

The Asheboro Courier.

Asheboro, N. C. Nov. 29, 1906.

Local and Personal.

"Thanksgiving Day again is here and turkey is the leading question. We hope, with heartiness sincere, that our subscribers may have good digestion."

J. L. Welborn, of High Point, spent Sunday in Asheboro.

Jesse Scarborough visited Lexington Sunday.

C. M. Fox spent Sunday with his brother at Star.

See the new Xmas adv. of the Department Store.

Nerius Sikes, foreman at the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Mfg. Co., is suffering with acute rheumatism, at his home in North Asheboro.

W. P. Cox and wife, of Clayton, Ind., are expected here next month to visit relatives in Randolph. He will visit his cousin, J. W. Cox, at Staley.

Special Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist Protestant church this (Thursday) evening.

Miss Louise Slack is spending Thanksgiving Day with Miss Hayes, at Randleman.

Rev. G. F. Kirby visited relatives at Trinity this week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Kirby.

Mrs. C. C. McAllister spent the latter part of last week in Greensboro.

Dr. M. L. Fox has completed the work of remodeling his residence on South Fayetteville street. He now has one of the handsomest residences in the city.

Dr. D. K. Lockhart visited his former home at Durham last week, returning Monday.

Advance agents of the John Sparks Show have been in Asheboro for several days billing the county for their engagement here December 4th.

A. P. Spoon, who operates a saw-mill three miles east of Asheboro, caught his hand in a saw Saturday, inflicting a painful wound. Dr. Moore dressed it, taking out a part of the bone of the little finger.

An Epworth League social will be held at Mrs. J. O. Redding's Friday night of this week.

Joseph J. Stone, of Greensboro, accompanied by Messrs. John Thacker and Bob Christman, of the same city, were guests of Rev. N. U. Richardson last week for two days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. King, of Why Not, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Forrester, at Ramseur. They returned home Monday.

W. L. Thurber has moved from two miles north of Asheboro to Central Falls.

Rev. J. R. Mendenhall, of Greensboro, spent Sunday afternoon and night in Asheboro.

Mrs. O. M. Wade and little daughter, Josephine, who have been visiting Mr. O. R. Cox's family at Cedar Falls, and Mrs. Jean Rush here, returned to their home in Troy, last week.

Mrs. McDaniel, widow of the late John McDaniel, was in town one day last week on business.

Mr. W. C. Hammond has greatly improved the appearance of his residence on Academy street by adding a porch.

Col. J. E. Walker and family have recently moved into their home on Salisbury street. Col. Walker sold his home to Mr. O. R. Cox, of Cedar Falls, and purchased the Laughlin property on Salisbury street. Mr. Cox will move to Asheboro in the near future.

The Randleman Band has employed Prof. Doc. Warburton as director for another season.

Messrs. Jos. J. Stone, J. L. Thacker and Robert J. Christman, of Greensboro, spent several days in the county last week, on a bird hunting expedition. They returned home Friday with a well filled game bag.

Deputy Sheriff J. R. McKenzie, of Montgomery county, delivered Pink Williams to the county authorities here a few days ago. Williams was sentenced to a term on the Randolph county roads at the last term of Montgomery court, but his feeble condition rendered it necessary that he remain in prison until his health improved.

Preparations are being made to further develop the Spoon Gold Mine, East of Asheboro.

A new bank has been organized at Chapel Hill with $50,000 authorized capital. It will begin business with $5,000 capital paid in.

There will be a thanksgiving service at the Methodist Episcopal church tonight.

Miss Annie Tomlinson left this afternoon for High Point, to spend Thanksgiving.

D. A. Sikes, of Pisgah, was a visitor in Asheboro Monday. Mr. Sikes was 68 years old Monday—always a firm Democrat.

Lee M. Kearns, and mother, of Farmer, were in Asheboro last week enroute to Siler City to visit relatives and friends.

Work on the new school building is being rapidly pushed. The walls will be ready for the roof in a few days.

W. B. Trogon, Jr., of Greensboro, has accepted a position at Thomasville, with the Glenanna and Pee Dee Railway Company.

We expect to see all our friends in Asheboro next week, and don't forget to renew your subscription when you come.

Look up the new adv. in this issue of the Leonard-Beavans-Stamey Co., High Point's new ladies store.

Mrs. Jesse Miller is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George B. Strickland, who is seriously ill at Lucama. Mr. Miller returned a day or two ago reporting her condition improved but much uneasiness is still felt.

The Asheboro Drug Company changes its adv. in this issue.

Miss Mozelle Dicks of Randleman, was guest of Mrs. A. H. Worth this week.

Miss Alma Ferree went to High Point Monday to attend the Cox-Pickett marriage.

Rev. W. E. Swain, has returned from the M. P. conference, which convened at Rocky Mount. Mr. Swain is in Asheboro for another year to the delight of his congregation.

Mrs. Hugh J. Burns was called to Robeson county last week on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. B. Ward.

Rev. W. C. Hammer will move to Asheboro soon. He did not take work in the M. P. church this year although urged by people who he served last year to return.

Rev. J. H. Stowe returns to the Richland circuit this year.

