The fund for the McIver monument is now more than $5,000.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has placed an order for 550 steel cars, at a total cost of $5,000,000.

The North German Lloyd Line steamer Kaiser Wilhelm collided with the royal mail steamer, Orinoco, off the coast of France last Thursday. Nine members of the crews were killed.

J. B. Martin, proprietor of the Cafe Martin, in New York, has called Count Boni de Castellane, offering him $10,000 a year to act as majordomo, to take charge of the waiters and manage the restaurant.

Surveyors have been at work for the past week on the railroad from Thomasville to Denton, planning for the work of rebuilding and straightening the line. The new company, which bought the road from Capt. Jones will apply for a charter in January.

The strike of mill operatives of Fall River, Massachusetts, who demanded an increase of 10 per cent on wages, has been averted by the operators granting a 10 per cent increase.

Three boys who were "hoboing" from their homes at Kornersville to Winston-Salem last week were caught in a freight wreck near Colfax. One was killed.

Bishop John J. Tigert, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died at Tulsa, Ind. Ter., last week. His home was in Louisville, Ky.

Col. L. Banks Holt is rapidly recovering from the injuries received from the murderous assault of Henry Walker, colored, on November 6th.

Judge Holt, of the U. S. Circuit court at New York, last week lined the New York Central and Hudson River Ry. Co., $208,000 for rebating freight to the American Sugar Refining Co.

In Memoriam.

Died at Cumtuck, November 6, 1906; Miss Flossie Stout, was born in Franklinville, September 20th, 1880, she was a daughter of Anjo Stout. She joined Moore's Chapel Baptist church about the age of thirteen and lived a consistent member till her death. She was a regular attendant at Sunday School and always had good lessons and never gave her teacher any trouble. All of her life was spent in Franklinville except seven months. She leaves a father, mother and one brother to mourn their loss. Eight brothers and sisters having died before her. She was loved by all who knew her, and no one had any cause to doubt her Christian character.

She was very happy and continued to praise the Lord for over a week before she died and continued so up to the hour of her death. She said, "mother I am going home." Her mother replied, "you are at home." Flossie said, "this is my heavenly home." "I am going to my heavenly home, mamma, make haste and get ready to meet me in Heaven." A very short while before she died, she sang, "I will arise and go to Jesus."

Why should we weep when the weary rest
In the bosom of Jesus supreme,
In the mansions of glory prepared
For death is no more than a dream.

Will Retain Railroad Fare.

Do your trading in the live, up-to-date, growing city of Greensboro where there are dozens of large stocks from which to make your selections. Members of the Merchants' Association will refund your railroad fare one mile both way for every dollar spent with them. Write to Chas. R. Brockmann, Secretary, Greensboro, N. C., for full particulars.

In every clime its colors are unfurled
Its fame has spread from sea to sea;
Be not surprised if in the other world,
You hear of Rocky Mountain Tea.
—Standard Drug Co.

Fortunate is the man who knows how big a fool he can be without trying.

Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat and if foul, or torpid, or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poison. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea keeps you well. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets.—Standard Drug Co.

NO FEED TO WINTER CATTLE.

Never So Many Cattle For Sale In The Mountains As Now.

Never, so far as we can recollect, have there been so many cattle for sale in the mountain counties as there is just now, and the price is but little consideration—almost any old price takes them. Heavy fat cows have sold recently within the corporate limits of Boone for two cents gross, when ordinarily the same cattle would have brought from 3 to 3 1/2 cents, and milk cattle are almost a drag on the market. There is, of course, a reason for the drop in cattle—not political either. The scarcity of feed is responsible for this great slump, and the people are bound to sell every hoof they can spare. The loss of the fodder crop, to many of our small farmers, will mean a great deal—in fact it renders some of them unable to winter their cattle.—Exchange.

A HEAVY LOSS.

Newton Leonard Awake To Find Barn And Contents Burned.

Newton Leonard, a prosperous farmer of Guilford Co., lost his barn and contents Wednesday night. It burned sometime during the night, and though only 500 yards from his house, he knew nothing of it until he emerged from his house Thursday morning to find only the smoldering ruins left. It is believed to have been set on fire by enemies. In the barn were six cows, three horses, all his feed and farm implements. Mr. Leonard had no insurance.

Improvements At Elon College.

Many improvements that mean much for Elon College, are now under way. A new electric lighting plant to be owned and operated by the college for its own buildings and the town is almost completed, and the lights will be turned on in a few days. The new heating plant is already in operation, and other improvements, including sewer, are nearing completion.

The splendid new dormitory has been in use for some time, and is in every way a model building.

"For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and what that bottle benefited me all the gold in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Corneli, Roding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906. Kodol is sold here by Standard Drug Co. and Asheboro Drug Co.

