The board of County Commissioners met Monday at the courthouse and adjourned to meet again Friday morning, November 9th, to draw the jury and transact such other business as may come before them.
At a recent meeting of Randolph lodge, No. 282, I. O. O. F., the lodge passed resolutions expressing their appreciation of the assistance rendered by the choir of the town in the excellent music furnished at their anniversary celebration held a short while ago.
The fourth quarterly conference of the M. P. Church will meet in the M. P. Sunday School room Thursday (tomorrow) evening. Not only the officers, but every member is urged to attend.
Attention is called to the new and attractive advertisements which are now appearing in our columns for Royal Baking Powder. By liberal and continuous use of newspaper space, the manufacturers have built up a large trade in many countries, which is being retained by the high quality of their product. The Royal is reputed a leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elkin, of Franklinton, spent Sunday with Mrs. Elkin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hendricks.
C. H. Rush, who recently resigned as agent for the A. & A. here, entered upon his new duties as baggage master and express messenger on the vestibule from Aberdeen to High Point. Mr. Rush will make Aberdeen headquarters.
James Langly has put up a saw mill near Staly, and has begun operation.
The Asheboro Drug Co. is prepared to furnish high class literature in magazines and books. See ad.
Samuel H. Gring, of Reading, Pa., arrived Tuesday to spend several days.
All business suspended in Asheboro Tuesday for Election. The day passed off quietly.
W. S. Linthecum, who formerly held a position with the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Co., but who is now with the Biscoe Foundry and Machine Co., spent Tuesday in Asheboro.
RANDELMAN ITEMS.
High Class Musical The Attraction Friday Night.
Mr. Tom Pugh, of Greensboro, is spending a few days here with his parents.
W. M. Hinshaw has taken charge of the old Hotel Ingold and will continue it as a boarding house.
State Auditor Dixon spoke to a large and appreciative audience at Naomi Hall last Wednesday evening. Dr. Dixon came to fulfill the engagement of Gov. R. B. Glenn, who had been called to Ga. on account of the serious illness of his brother.
Work has begun on two handsome residences on Main St. which when completed will be occupied by Mr. W. A. Underwood and Prof. J. L. Harris.
The next attraction to be presented here by the Alkabet Lyceum will be the Edwin R. Weeks Co. at the auditorium Friday night Nov. 9th. This entertainment is a high class musical and it is to be hoped that none of our people will fail to enjoy this rare opportunity.
Miss Jessie Woolen spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. T. A. Woolen.
C. K. Bryant, of Richmond, Va., is here spending a few days with relatives.
Mrs. W. A. Underwood is visiting in Asheboro this week.
E. A. Wiles, of Greensboro, was in town Friday on business.
Mrs. J. L. Harris and two children arrived Thursday and will spend the winter in Randelman.
Mrs. Mary Higgins and the family of Mr. S. G. Newlin have returned home, having spent the summer in Morganton.
Walters-Cunningham.
Invitations as follows have been issued.
"On Wednesday evening November the seventh nineteen hundred and six at half after seven o'clock
St. John's Episcopal Church in the town of Madison, North Carolina,
Col. and Mrs. John Marion Gallaway will give in marriage their niece
Miss Edna Cunningham
to
Mr. Daniel Anthony Walters.
The pleasure of your company is requested."
Mr. Walters is the well known ball player, who last season played with the Eastern league, on one of the Pennsylvania teams. He has many admirers in North Carolina where he made a record as a member of the Virginia-Carolina League.

Ramseur Items.
Mr. A. L. Jones visited his brother in Norfolk, Va., last week.
Rev. J. W. Patton preached two able sermons in his pulpit in the Christian Church last Sunday. We are much pleased to learn that he has been secured to preach for 1907.
A. F. Cox and J. C. Reese, of Cedar Falls, were visitors in town Sunday.
Met. Martin, of High Point came down Saturday with his bride and is visiting in town.
Miss Stella Groce, of Goldston, who spent the past two weeks here, left Saturday and was met at Clinax by Milton Gilmore where they were happily united in wedlock. It was a runaway match.
Our Chrysanthemum Show has been postponed till 1907.
Our farmers are finishing their wheat sowing this week.
Rev. J. J. Eads, of Coleridge, was on our streets Monday.
Died Suddenly in Moore.
Mr. Lindsay Burns, of Eagles' Springs, Moore county, dropped dead while at work in his stable last Tuesday, October 30th. Heart disease is the attributed cause.
The burial service was conducted Thursday by Rev. Mr. Hoyle, at Tabernacle Church, on the Elise circuit. Mr. Burns is survived by a wife and several children. He is a cousin of Mr. Frank Burns, of Asheboro.
Book by Poe Brings $1,400.
A copy of Edgar Allan Poe's "Murder of the Rue Morgue," was sold this week by Peter Meagher, a bookseller of No. 1 Madison avenue, for $1,400. No two copies of the book were known to be extant, it is said, until this one turned up. One was sold to F. R. Halsey at a French sale, in 1905, for $1000.—New York Tribune.

PROGRESS OF METHODISTS.

Asheboro Will Be An Independent Charge After This Conference.
The last Quarterly Conference before the District Conference of the Asheboro charge of the M. E. Church was held a few days ago. The Pastor reports that during the year there has been added to the Asheboro, Central Falls and Worthville churches 132 members. Of these 50 were added here as a result of the meetings conducted by Rev. E. C. Glenn, of Greensboro, and 53 following the meetings at Central Falls.
It is further learned that it has been decided to make the Asheboro church an independent charge, the pastor to devote his entire time to the work in this congregation. This is a most creditable report and speaks well for Asheboro Methodism.
PAYS TO ADVERTISE.
Our Patrons Grateful for Results from Advertisements in the Courier.
Two weeks ago last Thursday The Courier advertised for two watches that had been lost by visitors in the city. A week ago the watches were returned to the owners. It was seen in The Courier.
Recently the Proximity Mercantile Co. placed a small reading notice in The Courier "Help Wanted". We have received the following: "Please run enclosed copy in one-quarter column during November. We are highly pleased with your medium for reaching the people."
These are two instances, in different departments of advertising, which substantiates our claim that The Courier is the best read paper in the State. Local "ads." bring immediate results, and our advertisers realize that display "ads." are regular producers of business.
Begin your campaign for holiday trade now by taking a regular space in The Courier, ad. columns.
Well Known Collector.
Mr. L. L. Thomas, of Thomasville, was in Asheboro this week representing the Christian Advocate, The High Point Enterprise, and other papers. Besides being probably the oldest collector in the State, Mr. Thomas has been called the Father of Thomasville. The Salisbury Post recently said of Mr. Thomas: "He built the first house in Thomasville, his home town, and was in Salisbury while the Federal troops were camped near the corporation in the sixties. He remembers that the building now occupied by Plummer's Drug Store, C. Froneberger and others had just been burned out. But few of our citizens will recollect when this occurred."
The average man knows so little about what he is voting for that it makes him crazy and if he has to explain it.

MOTHERS READ THIS

RECIPIENT OF C. W. STUMP
Mrs. C. W. Stump of Canton, Ohio, writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol. Our little daughter was pale, thin and sickly. We tried various medicines, but without any benefit whatever, and she could not take cod liver oil or emulsions, as they nauseated her and upset her stomach.
"Learning that Vinol contains all the medicinal and strength-giving properties of cod liver oil, but without the disagreeable oil, we decided to try it, and the results were marvelous. So quickly was she restored to health and strength.
"We have never sold a medicine equal to Vinol for delicate children."