Last week the school house in Grant township, known as Rocky Mt. School, taught by Prof. Geo. Scott, was burned. The building caught from sparks blown from new ground which was being burned off around the building.

The condition of Mrs. E. P. Carr, of Trinity, whose illness was noted in our last issue, continues critical. Hopes for her recovery are very slight.

Attorney O. L. Sapp, who has just moved to Greensboro has associated himself with Col. J. T. Morehead, for the practice of his profession. The firm will be known as Morehead and Sapp.

Died: November 11th, at Pisgah, Union township, Fletcher R. Sikes, aged 25 years, 5 months and 24 days. He had been in declining health for several months. He was a son of Mr. D. A. Sikes, of Pisgah.

Chas. M. Fox, who has managed the Asheboro Drug Store for several months has gone to Charlotte, to accept a position with the Meger Drug Co. Mr. Fox has many friends in Randolph who regret his departure. He carries with him the best wishes of all for his success.

John H. Revelle, of Ore Hill, Chatham county, called on the Courier last Friday, ordering the paper sent to his address. Mr. Revelle is a miner of long experience and very conversant on this subject. He says while there is lots of gold in this section, there is also an inexhaustible quantity of gray copper. He reports the outcroppings everywhere between Asheboro and Siler City.

On Friday evening Mrs. J. H. Anderson entertained fifteen young people in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of her daughter, Miss Blanche. The evening passed pleasantly in playing games and partaking of a generous supply of refreshments. Mrs. E. E. Kophart and Miss Nannie Bulla were guests of honor—Mrs. Bulla leading in the games and music and Mrs. Kophart cutting the birthday cake with its fifteen tiny candles. The evening was highly enjoyed.

It is learned that Mr. O. R. Cox, will move his family to Asheboro from Cedar Falls next week.

Mrs. A. J. Luck, of Randleman, R. F. D. No. 2, moved to Asheboro this week.

Those who contributed as much as $1.00 to the cause of temperance during the recent visit of Mrs. Nannie Curtis, to Asheboro, are entitled to four pamphlets issued by her, and the same can be had by calling at the Asheboro Drug Store.

Mrs. A. M. Rankin, and children, were here this week, guests of Mrs. Martha Blair.

Mrs. George Hunsucker has moved to South Asheboro, in a cottage which has recently been remodelled.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Redding spent Sunday with Mr. Redding's parents near Maul.

Mrs. W. A. Underwood, and Master William, are here for Thanksgiving.

Miss Blanche Spoon, leaves Saturday for Staley, where she goes to teach.

Arthur Ross, returning from a business trip, passed through Biscoe Tuesday morning. A few minutes before the train arrived there, a Mr. Maness fell from the top of the new cotton mill building, and it was feared his injuries would prove fatal. No particulars could be gotten.

The West Randolph circuit was absorbed by adjoining charges. By this action Rev. James Wilson, who served it last year, goes to the Gold Hill circuit, in the Salisbury district.

The Asheboro circuit has been greatly strengthened and enlarged by adding to the three churches, West Chapel, Lebanon and Pisgah served by Rev. J. F. Alfred last year, the following: Central Falls, Worthville, Old Union, Gilend, Shepherd, and Union from the Uwharrie circuit.

Fell Under Train.
Geo. Coggins, of Biscoe, attempted to catch a train for Troy, Monday, while it was in motion. He missed the step and fell under the wheels, which passed over his right leg, severing it from his body. Mr. Coggins is well known here and his friends will be glad to learn that the accident will not prove fatal. The same day a colored employe of the A. & A. was run down by a train at Biscoe. He also lost a leg and his body was badly mangled and bruised.

All Come
As was announced on last Sunday morning, it is earnestly desired that every member of the Methodist Episcopal church be present at the hour of service next Sunday morning. This is the desire of the official board as well as the pastor. It is important that each one be present. So don't fail to be there. You will be convinced of the reasonableness of the request, before you leave the church. The presence of all children who are members, is desired, as well as the older ones.

Sincerely,
N. R. Richardson,
Pastor.

Asheboro Attorney Moves to Greensboro.
O. L. Sapp, for some time a prominent member of the Asheboro bar, has moved his family to this city, and will be associated with Col. J. T. Morehead in the practice of his profession.

Mr. Sapp was in the city yesterday attending to the unloading of his furniture. He has purchased from Dr. Hughes a handsome residence on Summit avenue, where he will reside.—Greensboro News.

About Dec. 15th the Leonard-Beavans-Stamey Co., High Point's New Store will conduct a big fur sale (for one day only) ranging in price from 98 cents to $4.00 per set. It will pay you to wait. Watch for announcement in this paper. 500 pieces of fur will be on sale.

MAKE MONEY. By selling your actual Cotton and buying futures. Write us for full particulars. B. W. Cuten & Co., 71 Beaver St., New York.

Furniture! Furniture!
My enlarged stock enables me to offer the public new House Furnishings and in greater variety. Selling at a small margin I expect to move the stock rapidly.

Bedroom Suites $11. to $40.
Besides these I offer specials in Dining Chairs, Bookers, Louches, Lounges, Hall Benches and Iron Beds.

