.

M. C. Spoon and family and Madison Davis and family are spending some time at Jackson Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Fisher, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dickens, this week.

The funeral of the late J. S. Ferree will be preached at Brower's Chapel next Sunday by Rev. W. E. Swain.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kephart returned Monday night from Spencer, where they spent a week with friends.

Jessie G. Miller has laid off a six acre plot of land in North Asheboro in building lots which he is offering for sale.

Miss Lela Hall has returned home after spending several weeks with relatives and friends at Parmerville.

W. P. Wood and Rev. N. R. Richardson left Tuesday for Moorehead City, to attend the Old Soldiers Reunion.

Farms have been badly washed by the long continued and hard rains and much damage has been done to crops.

Samuel R. Hilliard, and wife who have been visiting at the home of W. W. Jones, returned Wednesday to their home at Springhope, Nash county.

Malcom Whitfield spent Sunday and Monday in Asheboro a guest of his sister Mrs. W. C. Hammond. He left Monday afternoon for his home at Lumberton.

Hal S. Lewis was in Asheboro Monday and Tuesday returning from Farmer where he spent Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis.

Mrs. G. G. Hendricks and children, Joseph and Lillian, are spending the week at Jackson Springs. They left Monday accompanied by little Miss Mabel Spoon.

Elihu Mendenhall, one of the oldest and most prominent Quakers in the State, is critically ill with pneumonia at his home at Deep River. He is over 90 years old.

Z. T. Bird has moved to the dwelling house recently vacated by Mr. Rufus Betts on Salisbury street. Mr. Betts has moved his family to Biscoe, where he has a position in a foundry and machine shops.

Mrs. Hattie J. Craven, of Moore county, who has been visiting relatives in Asheboro, left Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. K. L. Winningham. Mrs. Craven is a sister of Mrs. W. D. Spoon and Mrs. M. H. Moffitt, of Asheboro.

Hon. Robt. N. Page was here Saturday.

W. F. McDowell is spending the week in Baltimore.

Dr. F. E. Asbury was in town Saturday on business.

E. E. Kephart and family returned Monday from Spencer.

J. T. Lambeth, of Thomasville, was on our streets Saturday.

Miss Coranie Spencer, of Why Not, is visiting relatives here.

Robt. Fuller, of Fullers, visited Asheboro Saturday on business.

A. C. McAlister spent a part of last week at Piedmont Springs.

Miss Ulnah D. Rush has been on visit to relatives near Farmer.

Jno. T. Moffitt is spending the week in Tampa, Florida, on business.

Rev. J. E. Adams, a Baptist minister, is visiting at the home of Mr. Thos. Lambert.

Frank Moore, of McCall, S. C., is spending several days in Asheboro the guest of Mr. Geo. Ross.

Mr. George Hunsucker, returned to West Virginia, Monday where he is connected with the railroad.

Mrs. T. J. Hoover, Mrs. A. C. Rush and Miss Annie Davis returned yesterday from Jackson Springs.

Mrs. W. J. Page and Miss Minnie Hall, of Elise, have been visiting friends and relatives in and around Asheboro.

Miss Ella Lambeth, of Thomasville, returned to her home last week after a few days visit to Mrs. Annie Robbins.

Mrs. A. B. Worth and son, Alexander, returned Monday night from Charlottesville, Va., where they visited friends for two weeks.

Walter Bunch, salesman for McCrory-Redding Hardware Co., is spending his vacation with friends and relatives in Guilford county.

D. B. McCrary went to Charlotte last week and underwent an operation for throat trouble. Since the operation he has rapidly improved.

Dr. and Mrs. Phillips were here last Saturday. The Dr. was attending the convention and Mrs. Phillips spent the day with friends.

Mrs. W. F. Redding is spending some time with Mr. T. Redding's family west of Asheboro. Mrs. T. H. Redding continues critically sick.

Misses Florence and Annie Blair returned Monday from High Point where they were guests of their sister, Mrs. A. M. Rankin, for two weeks.

