

A SHACKLED CONGRESS

Roosevelt and Cannon Agreement to Prevent Reforms.

HARRY WATER ON BOTH SHOULDERS

Cannon Notoriously Opposed to Reform, and Yet the President Wants
No Change in Leadership—No Relief
From Trust Plundering if Republican Congress is Elected.

President Roosevelt tried to be adroit in giving his advice to the voters of the United States when he wrote that letter to a congressman which was intended for the whole country to read. His admonition that "to change the leadership and organization of the house of representatives at this time means to bring confusion" shows that he believes with Speaker Cannon it is necessary to stand pat on the tariff and that the labor organizations should be defeated in their effort to obtain legislation that is necessary to protect them from trust and corporation coercing through government by injunction. Yet he says, "We favor the organization of labor as we favor the organization of capital, but on condition that organized labor and organized capital alike act in a spirit of justice and fair dealing and due regard to both the letter and the spirit of the law." As Cannon is notoriously opposed to all the demands of labor and will, if elected speaker of the next congress, pack the committee on labor against labor legislation, and yet President Roosevelt declares that "to change the leadership of the house" would be a party catastrophe, so he must agree with Speaker Cannon in his autocratic declaration against reform.

President Roosevelt says, "We favor the organization of capital," and as the vast organization of capital is known as trusts and as Cannon is known as a trust and corporation man and the president is so anxious to see him re-elected speaker what other conclusion can be drawn except that the president while making a great display of prosecuting trusts, though not one has been really punished, is really favorable to such organizations of capital? The spectacular hauling of a trust into court and flung it effects nothing for the people who are plundered by trust high prices. In fact, the prosecuted trust will undoubtedly increase its prices and thus make the consumers of its products pay the fine. The way to help the people is to take from the trusts and combine their special privileges, such as the tariff protection that Mr. Roosevelt agreed with Speaker Cannon that the next congress if it has a Republican majority is to refuse to consider.

As President Roosevelt declares that "to change the leadership and organization of the house would mean confusion," he therefore would back up Speaker Cannon in packing the committees of the next congress to prevent consideration of tariff revision and of the anti-injunction bill, which a former Republican congress passed unanimously, with Cannon in the speaker's chair, but which he now denounces as anarchistic.

Mr. Roosevelt, like other politicians, will find it difficult to carry water on both shoulders. He cannot handle the Cannon pitch and not himself be deflected.

A REPUBLICAN QUANDARY.

Only One Course Left to the Honest
Voters of Ohio.

The Republican machine in Ohio by endorsing President Roosevelt and Senators Dick and Foraker coequally has produced a political dilemma. The Ohio Republican voter who believes that railroad rate regulation is for his own and the public good must vote against his own ticket to endorse such sentiments. The voter who believes with Senator Foraker that the railroads have vested interests that should not be disturbed and with the same sentiments of the lukewarm Dick vote the Republican machine ticket, but at the same time such voter will virtually flout the president for being in such company.

The Dick and Foraker political machines have joined forces in their emergency and have forced this quandary on the Ohio Republican voters by forcing their coequal endorsement with the president. Boss Cox and all the corrupt elements of the Republican party of Ohio are enthusiastic for "the ticket," which alone should be a signal of warning to honest voters that they must defeat it if they do not want to perpetuate the Foraker-Dick combine for ring rule.

Roosevelt Dominates.

That the Republican congressional machine is entirely subservient and dominated by the president is shown by Chairman Sherman saying he did not know exactly why he was called to Sagamore Hill. It was supposed, however, that President Roosevelt wanted to tell Chairman Sherman that the $500,000 remaining in the hands of the Republican national committee, which was mostly fished from the trust funds of the life insurance companies, was to be placed at the disposal of the congressional committee to save the party from defeat.

Colorado's Opportunity.

If the people of Colorado do not vindicate Alvan Adams by electing him governor now he has again been nominated by the Democrats, they will show themselves only fit for ring rule and corrupt domination. The confounding out of Mr. Adams two years ago was one of the greatest outrages ever perpetrated in American politics.

The Magazines.

The Delineator for November is being distributed and consequently there is something for the ladies to revel in, for it is a superb issue of that delectable, both as to the fashion feature and its literary department. The winter styles are beautifully illustrated and discussed and we get an enchanting view of what the ladies of Paris and New York are wearing for the season. The November Delineator makes an elaborate effort to tell all about wraps and dresses and other fashionable wear for women and children, and in addition to that ever charming feature for its thousands of patrons. This useful magazine is replete with entertainment in stories and home reading and useful articles on art and home science. The single number sells for 15 cents or is sent a year for $1.00. Address The Butterick Publishing Co., (Limited), New York.

The Thanksgiving number of the Woman's Home Companion has been received. It is a paragon of excellence, and the ladies will find it a beautiful, instructive, entertaining and highly useful visitor in the household. The literary feature is elaborate and the styles and fashions are fully presented and discussed. The Companion is highly valuable for its articles on art and science in the home, dress making, house-keeping, etc., and especially appropriate is an illustrated article on Thanksgiving dishes of poultry and game. For the girl who makes her own living, for the woman who is domestic, for the woman who is a reader, The Woman's Home Companion is verily what its name is. The magazine sells at 10 cents a copy or is sent a year for $1.00. Address the Crowell Publishing Co., Madison Square, New York.

If an article is imitated, the original is always best. Think it over, and when you go to buy that box of Salve to keep around the house, get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the original and the name is stamped on every box. Good for eczema, tetter, boils, cuts and bruises, and especially recommended for piles. Sold by Standard Drug Co. and Asheboro Drug Co.

Col. Al. Fairbrother, Editor of "Everything" while in New York recently gathered some interesting facts concerning New York politics. Mr. Fairbrother is himself an independent Republican but says that at this time in the New York campaign a blind man could tell by the general movement and expressions heard everywhere in New York, that Hearst is going to be elected governor. He says that of sixty-two employes of the hotel Nararar, where he stopped, sixty-one of them were strong for Hearst, and the proprietor who was bitter against Hearst declared openly that it was impossible for him to influence a single vote. Politicians he said told him that such was the case out in the country districts, which have been formerly strongly Republican.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with wetting, depend upon it, the cause of this difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The Tobacco That Made Chewing Popular

Man's fondness for chewing tobacco is created and popularized by the tobacco produced in the famous Piedmont tobacco belt. Only choice selections of this well matured, thoroughly cured leaf are used in making SCHNAPPS. That's why SCHNAPPS requires and takes a smaller amount of sweetening than any other kind—and that's why SCHNAPPS has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers.

There are many imitations of SCHNAPPS claiming to be "just as good," but without the flavor or quality that has made SCHNAPPS sales more than all similar tobaccos.

Schnapps

It is made in the Reynolds factories, famous for producing the best chewing tobaccos, by clean, sanitary processes, under the same direction, since 1875, of men who have made the business a life study. They are the largest and best equipped flat plug factories in the world and are situated in the very center of the world's greatest chewing tobacco district.

If you've never chewed SCHNAPPS, now is the time to get acquainted with the cleanest, most healthful, stimulating, satisfying and wholesome form in which tobacco can be used. Do not accept imitations.
