Report of Comptroller of Currency On State Banks.

INDIVIDUAL DEPOSITS TOTAL $17,578,000.

The Past Year Was Big One For Tar Heel Banks—Figures Show a Strong Commercial Pulse.

The past year has been one of great prosperity to the banks of North Carolina as the following figures from the report of the Comptroller of Currency on State banks will show.

During the past year the individual deposits in the 52 national banks North Carolina now aggregate 7,578,000. These figures are taken from the report of the comptroller of the currency on the condition of the national banks of the state at the close of business September 4. Compared with the corresponding statement a year ago, individual deposits have increased $3,521,000.

Cash resources have jumped from $498,594 to $33,829,856.

A year ago the loans and discounts of the national banks of North Carolina were a little in excess of six million dollars. They now aggregate $21,207,300.

The surplus fund has increased $1,000, now footing up to $2,820,000.

The present holdings of gold coin amount to $365,357 as compared with $330,664.

United States deposits in the state have increased in the twelve months from $385,482 to $745,996, and the undivided profits, less expense and taxes, from $900,292 to $1,000. The percentage of legal reserve to deposits is 16.63, a decline less than 1 per cent.

WE COULD ONLY KNOW! TOMACH TROUBLE AND NERVOUSNESS CURED.

Four years ago my general health went away. I was afflicted with a pressing stomach trouble, and did not touch solid food of any kind. For one year I could vomit anything I would swallow, even water to medicine and water. My stomach would not retain a thing. One can know what I suffered from weakness, dizziness, shortness of breath and nervousness. I often felt it would be so much better if I died and got out of my suffering. Oh and on I was under doctor's treatment for three years. I can only say that doctor's medicine did me no good. Then a good fate put one of Mrs. Perry's pamphlets in my hands, and I where so many had been cured were as bad off as I was. I got a bottle of the Remedy, and from my first dose I took I knew I struck the right thing. It was first medicine I ever took that first dose did me good. For the first time in a long time, I was not treated after taking it. I continued until I took thirteen bottles, it made a perfect cure of me. I have been a year since I was cured. I know I am well. I recommend it to every one who has stomach trouble, and to all who have indigestion, as it cured my brother's indigestion. He tried to get me to take it long before I did, but I thought, because it will cure rheumatism, because it would cure rheumatism, because it would cure rheumatism, because it would cure rheumatism.

REBECCA TROLLINGER, Newton, N. C., Nov. 11, 1904.

THINGS TO KNOW.

Another Fair Flower Plucked.

Once again the death angel has visited this lowland of sorrow and taken from our midst one of earth's fairest flowers. On September the 20th we were called to witness the death of little Francis H. Scotten, who died of bronchial pneumonia at the home of his parents John and Eva Scotten.

Little Francis was born at Walsh, Ind. November 5th, 1900, and came to North Carolina with his parents in 1904. He leaves a father, mother two sisters and one brother to mourn their loss. He was preceded to the Heavenly land just seven weeks by his little sister Helen.

All earthly love and skill could not save him. Heaven opened wide her everlasting gates for another one to enter the realms of day and wear a jeweled crown.

Entertainment took place at Mt. Pleasant Church. There while the sun in Heaven was shining in all his glory and brightness we looked for the last time upon his sweet face and laid him to rest to wait the resurrection morning.

Weep not dear parents, though the vacant place in your home can never be filled and your hearts are bleeding for the little one gone on before. For Jesus has said, "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

"A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is still, A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

"God in his wisdom has recalled, The child his love had given, And though the body slumbers here The soul is safe in Heaven.

A FRIEND.

Among the striking outdoor books of the year Mr. Horace Kephart's book of "Camping and Woodcraft," which The Outing Publishing Company promises during August, is one of the best. Few men are as well known, as campers or as writers of campers, as is Mr. Kephart. For many years he has spent a large amount of his time in the woods, and his book covers every detail which the novice or the inexperienced camper can care to know about, from the kind of mosquito netting to the quality of tent canvas. The book moreover is written with all the charm of the story.

Parker-Tomlinson.

The event of the social season at High Point was the marriage of Miss Deborah Tomlinson to Mr. Alvin Parker last Thursday.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Anna F. Tomlinson and of rare accomplishments. The groom is a son of Rev. J. R. Parker, popular with all who know him. They are spending their honeymoon in the South.

A Real Love Letter.

When I begin a letter to you, the great difficulty is to leave off again. Oh! how warm it makes one feel to know there is one person in the world to whom one is everything! A lover is the most precious, the most marvellous possession. No wonder people like having them! And I need to think that so silly. Heavens! What an absurd person I have been. Why, love is the one thing worth having. Everything else—talents, interests, arts, religion, learning, the whole 'tremblement', are so many drugs with which the starved, the loverless, try to drug their pangs, to put themselves to sleep.

How strange and dreadful love is! Till you know it, you are so sure the world is very good and pleasant up in those serene, frost-bitten regions where you stand alone, breathing the thin air of family affection, shone upon gently by the mild and misty sun of general esteem. Then comes love, and pulls you down. For isn't it a deceiver? Isn't it? Somehow, though it is so great a glory, it's a coming down as well—down from the pride of absolute independence of body and soul, down from the high-mightiness of indifference, to something fierce, hot and consuming.—From "Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther" in the October Delinquent.

Randleman Lyceum Course.

A contract has been signed with the Alkhest Lyceum for six of their best attractions to appear here during the fall and winter. Their entertainments come with the highest recommendations, and it is to be hoped that our people will come to the front and help support those who are endeavoring to present here as excellent course of entertainment as can be found in the larger towns of the state.

The workmen are putting the finishing touches to the interior of the three large brick stores on the corner of Main & Ferrie St. These buildings will be occupied by Elliott & Co and W. A. Underwood.

All the cotton mills are running on full time, in fact the business side of Randleman seems to have taken on a new life due to the prospect of the Randolph Commercial Railroad which it is claimed will be built here within the next 18 months.

Mr. S. G. Newlin, is erecting a cute pretty cottage on the lot adjoining his residence on Main Street.

Mr. James W. Marshall, of Richmond, Va., spent Tuesday night here the guest of his brother, Mr. Thomas E. Marshall.

Debating Society Organized.

Several boys of the Asheboro Graded School met at the Academy a few nights ago and perfected the organization of a literary and debating society. They will meet once each week. The officers of the society are D. M. Sharp, President and Herndon Moffitt, Secretary. The organization has nineteen members, embracing pupils from the 5th to the 9th grades inclusive.

Married.

On September 23, 1904, at the residence of Iva Garner, Love Duggel and Miss Rosella Luther, of New Hope township, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

James W. Luther, J. P., officiating.
