Local and Personal.

Geo. M. Fonst. of Coleridge, was

Prof. D. M. Westherly, and Miss Margaret M. McAlister, of Frank-linville, attended the teachers' meeting here Saturday.

Mrs. J. V. Hunter is spending the Xmas, holidays with relatives in Mecklenburg county.

Prof. Jno. L. Harris, of Rundleman, was in Ashebore Satur-

The Baraca class is arranging for social to be given New Year's

'Xmas shoppers should read the large advertisement of Wood & Morng in this issue.

Miss Lillian Banch returned Tuesday from Greensboro, where she visited Mrs. Trogdon.

Mr. W. R. Goff was run over by a hand car on the Southern Rail-roud at Greensboro this week and hadly injured.

Mrs. Fayeth Smith was run over by a train near Gibsonville last Sunday and instantly killed. Mrs. Jesse Presnell has returned from a visit to her sister in Greens-

Chas, Clyburn shot and killed Jim Lydes in High Point on last Sunday. It is said that the evidence makes out a pre ty clear case of self-defense.

J. W. Reid, of Spencer, is here for several days visiting relatives. He has just recovered from a long attack of typhoid fever.

returned Tuesday from a visit to Miss Dora Redding.

The Randleman Bargain Co., has been incorporated with T. G. Mc-Alister, J., T. Council and S. W. Swaim as incorporators,

Messrs, E. B. Leach and Herbert Tysor, of Erect, were visitors in Asheboro Monday and Monday

Mr. J. F. Cameron, of Concord Township and Mr. Erank Varner, of Davidson county, were in Asheboro

O. R. Cox has moved from Cedar Falls to Asheboro, and is now occupying his new home, recently purchased from Mr. J. E. Walker.
Mr. Walker has moved into the dwelling he recently purchased from Shube W. Laughlin.

W. J. Adams, of Carthage, and Miss Florrie Wall, of Rockingham, will be married December 19th, in the M. E. Church South, at Rock-

Mr. N. H. Slack, special agent for the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co. has secured a check for $3000 in payment of insurance held by the late J. H. McDaniel.

Rev. J. H. Stowe has purchas deight acres of land from Mr. W. R. Richardson in the southern part of town on Richardson Reservation.

Mr. Orlando Free, of Asheboro, a son of John Free, of Cedar Falls, was married to Miss Daphne Wil-liams, of High Point, last night.

W. D. Blue, business manager of the Troy Montgomrian, spent Friday in Asheboro, on business. The Montgomrian is one of our most thrifty weekly exchanges.

W. H. Chandler, A. J. Averton, R. M. Noble, Thos. S. Bell and E. J. Noble who are interested in mining in this section, are spending the week at the Central.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Surratt spent Saturday night in Asheboro at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nance. Mr. Surratt is now teaching at the new school house in New Hope township, Bells Grove school house. This is a new school house and is This is a new school house and is one of the best country school houses in the county. More than 30 of the total patent folding desks have been placed in the building. The teacher, Mr. Surratt has recently purchased a new bell and donated it to the building. Mr. Surratt is one of the leading public school teachers in the county. teachers in the county.

STATE OF OHIO, City of Tolodo.

W. F. McDowell killed a sheep last week weighing 85 lbs dressed.

Mr. W. A. Webster, who has lived

Au important meeting of the Knights of Pythias will be held in their castle hall Monday night.

Readers of the Courier who are saving tags from the R. J. Reynolds tobaccos should note their advertisement on the third page. No ta redeemed after January 1st, 1907.

The music class of Miss Nannie Bulla will give a recital at the Academy tonight.

A. C. Kelley, of Carthage, spent Monday in Asheboro on businesss.

Mr. Samuel Spoon and family have moved to Asheboro and occupy the new dwelling which he has recently built near his son-in-law, Mr. John Humble.

The dwelling of Susan Staley, old colored woman, in Coleridge township, was burned on last Sun-

By reading our advertising col-umns you will see what the live, up-to-date merchants of our town are offering. The merchant who does not care enough to tell you about his goods and the bargains he offers, is not considered enterprising.