Mrs. Batten, of Camden, and daughter, Mrs. B. Cress, of Aberdeen, spent several days here last week with Mr. Stanback Lewis's family.

Herbert Steed, of Steeds, left this week for West Raleigh to enter the A & M College where he will this year complete the course in that institution.

Millard Alfred, of Randleman has accepted a position with the Southern Railway, and arrived yesterday to enter upon his duties in the Asheboro depot.

Mrs. J. P. Boroughs and children are attending the special meetings being conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. H. Biggs, at the Methodist Protestant church at Why Not.

Mrs. T. J. Moffitt and two children, Tom and Elizabeth, left last week for Texas. Mr. Moffitt is engaged in the mercantile business at Mineral Wells, where they will make their home.

Five hundred people attended the drawing for the buggy at Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co's. Saturday and in the entire crowd not one could be found who did not have one or more tickets in the box.

Several people went to Jackson Springs Monday to spend this week. Among the number were Mrs. W. E. Swain and son, Master John; Mrs. G. G. Hendricks and children, Mr. M. C. Spoon and daughter, Mabel, and Mr. W. A. Coffin.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church offers for sale two double arm chandeliers which were recently replaced by electric lights in the church in Asheboro. Particulars can be had by addressing Mrs. W. H. Moring or Mrs. Annie Robbins, of Asheboro.

Miss Daisy Crowson the efficient dressmaker, who has been sewing at the Asheboro Department Store during the spring and summer months, has gone home for a few weeks, for a vacation. She expects to return in the early fall and will then be glad to meet and accommodate her friends again.

RALLY AT TRINITY.

Large Crowd Attended—Congressman Page Electrified His Audience.

Trinity, Aug. 10.—A large crowd attended the educational rally here today. Addresses were made by prominent citizens.

Congressman R. N. Page electrified his audience with a spirited address on education. The needs of the hour in education were clearly presented with convincing effect. He emphasized the need of trained men for the better and higher life and gave some convincing illustrations. He paid a glowing tribute to the work of the school at one time and said that here was a future for it yet.

At 1:30 a picnic dinner was spread on the long tables. This was followed by a watermelon feast.

The Asheboro Nightingale Band furnished the music. Among those on the rostrum were Prof. Pegram, Dr. W. G. Bradshaw, Dr. Dread Peacock, Dr. Wood, Dr. Detwiler, Dr. Turrentine, Congressman Page, Mr. Hargett and others.

Solicitor W. C. Hammer was expected to attend and make an address but being detained by the special term of court at Salisbury, he sent his regrets and greeting to the school and the attendance.

Interesting Locals From the Courier Correspondent at Trinity.

Dr. Geo. B. Pegram, of Columbia, University is visiting his aunt, Miss Kate Craven.

Mrs. T. J. Copeland and children, of Greensboro, are registered at the Parker House.

Mrs. Eugene Albee and children of Winston, are visiting at Jno. Brames.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ballance, of Greensboro, came Saturday for a few days visit at J. W. Ballance's.

Mrs. J. R. Bulla, who had a stroke of paralysis two weeks ago, is improving slowly, and is sitting up.

Mrs. and Miss Whitehead and Mrs. Clark of Yancey City, Miss. who have been visiting at Mrs. Hundley's for several weeks left for home on Monday. Miss Whitehead has added a good deal to the social features this summer, and the "club" will miss her.

Mrs. Dred Peacock and children, are staying a few weeks at Mrs. O. W. Carr's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carr and little Lucie Neal, have gone to High Point and will make their home there. Trinity is sorry to lose them.

Mrs. Jno. W. Bulla, and daughter, Miss Beatrice, of Washington, and Mrs. Annie Robbins, of Asheboro, spent a few days with Mrs. Nannie Craven last week.

Prof. D. C. Johnson, of the Coolidge Graded School, left for that place Monday. His family will not go till September.

