In Memoriam.

Another name has been transferred from the membership of Oak Grove Church to the roll of the redeemed.

Charlie Ried Kearns died at his home in Randolph Co., N. C., Sept. 7th, 1906, age about 39 years. Flowers more exquisite than were ever grown in my poor garden, and hands more deft than mine to weave them are needed for the memory of one whom I bear commemoration. But I am glad to cast a handful of violets and forget-me-nots on Charlie's memorial tablet. If strong confidence in the providence and promise of God, if a tranquil death, cheered by the hope of the gospel, through the merits of Christ be admissible evidence, then was his claim to the character of a firm christian well sustained. We miss his gentle presence and prudent demeanor. So many qualities met and blended in his richly endowed nature, his eyes closed on earthly things, to look with unclouded vision upon the good things of the eternal world. Then one more tired traveler had a sweet welcome home. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. The church will miss him as he was ever ready to work for its good and willingly devoted time, talent and means to its interest. We have repeatedly heard him say during his long and severe afflictions, that even then he entertained happy experiences and enjoyed pleasant recollections of the Sunday school. He was a man that read and thought much and often his conversation was characterized by intellectual vigor and spiritual power, on the subjects of Faith, Prayer, Nature Intimacy, Thought, Character, Wisdom, Epiphany. The 5th verse in the first chapter of James was one among many others that he took great pleasure and enjoyed heart felt comfort in talking about. It tested the mettle of his graces to be thrown down or to be commanded to be still and suffer, but he was strong in the principles of faith and conduct which underpinned his character. He knew the safety of his an-cher and the rock upon it would hold steady. A quick submission to his Father's will and he died in the faith that had sustained him in life. Farewell Charlie, we feel that all is well with you. How the thought softens and sweetens the blow. What a rift in the dark cloud of bereavement through which the sunlight of consolation is streaming. May God's loving care be over the sorrowing wife and little boys, Reece and Gray, and may they meet him in heaven. A. E. R.

In Memoriam.

On Sept. 2nd 1906 after an illness of three weeks, Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen Hinshaw, wife of James M. Hinshaw, was called from her earthly home. She had been in declining health for some time. Everything was done to stay the hand of death but all in vain, God knew best and took her from us. She was an affectionate wife and loving mother, and lived to a ripe age a blessing to her family, being 71 years, 5 months and 22 days of age.

She leaves a husband and six children, four daughters and two sons, to mourn their loss, which is her gain.

God's plans we cannot understand. But when through patient toil we reach the land, Where tired feet with sandals loosed may rest, Where we shall clearly know and understand, I think that we shall say, "God knew best."