The Literary Societies of Elise High School will play "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," on Friday evening, December the fourteenth, nineteen hundred and six. Ad-mission fee ten cents. The pro-ceeds will go to the athletic fund.

W. C. Armstrong, who form rly held a position with the Morris-Scarboro-Moflitt Co., in Asheboro, is now bookkeeper for A. V. Cross, contractor at High Point. Mr. Arm contractor at high Point. Mr. Arm strong who recently visited his father at Central Falls is a young man of merit, and his many friends will be glad to learn of his success in our He visited

Mr. and Mrs. John Stutts, o Moore county, visited their brother, Wm. and Henry here, last week. Messrs. Frank Hamlin and R. L.

Messra, Frink Hamilin and R. L. contributions of nearly $25,000 nav-Freeman, have recently stopped school to teach in Montgomery, Mr. Walter Williams has also stopped to assist his father at the store and saw mill through Xmas.

Prof. Garner will have an enter-tainment Friday night Dec. 21, 1906. He has a full subsol.

Miss Tailed Latham as suffer. Will meet at Wilmington next.

Miss Lucinda Latham is suffering very much with a bone felon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lawrence, and little daughters, Delphin and Lizzie, spent Saturday night at J.

H. Spencers.
Missis Jessis Boroughs and Esther Auman, of Asheboro, spent Sunday here. E. B. Slack is at home for a few ed from a visit to South Carolina. Mrs. B. B. Blooks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Auman, of Rev. H. Albright the county

Steeds, spent Sunday at Mr. T. surveyor has been away the past M Lawrence. week surveying land.

M Lawrence.

Mrs. Nora Russell has gone to Montgomery to visit her son.

Prof. Garner, E. E. McNeil and Miss Bona Yow attended the teachers' meeting at Asheboro Sat

G. D. B. Reynolds Esq., of

day and Sunday at home.

Miss Emily Garner, was here Saturday on her way to Jacksen
Springs, to spend a few days.

Ralph Items,

A. C. Cox went up to High Point gains. last week on busicess.
Miss Ida Henley, who is teaching at Spero, spent Saturday and Sunday t home. K. L. Winningham has gone down South.

Will Luck, of High Point spent

Thursday night at A. C. Cox's, Houston Luck is all smiles Another boarder has arrived and we guesa he has come to stay.

Preparations are being made for Christmas tree at Brower's Chapel. The school at Browers is progres-sing nicely with Mr. Williams as

Mr. Bluir With Mattocks Bros.

Mr. Roland E. Blair, one of High Point's best known salesmen, is now at this place to show you one of the newest, swellest and cheapest lines of Clothing you ever saw.

Din't forget, Mattecks Bros is the place, High Point, N. C.

Furnishings for men women and

Fig. 1. Cherny makes cat boat he is semor partner of the item of F. J. Chemy & Co., define business, in the tity of Tolesto, & Co., define business, in the tity of Tolesto, & Co., define business, in the tity of Tolesto, & Co., define business, in the tity of Tolesto, & Co., define business, in the tity of Tolesto, & Co., define challenges in the tity of Tolesto, and the tity of the tity for several years seven miles below State Convention Held at Greens-Mt. Gilead, has moved to Archdale, boro Last Week.

BAPTISTS MEET.

Church-Convention Sermon By Dr. F. D. Hale, of Wilmington.

The State Baptist Convention met in annual session in the First Bap-tist Church at Greensboro last Wed nesday morning of last week. The attendance was good, and enthusiasm was manifested on every

The first day was consumed by the appointment of committees and other prelimmaries.

The following officers were also elected Wednesday:
W. N. Jones, of Raleigh, presi-

Lee H. Battle, of Greensboro, first vice president.

F. P. Hobgood, of Oxford, second vice-president.

Rev. William Lunsford, of Asheville, third vice president.