Miss Beanie Parkin is visiting in Faison and will probably spend the winter there.

Miss Aline Patton, of Elon College, is visiting the Misses Harris.

Miss Dora Ritchie, of New London, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. C. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reddick and Miss Norma, spent Saturday in Thomasville.

The High School campus has been cleaned off and beautified preparatory to the opening of school. The authorities are expecting a large number of students. The school has a good faculty and is in a much better financial condition than it has been in several years. Success to it.

Other Trinity News as Gathered by Another Correspondent.

The Educational Rally on the 10th was greatly enjoyed. The speeches of the day by Dr. Detwiler and Congressman Page were excellent. After dinner the Ladies Aid Society served cream and cake on the campus and realized a good profit. The young people enjoyed a game of ball late in the afternoon.

Miss Eva Heitman returned last week from an extended visit to Kings Mountain and other places. She has accepted a position in the Graded Schools of Durham.

Mrs. E. O. Brown returned to Wilkesboro last week.

Mrs. E. P. Albee returned to Winston after a week's visit to relatives.

Mr. E. R. Carr returned from the Springs much benefited.

Miss Bessie Parker is on an extended visit to her aunt in Faison since the death of her grand-father, Mr. Hines whose welcome visits to Trinity will be greatly missed. He made many friends here and in the county who will regret to learn of his death.

Prof. Pegram preached an excellent sermon Sunday at 11 o'clock in the absence of the pastor.

Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Whitehead and daughter, sisters of Mrs. Hundley returned to Mississippi on Monday, after spending some time here.

TOTAL ASSESSMENT IS $76,050,548.

Corporation Issues Assessment Against Railroads, Telegraph and Telephone Companies.

The North Carolina Corporation Commission yesterday issued to the various counties of the State a statement of the total amount of the apportionment to each county of the general assessment against railroads, telegraph, telephone, street railway, electric lights and gas light companies—these being the amounts on which the various counties are to assess taxes.

The entire assessment for all the counties amounts to $76,050,548, and the aggregate of the amounts in the apportionment is about $70,000,000, as the excess is listed in the counties. Besides this there is a privilege tax paid directly by the railroads into the State treasury, which amounts to about $18,000. Randolph's assessment amounts to $615,609.87.

Cedar Falls Items.

The mills here shut down Friday. They will start up again on Monday, September 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wrenn's baby died Saturday and was buried at Wootville Sunday evening. They have our sympathy.

Mrs. J. J. Glass, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Essie Langhlin made a short visit to Liberty recently.

Mr. John Brady and Miss Annie Brady are visiting in High Point this week.

Miss Monte Jennings is visiting at Winston.

Mr. A. F. Cox left Monday morning for Greensboro, Mr. Vernon Springs and other points.

Mr. Wrenn and family returned home Monday evening.

Miss Deza Brady is visiting friends in Greensboro.

Mrs. W. Moon has accepted a position as operator and clerk for the Southern at Chase Hill, and left Monday morning to enter upon his new duties.

Mrs. C. Glass, who is succeeded by Mr. Moon at Chase Hill, has accepted a position with the Three-Whisked Hdw. Co. of Weldon.

Mr. Joe Humalia, of Central Falls, passed through Monday enroute to Liberty Normal College.

Miss Gertrude Reeling will soon enter the State Normal.

Mr. Marston says he saw the grand father of a fine horse today.

Green-Hatch Marriage.

On Wednesday night of last week, at 8 o'clock, Miss Florence Hatch, a daughter of Mr. Artemus Hatch, was united in marriage to Mr. J. M. Green, of Rameur, the ceremony being performed at Hanks' Chapel by Rev. R. G. Underwood, of Sanford. Immediately after the marriage a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father where the happy couple received the congratulations of their many friends.

—Chatham Record.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pritchett, formerly of Asheboro, now of Thomasville, have gone on a visit to Arkansas.

North Carolina Day at Charlotte.

