FRANKLINVILLE NEWS.

Iron Works Changed Hands—Building Burned—Another Home Wedding.

Samuel Kersey, of Greensboro, has purchased the Iron works property at this place and will greatly improve the property. The main building will be installed with the latest improved wood working machinery and will also in the near future put up a large rock crusher. James Watson, of Salisbury, visited the family of S. W. Jones last week.

Several of our people attended the fair at Greensboro last week.

The Randolph Mfg. Co have the addition to their building nearly completed and the new machinery will be installed in the near future.

Mag Marley (col.) met with the misfortune one day last week to get one of her buildings burned. Some of James Bule's clothing and a lot of feed was also consumed. No insurance on the property.

Abe Hudson, who has been clerking for Naomi Store Co at Randleman for some time has resigned his position and has accepted a position with the Randolph Mfg. Co.

J. M. Whitehead, of Ramseur, was up this week to see S. F. Ferriss's pigs and expressed himself as highly pleased at such a fine stock of hogs.

Another nice home wedding was solemnized in our city last Wednesday when Mr. Joe Hancock and Miss Lela Jones were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. S. W. Jones, Rev James Jordan officiating. We wish for them a long and prosperous life.

Miss Kittie Dove, who has been spending some time at High Point and Greensboro, with relatives and friends, returned home Saturday.

Geo. Kinney has sold the last of his fine Blue Mountain Joe hogs to W. H. Tippett at a fancy price. R. S. Elkins and S. S. Welch made a business trip to Asheboro Saturday evening.

METHODIST REVIVAL.

Intense Interest Manifested From the Beginning—Many Professions

Rev. Edwin C. Glenn, of Greensboro, arrived Saturday morning and took charge of the series of meetings now in progress at the Methodist Episcopal church that evening.

Mr. Glenn was born in Back Creek, but when a small boy, his father moved to Guilford where he was reared. He is a powerful speaker and from the beginning intense interest was manifested. Many professions followed at the Sunday services and each succeeding service has witnessed the birth of many souls into the Kingdom of God.

Mr. Glenn preaches the truth, simple and unvarnished. He is plain and practical. He does not play the sentimental in his hearers but presents the gospel as an appeal to reason and with convicting power.

The church is crowded at each service and Asheboro is undergoing a revival of religion, the like of which has not been witnessed for many months.

SMALL FIRE.

Damage to Central Hotel Would Have Resulted Disastrous But For Prompt and Efficient Work of Fire Fighters.

Last Thursday Morning a fire which came near being a serious conflagration originated at the Central Hotel. The fire was discovered soon after it started and the alarm was given. The factory whistles soon aroused the entire town and in a few minutes the fire fighters, armed with buckets and axes, began to battle the fiend. By quick, thoughtful work advantage was soon gained and the flame controlled. The damage done the building and furniture was small as compared with what would have resulted had the brigade lost control.

Mr. Spencer, who was at Carthage on the day of the fire, desire through the Courier to express his sincere gratitude to the people of Asheboro for their efforts to protect his property during his absence, without which he would have lost heavily.

Young Female Farmer.

Ida, the nine year old daughter of J. M. Ashburn, who lives in Shoals township, Surry county, is perhaps the youngest female farmer in the Piedmont section, and a very successful one. This season, on one-fourth of an acre of land, she raised 177 pumpkins and 224 pounds of tobacco, which she sold for $22.73, says the Mt. Airy Leader.—Winston Sentinel.

Bring the children with you to the Barbecue and Basket Picnic October 25th. There will be lots of fun and food for all.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

One Cold and Another

The season's first cold may be slight—may yield to early treatment, but the next cold will hang on longer; it will be more troublesome, too. Unnecessary to take chances on that second one. Scott's Emulsion is a preventive as well as a cure. Take when colds abound and you'll have no cold. Take it when the cold is contracted and it checks inflammation, heals the membrane of the throat and lungs and drives the cold out.

Cornelison—Luck.

A very pretty church wedding was solemnized at Flag Springs M. P. Church, Tuesday, October 9th, when D. A. Cornelison led to the altar Miss Belle Luck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Luck, of White House.

Proceeding the marriage a large number of relatives and friends of the young people gathered at the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner was served.

Proceeding to the Church, which was beautifully decorated, the ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelison will make their home at Seagrove, where the groom is a prosperous merchant.

Business Change.

W. B. Webster, has resigned his position with the Lexington Grocery Company and has assumed the management of the Asheboro Department Store. Mr. Webster recently purchased a larger interest in this company, succeeding M. W. Parrish, whose health is in such condition that he cannot devote his entire time to the affairs of the company. This company has had wonderful success since it began business a little more than a year ago and the young men who compose the firm have made many friends throughout the county and surrounding counties by their strict business methods and fair dealing.

Married Under Difficulty.

T. W. Winslow, whose postoffice is High Point, but who lives in the edge of Randolph county, and Miss Lillie Hill, of the same community, were in Asheboro Monday to secure a license and be married. Failing to bring witnesses or the written consent of the parents of the bride elect, they returned home. Tuesday they again called at the Registrar's office armed with the necessary information and the license was secured. Rev. W. E. Swain had been notified and was at hand, and in the presence of a few witnesses the ceremony was performed at the courthouse.

Subscriptions Paid.
