WHITEHEAD-FRAZIER.

Pretty Wedding at Staley at High Noon - Bridal Party Entertained.

At high noon, Tuesday, Sept. 18, 1906, at the home of the bride in Staley, N. C., a beautiful home wedding was solemnized, when Miss Dillie Myrtle Frazier became the bride of Mr. French D. Whitehead. As the hour approached, the rooms artistically decorated with flowers, ferns, and potted plants, were filled with numerous friends and relatives who had assembled to witness the interesting event.

The ushers were Messrs. Will York, Walter Hobson, Herbert Staley, and Thurman Warren. Mrs. D. M. Weatherly, of Franklinville, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march while the bridal party entered the parlor. The four little ribbon girls, Misses Grace Frazier, Violet Teague, Hazel Teague, and Ruth Edwards were followed by the groom attended by his best man, Mr. M. R. Cox. The bridesmaids, Misses Lillie Whitehead, Florence Warren, Maud Foushee, Cosia Fox, Eva Gardner, and Etta Staley came next. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Rolala Frazier, sister of the bride. The bride entered, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. L. P. Frazier, who gave her away.

During the impressive ceremony, performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. L. Smith, of Siler City, "Love's Old Sweet Song" was softly rendered, after which the bridal party retired to the delightful strains of the wedding march. After the congratulations of friends and assembled guests, a delightful and abundant dinner was served. Amid a shower of rice and the good wishes of their friends, the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Wilmington, Wrightsville, and other seaside resorts.

The bride wore a dress of point d'esprit over white taffeta, with a veil, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. Her travelling dress was gray, chiffon, panama cloth.

The popularity of this young couple was shown by the great number of valuable and useful presents received from friends far and near. The presents consisted of silver, china, glassware, rugs, cushions, linens, pictures, albums, clock, lamp