Charlotte, August 20. It has been decided to set aside one day of the September meeting of the Greater Charlotte Chamber as "North Carolina Day." Governor Glenn has accepted an invitation to deliver an address. Ex-Governor Aycock has also been invited to come and the chances are that he will accept.

Franklinville News.

Mrs. Sallie Vestal, of Plainfield Ind., came down one day last week and will spend some time in the city with relatives and friends.

Rev. J. F. Alfred filled the pulpit at the M. E. church Sunday night.

O. T. Leonard, of Greensboro, was in town one day last week.

Hugh Parks, Jr. made a business trip to Washington D. C., one day last week.

The protracted meeting at Shady Grove (col) will begin next Sunday.

Chas. York has just completed his contract of grading a side walk on Depot St. from the depot to the livery stable and along Randolph Ave. to Monroe Craven's residence.

Several of our people attended the Democratic County Convention at Asheboro Saturday.

The Sunday school at the M. E. church is growing both in number and interest. There were nearly 100 present Sunday. The Bible class is doing excellent work and also the Supt. W. C. Jones has introduced the black board drawings and talks on the lessons which are very interesting and instructive.

Mooreville Electric Plant.

The Mooreville Enterprise says: The power house for the electric light plant is being pushed to completion, and in a few more days the building will be under cover. The engine and boiler are in place. We will soon have lights.

Mr. James Donald, of White Stone Springs, S. C., has been secured to superintend the electric light plant. He will move his family here in a short while. Mr. Donald is a native of Glasgow, Scotland.

In Memoriam.

Miss Della Loffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Loffin, departed this life August 9th. She leaves a father, mother, four sisters, and six brothers and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Della was a kind and loving girl and was loved by all who knew her.

All those who in their dear Savior believed Are in bright mansions of glory received The parent's loss is but eternal gain With Christ above she has gone to reign.

Now kind parents who deplore your loss Lay near the Savior, endure the cross Your loved one has gone to return no more You soon may meet Della on Heaven's fair shore.

A FRIEND.

Oberlin News.

Mrs. B. B. Reynolds is visiting her father and mother at Blifflers.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Blake was born yesterday.

J. A. Beardsley is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Smith at Sparta.

Mrs. T. M. Hall and sister Miss Page are visiting Miss Ella Hall.

E. H. Wesley, of Bantley, spent Thursday night with his daughters, Mrs. J. R. Wallace and Mrs. J. L. B. King.

Miss Sallie McMillin is visiting her brother at Aberdeen.

Miss Ma Norton is visiting her brother at Eagle Springs.

Rogues broke into J. F. Rolling's store Wednesday night but nothing was missing.

Organization Effected.

The Southern Live Stock Insurance Company was formally organized at High Point last week with the following officers:

President, Geo. T. Penny, High Point.

Vice-Presidents, W. W. Smoak, Winston, Geo. H. H. H. H. Raleigh, Thos. D. Craig, Gastonia.

Secretary and treasurer, E. M. Arnold. The capital of $50,000 was all paid in.

Peters' Shoeco

WE MAKE MORE FINE SHOES THAN ANY OTHER HOUSE IN THE WEST.

SOLD BY THE ASHEBORO DEPARTMENT STORE.

THERE IS A REASON FOR CHEWING REYNOLDS' SUN CURED TOBACCO

Chewers becoming tired of heavily sweetened sun cured tobaccos caused REYNOLDS' SUN CURED to quickly win from the old brands of much longer standing the place as favorite with sun cured chewers, because it contains just enough proper sweetening and flavoring to preserve the quality of the leaf and enhance its goodness, causing a large increase in the demand for sun cured tobaccos.

REYNOLDS' SUN CURED

is not only pure sun cured, but it is made from choice selections of the genuine sun cured leaf grown where the best sun cured tobacco grows. It is like that you formerly got, costing from 60c. to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. plugs, and is the best value in sun cured tobacco that can be produced for chewers.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO. Winston-Salem, N. C.