N. B. Broughton, of Raleigh, cording secretary. Hight C. Moore, of Raleigh, assistant recording secretary.

Walter Darham of Raleigh, trens-

F. H. Briggs, of Raleigh, auditor. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, corresponding s-cretary.

orresponding s-cretary.

The following trustees were reelected: W. C. Tyree, of Raleigh;
G. C. Briggs of Waynesville; N.
Biggs, of Scotland Neck; Fx-Gov ernor C. B. Avecck, of Goldsbore;
D. L. Gore, of Wilmington.
Rev. Fred D. Hale; pastor of the First Church, of Wilmington, preached the convention sermon.
Thursday morning the convention settled down to actual business, and every act was characterized by deep every act was characterized by deep

Rev. J. W. Gwaltney, of Rickory, made the report of the trustees of the Thomasville orphanage. The report reviewed the work of the orphanage over twenty years ago to the present time, showing a most flattering condition, there being 333 children now there well cared for, contributions of nearly $25,000 hav-

Christmas Tree at Shiloh.

Blanche, the four year old daughter, of Mr. and Mis. A. M. Macon, died of diptheria December 1st. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Phillips spending several days at J. C. Cox's

Mr. Philips is hunting. Rev. M. L. Hurley filled his regular appointment at Shiloh days.

C. E. Stuart visited Asheboro
Saturday.
Miss Tena Richardson has returns some time with his parents. Mr. and

J. E. Albright attended court There will be a Sunday School Thristmas tree at Shiloh church on urday.

G. D. B. Reynolds Esq., of Trov.

Miss Coney Spencer spent Satur- will make a talk. Everybody is ELMA.

Christmas Shopping.

Our merchants have more Christmas goods than ever before. The stores are filled with splendid bargains. Do your Christmas shopping early and avoid the rush. If you wait until the last few days the weather may be bad and you will not get to come to town. When you comnot fail to come to see the Courier.

Vick's CRAMP and PNEUMONIA GURE.

Mr. L. Richardson, Chem., Greensboro, N. C. This is to certify that I have been using Vick's cramp and Pneumonia

Salve in my family for three years and have always found it to be a certain cure. I always keep it on hand in case of an emergency.

Yours truly,
C. C. Cranford, Prop-Crown Milling Co.
Asheboro, N. C.

L. RICHARDSON M'F'G CHEMIST. Greensboro, N. Caro.

Kanoy Items.

J. B. Beck's little boy is still very sick with pneumonia.

J. L. Owen's baby, Penn, has been very sick for the past week but is improving.

Miss Callie Auman, who is teach-

SHOWING MADE FOR Ding at Brown's Mills, spect list Tuesday right with Miss Ma Beek.

Miss Callie Auman, who is teach—
W. Cranford was bouned Dec. 1st.
The sday right with Miss Ma Wilson Russell visited at A. G.

Goffin's Sunday night.

Roy, Mr. Clark preached at H. Isboro Sanday.

Samuel J. Root, of Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. McLend, jef Mont gom ry county, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Madison Asbill.

W. D. Mcflitt has bought the S. C., is visiting in this community. Mill Wrenn phase from D. Auman. Mesers Carter and Garner are John Talbert was shot at Witson. Will Wrenn place from D. Auman.

putting in a new stock of goods at Brower's Mill.

Hill's store one day last week. Mrs. T. C. Hill, who has been in A young man arrived at Orlendo cime, is now at Troy.

Chrisco'z last week.

Asheboro Department

The progress of Randolph demanded a change in the conduct of its mercantile interprises, which resulted in the establishment of the big department store. The patronage extended us keeps us encouraged and always placing on our shelves the newest and best in every department. You save money by buying from our stock which represents both quality and quantity for each dollar spent.

Something to See.

Dress Goobs

The goods below can be had in all the most popular shades They are the most popular fab-

Broad cloth from 85c, to 1.00 Mohairs from 5c, to 1.00 Henriettas from 85c, to 1.75 Panamas from 75c, to 100 Serges from 25c, to 1.00 Plaids, 50c. Dress Silks from 1 00 to 1 25 Silk Plaid Waistings, 50c.