Still better is my Art collection of Pictures. See them. A full line of Bedding.

O. R. FOX, Asheboro, N. C.
Successor to Kearns & Fox.

Asheboro Department Store Co.

The progress of Randolph demanded a change in the conduct of its mercantile enterprises, which resulted in the establishment of the big department store. The patronage extended us keeps us encouraged and always placing on our shelves the newest and best in every department. You save money by buying from our stock which represents both quality and quantity for each dollar spent.

Something to See.

Dress Goods	Seasonable Goods
The goods below can be had in all the most popular shades. They are the most popular fabrics:	Romona Tricot, warranted all wool per yard 25c.
Broad cloth from 85c. to 1.00	Melton Vellon, most popular fabric for kimonos, dressing saques, bath robes, etc.
Mohairs from 5c. to 1.00	Krinkledown, which makes up beautifully in ladies' and children's cloaks, wraps, etc.
Henriettas from 85c. to 1.75	Complete line of Flannelettes and Outings.
Panamas from 75c. to 1.00
Serges from 25c. to 1.00
Plaids, 50c.
Dress Silks from 1.00 to 1.25
Silk Plaid Waistings, 50c.

A beautiful line of prints to run from 5c. to 7c. per yard. Dress Gingham at 8c. per yard. Apron Gingham at 6c. per yard. Union suits for ladies and the little ones.

Things for Christmas.

We have already received a lot of Christmas goods, for both young and old. When our shopping come in and inspect as they arrive and plan for the Yule Tide. We have silverware, beautiful ornamental vases, water sets, table ware, handsomely decorated lamps, and a most striking line of wall pictures. Our stock embraces articles for the little ones, too numerous to mention.

Diamond Brand Shoes	Walk-Over Shoes for Men
The most serviceable shoe for ladies and misses on the market. They embrace both style and comfort. See them.	Last season we sold more of this brand than any other sold in this section. They are solid comfort, to the wearer. Call for the Walk-Over.

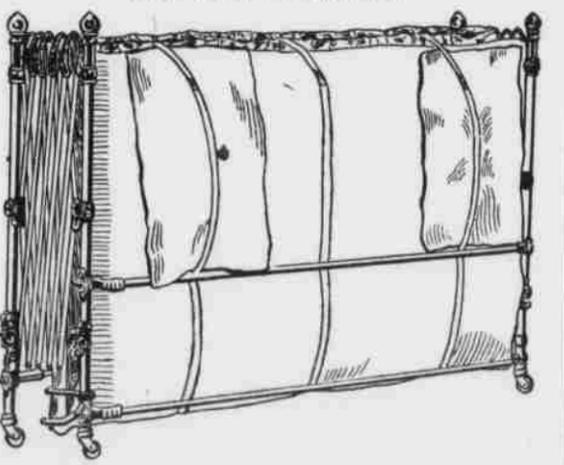

Don't forget our Grocery Department. We handle only high-grade goods, the manufacturers of which are not excited over the "Pure Food Law." They have always been pure. Phone us your order, and receive the prompt service of our quick delivery system. To keep in touch with us and our store makes the problems of domestic life easy.

Asheboro Department Store Co.

HIGH POINT MACHINE WORKS
Engineers, Founders, Machinists.
High-class repairing in all lines. Manufacturers of Steam Engines, Saw Mills, Lathe Mills and Pumping Machinery. None but expert mechanics employed. We make a specialty of repairing on heavy machinery and solicit correspondence.
IF YOU REQUIRE PROMPT SERVICE WRITE US.

SAFETY IRON FOLDING BEDS

The Twentieth Century "Sleeper."

People's House Furnishing Co., High Point, N. C.

W. H. Watkins, Jr.
Company.
CASH BUYERS OF ALL FURS.
We guarantee you better values than you can get any where else.
Express or mail us what you have and we will make returns same day they are received.
If desired we will hold goods until we see that you are satisfied or forward according to your direction.
Write for our price list.
Ramseur, - - N. C.

In New Quarters.

We have recently moved our business into the Lane store building on South Fayetteville street, where we are better prepped to serve our customers. Come to see us in our new store. Bring us all your chickens and eggs.

Buying Country Produce at Top Market Prices is Our Specialty.
RICH & MOFFITT,
Asheboro, N. C. Phone 34

We want during November and December
Large Quantities of Pork, Rabbits, Quail, Chickens, Eggs, Honey, Dried Fruit, Dried Peas, Fresh Butter, Turkeys, Ducks and Geese.
Ship us and we will pay market value or write and name your prices, free on board your depot.
We have 5,000 people to feed and want all the produce of good quality we can get.
PROXIMITY MERCANTILE CO., Greensboro, N. C.

Crown Patent Flour.

Is pronounced the best by every consumer. Try it. Also phone us your orders for Meal, Feed stuff, Bran, Shorts, Corn, Oats and Hay. We carry the best and cleanest. Your stock will thrive on it. We also offer a large quantity of Shingles at a bargain. Remember our phone number when you need Coal.

THE ASHEBORO FEE & GRAIN CO.
Phone No. 60.