"DON'T AX ME."

The Turkey's Thanksgiving Conundrum.

"The kitchen shelves were loaded with pumpkin pies and mince; There was jelly in the pantry and preserves of peach and quince.

There were nuts and apples ready and the cakes were large and nice, And the whole farm house was fragrant with the smell of cloves and spice.

Farmer Jones went to the wood shed where the brand new ax was laid. He picked it up half smiling as he felt the shining blade.

Then a turkey trotted up so fat that he could hardly wobble; He shook his old red head and cried out "Gobble gobble gobble."

Said the farmer "Don't you know what tomorrow's going to be?" And the turkey gobbled loudly, "Don't ax me."

Entertaining Colored Friends.

A charming sketch of Southern life in The New Idea Woman's Magazine for December describes the visit of an old black "auntie" and her grand-daughter to the white family of whom the old woman had been a slave before the war. The situation is unique and is handled with sympathy and humor by the writer, S. B. Hackley. The whites' fortunes have fallen and the ladies "do their own work." An excellent understanding of etiquette, however, prevails, and while the ladies wait on their black guests at the little table for two in the kitchen, "Aunt Maria" and "Lizzie" appropriate the subsequent dish washing. The entertainment consists in "Aunt Maria" hearing all the news of her beloved "white folks" and of all their collateral branches; in being shown the gala frocks and hats of the young ladies; and finally in the affectionate bestowal of manifold gifts, broadly hinted for by the guests, from packages of coffee to hats, belts and flannel skirts. The article, which has the ring of truth more than of fiction, is an interesting document at the present juncture on the Southern question.

C. one-half undivided interest in the following described tract of land, to-wit: A tract known as the Massey Pulk place, bounded on the North by T. J. Stevier on the East by John Sellers; on the South by Bob Frazer, and on the West by Will Adams, containing 80 acres more or less. Terms of sale 1/3 cash and the balance on a credit of 6 months. Title to be retained until all the purchase money is paid. H. M. ROBBINS, Commissioner.

The John H. Sparks Show.

Will exhibit at Asheboro, Dec 4. Afternoon and night.

The excellent reputation left by the Sparks Shows on former visits to this section would alone insure liberal patronage this time, but the lusty growth and vast improvements in the show since its last visit will make it more attractive than ever. Sparks is a man of energy and enterprise, wide experience and ample capital, and he has brought all this to bear in making his show superior to all similar exhibitions. He has a brand new train of monster railway cars built especially for him, all new gorgeous cages, dens, costly trappings, etc. He has engaged the best talent big salaries can procure. He has expended over $40,000 in increased equipment. Every effort has been made regardless of cost to make his show satisfying to his pride and ideas. That he has succeeded is amply proven by the way the newspapers speak of his exhibition wherever he has appeared. It is the universal verdict that he has now the most splendid, complete and high-class exhibition of the kind in America.

Everyone should come to town in time to see the gorgeous street parade at noon, and then follow the crowd to the show grounds and witness the big free exhibition.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with wetting, depend upon it, there is an ailment, difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

The best kind of a testimonial—

There is real pleasure in chewing the best tobacco grown where the best tobacco grows—in the famous Piedmont country

CHEW WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT

Only choice selections of this well matured and thoroughly cured tobacco is used in making SCHNAPPS. That's why SCHNAPPS and other of the Reynolds' brands, as shown by the Internal Revenue statistics for a fiscal year, made the wonderful growth of one and one-quarter million pounds, or a net gain of one-third of the entire increased consumption of chewing and smoking tobacco in the United States.

Obviously, chewers cannot resist the flavor and they cheer SCHNAPPS because SCHNAPPS cheers them more than any other chewing tobacco and every man that chews SCHNAPPS passes the good thing along—our chewer makes other chewers—until the fact is now established that there are many more chewers and pounds of tobacco chewed, to the population, in those States where SCHNAPPS tobacco was first sold than there are in the States where SCHNAPPS has not yet been offered to the trade.

SCHNAPPS is the crown of fine Java coffee, sweetened just enough to bring out its natural stimulating qualities. SCHNAPPS pleases all classes of chewers: the rich, because they do not mind a chew that really pleases them better at any price; the poor, because it is more economical than the larger 10c. or 15c. plugs and they get their money's worth of the real snappy, stimulating flavor so appreciated by tobacco lovers. All business men can't get more sweetening than SCHNAPPS. They are made that way to hide poor tobacco improperly cured.

For the man who chews tobacco for tobacco's sake, there is no chew like SCHNAPPS.

Sold at 25c. per pound in 5c. cuts. Strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

AND KNOW WHAT YOU ARE CHEWING

SCHNAPPS is made from thoroughly cured leaf grown in the Piedmont Tobacco belt. Has less sweetening than imitations.