Seasonable Goods

Quincy Hill, who has been visiting

Charles and Misses Ada and Ida Rali, of Chandlers, visited R. L.

Talbert's Saturday and Sunday.
The corn crib and grainery of J.

Baltimore under treatment for some

Store Co.

in South Carolina, has returned.

Romona Tricot, warranted all wool per yard 25c.

Melton Vellon, most popular fabric for kimonos, dressing sacques, bath robes, etc.

Krinkledown, which makes up beautifully in ladies' and children's cloaks, wraps, etc.

Complete line of Flannelettes and Outings.

A beautiful line of prints to run from 5c. to 7c. per yard. Dress Ginghams at 8c. per yard. Apron Ginghams at 6c, per yard. Union suits for ladies and the little ones.

Things for Christmas.

We have already received a lot, of Christmas goods, for both young and old. When out shopping come in and inspect as they arrive and plan for the Yule Tide.

We have silverware, beautiful ornimental vaces, water sets, table ware, handsomely decorated lamps, and a most striking line of wall pictures. Our stock embraces articles for the little ones to numer water mention. ones, too numerous to mention,

Diamond Brand Shoes

The most serviceable shoe for The most serviceable shoe for ladies and misses on the market. They embrace both style and comfort. See them.

Last season we sold more of this brand than any other sold in this section. They are solid comfort, to the wearer. Call for the Walk-Over.

Walk-Over Shoes for Men

Last season we sold more

Don't forget our Grocery Department. We handle only high-grade goods, the manufacturers of which are not excited over the "Pure Food Law." They have always been pure. 'Phone us your order, and receive the prompt service of our quick delivery system. To keep in touch with us and our store makes the problems of domestic life easy.

Asheboro Department Store Co.

Headquarters for Christmas Goods.

Do you want to substantially remember your friends this year—want to give them something they will really appreciate—see our collection of hand painted china, cut glass, toilet articles and other things too numerous to mention. We are other things too numerous to mention.
offering big bargains in these lines.

We are headquarters for both Christmas gifts groceries. We are anxious for the houseand groceries. We are anxious for the nouse-wives of Randolph county as well as Asheboro, to try our special brands of cannel goods, warranted all high grade. Then we also have a fresh line flavorings, eventhized fruits, raisins, currants, etc., for Christmas. Fresh supply of sauces, pickles, presents, etc., put up by the colebrated Heinz concern.

Morris-Scart o o Moffitt Co

W. H. Watkins, Jr. Company.

CASH BUYERS

ALL FURS.

We guarantee you better values than you can get any where else.

Express or mail us what you have and we will make returns same day they are received.

If desired we will hold goods until we see that you are satisfied or forward according to your direction.

Write for our price

Ramseur. - N. C.

In New Quarters.

We have recently moved our business into the Lane store building on South Fayetteville street, where we are better prepaced to serve our

Come to see us in our new store. Bring us all your chickens and eggs.

Buying Country Produce at Top Market Prices is Our

RICH MO FFITT. Asheboro, N. C. 'Phone 34

Specialty.

Turkeys Wanted

We will give our employees a fine Turkey as usual this Xmas.

We want 1,000 Fancy, Fat Young Gobblers, the choicest turkeys that can be found in North Carolina.

How Many Can You Furnish? Write us at once and state number you will deliver us by Dec. 20th and prices asked F. O. B. your depot or delivered this place.

PROXIMITY MERCANTILE CO., Greensboro, N. C.

Grown Patent Flour.

Is pronounced the best by every consumer. Try it. Also phone us your orders r Meat, Feed stuff, Bran, Shorts, Corn, Oats and Hay, We carry the best and cleanest, Your stock will thrive on it. We also offer a large quantity of whiteless at a bergain. Re-me sher our "phone number who you need Cool,

THE ASHEBOR / FEE) & GRAIN GO!

Thone No. "".